

Miss Riley Extended Farewell Wishes

A farewell coffee hour was held in honor of Miss Alice Riley following morning services Sunday in the Methodist church. Friends gathered at the parsonage home of the Rev. and Mrs. Melvin Dixon to extend her their good wishes as she leaves the community. Assisting Mrs. Dixon with the arrangements was Mrs. Bill Farra.

Miss Riley has made her home in Heppner the past two years. She taught English and Spanish in Heppner High school until the time of her illness and hospitalization last winter.

She is moving this week to a home overlooking Wallowa Lake, where she plans to reside for two years and continue medical checkups with a Pendleton doctor. She then plans to take residence in a retirement home in California.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Road were moved from Elgin to Heppner last week by their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Road. They will make their home here next door to their son and family, who recently purchased the former Fred Ott home. The father operated a hardware store in Elgin for a number of years before his health failed.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Ruhl and Dana returned to their home in Roseburg last Sunday following a spring vacation visit here with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. McQuarrie and Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Ruhl of Lexington. Mrs. Ruhl and Dana arrived early in the week and were met at the Hinkle train depot by her mother. They were joined later in the week by Ruhl, who had been attending the state A-1 basketball tournament in Portland.

Civic League Plans Spring Rummage Sale

Members of the Heppner Civic League held their March meeting last Monday evening at the grade school under the direction of Mrs. Carl Marquardt, president, who presided during the meeting.

Much of the evening's discussion was devoted to plans for the annual spring rummage sale, which is planned this year for Friday and Saturday, April 11-12 in the former Tryco building.

Members also discussed the hiring of a new teacher to teach next year's classes, as Mrs. Don Turner will resign at the close of the school year to move from the area with her family. Discussion was held also as to whether members would favor a four month kindergarten class over a nine month class, and it was decided to mail out questionnaires to parents of next year's kindergarten age pupils to see how many would be in favor.

Women's Golf Club Starts Spring Play

Plans for summer activities of the Women's Golf Club of Willow Creek Country club will be discussed at a reorganizational meeting Tuesday morning, April 8, at the clubhouse. It is announced by Mrs. Beverly Gunderson, club president.

Members of the club, and others who are interested in participating, are asked to meet at 9:00 a.m. Election of officers will be included in the business meeting, as well as plans for starting regularly scheduled play. A practice round of golf will follow the meeting for those who wish to stay.

Music Festival Combines Bands From 8 Schools

By EVA HAMLETT

IONE—The lone High school band participated in the Music Festival held at Umatilla, March 28 and 29, along with Arlington, Riverside, Wheeler County, Stanfield, Echo, Hermiston, Junior High and Umatilla bands.

This festival is a yearly event to help further the music education of our students, and was conducted by William Schink, professor of music, College of Idaho, Caldwell, Idaho. Under his direction the 250 students presented a mass band concert Saturday evening.

This concert was poorly attended by adults who could have enjoyed listening to this outstanding music as well as to show the students they appreciated their efforts. Lone High school has an outstanding music department and many feel it should merit the attendance and support of the parents and townspeople as much as sports events do.

Mr. and Mrs. Fredrick Martin spent part of last week at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Al Brazell, at Castle Rock, Wash. While there Mrs. Martin accompanied her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Horton to Bothell, Wash., to attend the funeral of her uncle, O. D. Horton.

Mrs. Ella Burgoyne is home again after a lengthy illness in the hospital.

Students home from college during the spring vacation were Kerry Peterson, Chuck Nelson, and Cheryl Smouse from OSU; Terry and Lee O'Connor, Dick Hynd, and Jerry Stefani, from the U of O; Willa Johnson, Barbara Bishop, Tim Loyd, Janet Palmateer, Janice Snider, Susan and Stephen Lindstrom, from Eastern Oregon College; Rodney Linnell and Virgil Morgan from Blue Mt. College; Maureen McElligott from Portland University; Tom Heimbigner from Portland State; Bernice and Deniece Matthews from Oregon College of Education, Monmouth; and Pamela Proudfoot, Whitman College, Walla Walla, Wash.

Achievement tests were given to members of the 8th grade class Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday, Thursday and Friday they will be given the algebra aptitude tests. Report cards were issued April 2, and grade school conferences are being held this week. Group pictures were to be taken on Thursday, April 3, which included classes, clubs, athletic groups, band, etc.

Palm Sunday at the United Church of Christ was also youth Sunday with an experimental service using folk hymns and contemporary language. In place of a sermon, a movie and taped music and prayers were used to show the new forms of communication. Those taking part were Charity Beggs and Clint Krebs, in charge of bulletins; Rick Boyce and Cheryl Smouse, offering; Scott Wilson, Kristin Nelson, Chris McCabe, Joy Beggs, Keith Nelson, Barbara Boyce, Linda Pettyjohn and Jane Krebs, led worship service; Cathy Cannon and Kath Holtz, candlelighters; Susan Jane Jepson played piano; Mrs. Darrel James led the singing, and Dennis McKay accompanied with his guitar. The movie and taped music is available to other churches or organizations that may like to use them.

The Lenten study services have been completed and the group would like to thank Milton Morgan, Suzanne Jepsen, Judy Rea and Don Bristow for their leadership.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Paavola and daughter, Jennifer, of Scappoose, spent the week-end at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Morgan. Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Davidson and son, Dwayne, arrived Sunday and will spend this week visiting their parents and friends.

The Lions Club held a crab feed Saturday evening for members, wives and guests at the lone Legion hall. After the feed the evening was spent in dancing.

Mrs. Fredrick Martin and Mrs. Edith Nicholson attended the meeting of the Stanfield Civic Iris Club of the Oregon Federation of Garden Clubs, Inc., at the home of Mrs. Fern Zivney last Tuesday. Mrs. Martin attended as Director of the Blue Mountain District of the Oregon Federation of Garden Clubs, Inc.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Mosersol of Estacada, Calif., spent Tuesday evening at the home of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Beggs and family.

The Beta Omega Sorority will hold a traveling food sale on Good Friday at 10:00 a.m. Those who wish to place orders are asked to call Mrs. John Jepsen, 422-7180 or Mrs. Charles Doherty, 422-7177.

The Junior and Senior classes of the lone High school will motor to Salem next Tuesday, leaving at 5:00 a.m. to visit the State Capitol and legislature. Irvin Mann will be the official host for the group.

The lone PTA will hold a fun night April 11. The program will be announced at a later date. Maundy Thursday communion service of the United Church of Christ will be at 8:00 p.m. The Good Friday services will be held in Heppner at the United Methodist church. Easter breakfast will be at 8:00 a.m., Sun-

Bride-elect Honored With Shower Party

Miss Marty Boyajian, bride-elect of John Neely of Maupin, was honored by friends and relatives with a miscellaneous bridal shower last Wednesday evening at St. Patrick's parish hall.

Assisting the honoree with her gift opening were her sisters, Sheila and Alene, and Gale Malcom.

Mrs. James Daly of Pendleton and Mrs. Margaret Healy of Heppner, both grandmothers of Miss Boyajian, poured coffee and punch.

Among the friends and relatives who attended the shower was her aunt, Mrs. Virgil Boyd of Pendleton.

Hostesses for the shower party were Mrs. Howard Cleveland, Mrs. LeRoy Gardner, and Mrs. Max Barclay.

Miss Boyajian and her fiancé are planning their wedding for April 12, at St. Patrick's Catholic church in Heppner.
