Assisting the honoree with her gift opening were Debbie Bennett, Susan French, Verina French and Sue Greenup, sister of the bride-elect.

The parish hall was festively decorated in the bride's chosen colors of lime green, and the green floral centerpiece on the tea table was presented to her as a gift.

Special guests who assisted with serving were mothers of the honored couple, Mrs. Leo Ashbeck, who served punch, and Mrs. Don Greenup, who served coffee.

Hostesses for the bridal party included Mrs. Ray French, Mrs. Harry O'Donnell, Mrs. Clint Algee, Mrs. Wayne Snyder, Mrs. Dick Borman, Mrs. Don Bennett, Mrs. E. W. Hughes of Ukiah, and Mrs. Harold Erwin.

Meat Buying Course Offered Homemakers Through Extension

A new correspondence course to help homemakers get the most from the large fraction of their food dollar that goes for meat has been prepared by Velma Seat, Oregon State University Extension food marketing specialist.

The five lessons, entitled "You—The Informed Meat Buyer," were written as a direct result of requests from homemakers who took an earlier correspondence course, "You—The Food Shopper," Mrs. Seat said.

Nearly 6,000 women in 25 Oregon counties enrolled in that course last year, and classes are being repeated in several areas for the second and third time, she reports.

The meat buying course is tailored especially to the needs of the young homemaker. However, the basic information included should be helpful to all women looking for ways to hold down food bills without sacrificing nutritional values or "meal appeal," according to the OSU food marketing specialist.

Lessons explain differences between various cuts of meat, understanding meat grading and inspection, selecting meat on the basis of cost per serving, and recipes and cooking methods suited to the kind and cut of meat in family meals.

Poultry selection and preparation tips are included along with information on beef, lamb and pork buying and cooking.

Home economics extension agents in 11 Oregon counties have already scheduled the meat buying course for next month, Mrs. Seat reports, and agents in other counties will be offering it at a later date.

Interested homemakers may contact their county extension offices for further information on the correspondence course, which is offered at no cost to the participants.

Entries Encouraged For Father of Year

All 4-H clubs and youth organizations throughout Morrow county are encouraged to participate in this year's Father of the Year contest, sponsored annually by the Morrow County CowBelles.

Entry forms will be mailed out within the next few days to the youth groups, and all who are interested in submitting a candidate for the contest are urged to return the completed forms to the county chairman, Mrs. Ned (Kathy) Clark or Mrs. Jerry (Marion) Brosnan by April 15, for judging.

Winner of the county contest, along with his family, will be honored by the CowBelles with a special barbecue dinner in June and will be eligible for statewide competition. The state winner will receive a $100 cash award and a week-end at the Hilton Hotel in Portland with his family.

The youth club sponsoring the winning county candidate will receive a $10 cash award.

Honor Group Holds Progressive Dinner

Twenty-five student members of Heppner High school Honor Society and their advisor, Mrs. Temple, traveled over 90 miles for dinner recently when they enjoyed their annual progressive dinner.

First course of the meal included appetizers, served to the group at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Chitty in Heppner. They traveled on to the Roger Campbell home, seven miles outside of Lexington, for the salad course, and progressed to the Bill Healy home on Butter Creek for the main course. Traveling back to Heppner, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Miller were hosts to the group for the dessert course at their home.

Altar Society of St. Patrick's Catholic church held its March meeting last Tuesday, under the direction of Mrs. John Mollahan, president.

Plans were announced for a food sale to be held Saturday, March 29, at Central Market starting at 10 a.m.

Ladies of the Altar Society are also planning a spring card party for April 28 in the church parish hall. The party was previously scheduled for January but was cancelled by bad weather. Charman of the party will be Mrs. Bill Kenny.

Hostesses for the evening who provided refreshments for the members attending were Mrs. Carl Thorpe and Mrs. Mollahan.

Committees Continue Plans for Carnival

Dance committee of the Heppner Band Carnival has announced the selection of the Burnt Sleep combo of Heppner to play for the dance which will follow the dinner and carnival at the fair pavilion on Saturday evening, April 19. Making up the group are Ken Baker, lead guitarist; Steve Sather, rhythm guitarist; Steve Hedman, bass guitar, and Dale Hedman, drums.

Dinner will be served by a mothers' committee from 5:00 to 7:00 p.m. in the main pavilion before the carnival booths open. The committee is considering several special ideas that may be "firsts" for the annual carnival.

Serving on the poster committee are Mrs. Tom Beam and Mrs. John Mollahan.

Mrs. Ned (Lillian) Sweek is home from a two week's stay in St. Alphonsus hospital in Boise, Idaho, where she recently underwent major back surgery for a ruptured disc condition. Mrs. Sweek will return to Boise in two weeks for a checkup. Although she is feeling well and is able to be up and around more all the time, she has only two positions, up and down, which sometimes hinders her movements. This was her third major back surgery in the past three years.

Mr. and Mrs. Wes Sherman, Cathy, and Kerry Coppock, traveled to Forest Grove for the week-end. They visited at intervals on Saturday and Sunday with the mother and grandmother, Mrs. H. A. Sherman, Sr., who is a patient in Forest Grove Community hospital. She is making steady gains following major surgery there last Thursday, but will be confined for several more days.

Julie Ayres, 16-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Ayres, is "coming along just fine," according to a report from her father early this week. Julie has been seriously ill in Pioneer Memorial hospital for the last two weeks, suffering from pneumonia and a resulting drug reaction. She is a sophomore at Heppner High school.

Mr. and Mrs. David Cox traveled from Portland to visit over the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Cox. David has been advancing in his employment with Zellerbach Paper Company in Portland to the position of one of its leading salesmen in that area.

John Dubuque began his basic training with the U. S. Army last week. He accompanied his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Toussaint Dubuque, to Arlington last Tuesday, March 4, where he joined other young men from the area to be transported to Fort Lewis, Wash., for induction and several weeks of basic training.

Bob Bryant of Portland visited over the week-end with his grandmother, Mrs. Madge Bryant, who is convalescing at home from a recent illness. He also visited his sister, Mrs. Kenneth Cutsforth, and family, and other relatives during his stay.
