

Church Sponsors Youth Ski Trip

By EVA HAMLETT

IONE — Fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth grade church school classes of the Ione United Church of Christ motored to Spout Springs on Sunday, March 2, to spend the day skiing. Before leaving Ione, Mrs. Henry Krebs conducted the worship service.

Thirty-three people attended, including Mr. and Mrs. Bill Rietmann, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Rietmann, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lindstrom, Mr. and Mrs. Don Linnell, and Mrs. Henry Krebs, who chaperoned the group.

Mrs. Frederick Martin recently attended a luncheon at the home of Mrs. Fred Sutterfield in Portland. Those attending were members of the nominating committee of the Oregon State Federation of Garden Clubs, Inc.

People from out of town who attended the funeral of Blaine Chapel on March 12 were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Kapus of Point Baker, Alaska, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Johnson of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Howard, Mrs. Margaret Thomas, Lloyd Harshman, Jr., of Walla Walla, Wash., Mrs. Lloyd Harshman and Anna Marie Harshman of Dayton, Glen Walker of Pendleton, Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Baity of Boardman, and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Brisbois of Spray.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Crabtree and grandson, Scott Crabtree, drove to Walla Walla, Wash., Sunday, where they met Mr. and Mrs. Alvin McCabe and family from Colfax, Wash. The occasion was Alvin McCabe's birthday, and they also learned that Mr. McCabe had recently been elected president of Colfax Junior Chamber of Commerce for the ensuing term.

Richard Rea, and daughters, Donna and Darcy, of Portland, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Clell Rea. Rea returned home Sunday, however Donna and Darcy remained to spend spring vacation at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Halvorsen.

On Thursday evening, March 20, at 8:00 p.m. at the United Church of Christ, the Women's Fellowship is sponsoring a visit by Mr. and Mrs. Richard Fagan, who are agricultural missionaries in the Philippines. Their work is in the areas of rural community development, livestock, and seed improvement, and their presentation will include slides and discussion. Those in the community interested are cordially invited to attend.

The Ione City Council will meet Tuesday, April 1, and will conduct a hearing on the City budget. The public is invited to attend.

On March 27 at 10:00 a.m., the Women's Fellowship of the United Church of Christ will meet at the church. Members are to bring a sack lunch and to work on clothing for the Eastern Oregon State Hospital.

The music department will be represented at the state contests. On March 8 at the Music Festival held in Hermiston, David Marick won first place with his tuba solo, and will compete with other winners at Willamette University in April. Friends wish Dave lots of luck and hope he brings home the honors.

Mrs. Edris Lindstrom spent a few days here from Portland last week.

The Ione Garden Club will meet at the home of Mrs. Omar Rietmann on March 27 at 1:30 p.m. Mrs. Will Sipfle from Hermiston will be guest speaker and her topic will be "Herbs in Our Gardens".

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Engleman in Portland was the scene of a private wedding uniting Zelma Hansen and Carroll Morrison, both of Portland, on March 15. Guests attending were the immediate family of the bride and groom. Attending from here were Mrs. Vera Rietmann, Mrs. Walt Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Engleman and son, Frankie. Also attending were Mr. and Mrs. John Turner from Baker.

Teacher Group Hears Travelogue on India

Morrow county members of Iota Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma traveled to Milton-Freewater for a luncheon meeting on Saturday, March 8.

Rudolph Rada, assistant superintendent of the Milton-Freewater schools, was guest program speaker. His topic was "Travelogue of India". Mr. Rada, a recipient of a Fulbright Grant, explained that the purpose of the grant was to evaluate the educational program of India and to correct American attitudes toward the Orient.

"We must realize that India has been an independent nation less than 25 years and is faced with all the problems any new nation has with an exploding population," he said. However, he believes that great progress will be made during the next five years.

Mrs. Marville Zerba, accompanied by Mrs. Cleve Skold, presented two vocal numbers from "The Sound of Music".

Morrow county teachers who attended the meeting were Mrs. Zoe Billings, Mrs. LaVern Partlow, Mrs. Ruth Bentley, Mrs. Joyce Smith, Mrs. Gladys Ely and Mrs. Velva Becholdt.

Relatives Visit Cox Home Recently

Special week-end guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Cox were her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Hampton from Worland, Wyo. Hampton is Mrs. Cox's youngest brother, whom she had not seen for 57 years, since making a visit to the family home in Galax, Va., when he was 13 years old. Mr. Hampton served in the 148th field Artillery and Army of Occupation in France and Coblenz, Germany, during World War II. The couple planned a tour of Southern California before returning to their home in Wyoming, where he is a semi-retired assessor. This was their first trip to Eastern Oregon.

Also joining them at the Cox home at this time were the couple's daughter, Mrs. Nancy Holden from Goldendale, Wash., and their son, Charles M. Cox of Portland. Charles was recently promoted to an executive position in the Veteran's Administration office in Walla Walla, after working as head contact officer in Portland. The family will move to Walla Walla when the school year is completed.

Mr. and Mrs. Pat Wonsler were hosts at their home recently to Mr. and Mrs. Dean Edwards and three children who came from their home in Hood River for a day of visiting. Last week-end the Wonslers and their daughter, Robin, traveled to Bend for a visit with their parents, while Wonsler took part in a monthly National Guard training session.
