IRRIGON NEWS

By FRANCES ROSE WILSON

IRRIGON—Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Campbell of Anchorage, Alaska, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Jorgensen, Mrs. Campbell is Mr. Jorgensen's cousin.

Injuries suffered in a fall on the ice resulted in an ambulance trip to the Umatilla hospital for Mrs. Dave Young on Monday. Her injuries were intensified by those suffered in an auto accident some time ago from which she had not fully recovered.

Dannette Leighton underwent surgery last week and is convalescing in Good Shepherd hospital in Hermiston.

Mrs. Myrna Miller of Portland was a guest of her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Jorgensen over the week-end.

Rev. Herbert Vaughn is confined to the Umatilla hospital where he underwent surgery this past week.

Mrs. Pete Richards and 4-H Community Club leader, Mrs. John Brandt, attended a 4-H leaders conference at Corvallis the week of January 15. The trip was made with other leaders and Morrow county extension agent, Gail McCarty.

Lloyd Berger was taken to the Umatilla hospital this week suffering with lung congestion.

Michael and Jeff Easterling took the bus to Nampa, Idaho, where they visited their father, Andrew Easterling. They came back by plane.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Richards traveled to Heppner last Monday evening for a 4-H livestock leaders meeting. The group was called together to review the 4-H livestock program for the county and to discuss changes which might be needed for this year's fair premium book.

Warren McCoy made a business trip to Portland on Friday and returned on Saturday.

Subscription to The Gazette-Times makes a fine birthday or anniversary gift or gift for any occasion. For $4.50 per year it will reach your friend or relative anywhere in the United States.

New Councilmen Take Oath of Office

By FRANCES ROSE WILSON

IRRIGON—The oath of office was administered to newly elected council members Elbert Eppenbach and Elva Sanders, by Mayor Wilson and they were seated in the January meeting of the City Council.

Election of the mayor from among the council for the coming year was deferred to a later meeting due to the absence of Councilman Warren McCoy, who was ill. The charter requires all members to be present for this annual election.

Mrs. Ruth Coy was appointed to the office of recorder-treasurer and she replaces Marilyn Stewart, who was appointed pro tem to finish the term of Rita Books for the water distribution system, pumping station and storage facilities were examined and changes noted. A call for bids was authorized for their construction and the invitation will be advertised with bid opening set for the last part of February. It is anticipated work will begin on the project in March after contracts are awarded.

The Federally funded project is expected to be ready for operation in June and will initially serve about 55 families.

Funeral services were conducted at the Community Baptist church Wednesday, January 15, for Pete Paxson, a former resident, and more recently of Vancouver, Wash. His mother, Mrs. Elvora Paxson, and three sisters, Mrs. Elbert Eppenbach, Mrs. Earl Sanders and Mrs. Kenneth Eppenbach, reside here.

Pastor Herbert Vaughn was in charge of the service and Mrs. Harvey Warner and Mrs. Chester Wilson sang. Interment was in the Umatilla cemetery.

Among out-of-town visitors attending the service were his widow, Maxine, and son Danny of Vancouver, his son Larry of San Diego, Calif., his daughter, Mrs. Susan Reed of Lompoc, Calif., where her husband is stationed at the air base, and his brother, Ottimer, of Tarrington, Wyo.

At the kindergarten meeting at A. C. Houghton school Friday, January 17, announcement was made that Mrs. Irene Brooks of Hermiston will be the teacher. She has signed a contract covering the school term, which will begin on February 10 and continue through May 9. There will be a charge of $12.50 a month for each student.

As there are 24 children signed up for the sessions, they will be divided into two groups, half attending in the morning and the remainder coming in the afternoon. Mrs. Karen Cooley will assist Mrs. Brooks in the mornings and Mrs. Carol Johnson in the afternoons.

As in the regular school grades, Kindergarten will embrace children from both the Boardman and Irrigon communities. Parents having children of this age who they wish to attend should contact Mrs. Beryl Cooley.

A tea will be given honoring the new teacher on January 29.

Funeral services for Kermit Parsons, were held in Burns Mortuary Chapel in Hermiston with Rev. Leon Bolen conducting the service. Burial was in the Umatilla cemetery.

Mr. Parsons was a carpenter and he and his family had lived in the community several years, where he operated the Irrigon Motel Apartments.

Visitors here to attend the service included his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Eves of Pendleton; two sons, Skip of Aberdeen, Wash., and Tom, who is stationed in Saigon, Vietnam, and who made the trip by plane to be here. Others were, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Van Nostern and Ed Lindberg of Yakima and Mrs. John Oxley of Portland.

Eight names were added to the church membership roll of the Assembly of God in a special reception service. Pastor John Kenney read the charges to the group in an after-session following the morning worship service.

A potluck fellowship meal was served afterwards in the basement of the parsonage and was attended by about 40 people.

Mrs. Al Partlow attended a postmaster dinner meeting at the Chalet Lodge in Tollgate. A postal film entitled, "F. S. Sister Sends Her Love" was shown and the group was addressed by Postmaster Lynn Ranney of Pendleton. Also present was Inspector M. M. Carlson of Pendleton.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Cooper and daughters, Carrie and Vawna, of Eugene spent several days in the area visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Stephens. They also visited his uncles Clark and Curtis Stephens of Hermiston and Umatilla.
