

Orwick Installed
Elks Exalted Ruler
At April 3 Meeting

New officers were installed and assumed their duties in Heppner Elks Lodge No. 358 at installation ceremonies Thursday evening, April 3.

Seated in the chair of exalted ruler for the coming year was Gene Orwick, succeeding Darrell Padberg, vice Rhodes, uncle of Orwick, and a past exalted ruler of Raymond, Wn., served as installing officer, assisted by other past exalted rulers.

Completing the slate of officers for the Heppner lodge are Marshall Lovgren, esteemed leading knight; Calvin Sherman, esteemed loyal knight; David McLeod, esteemed lecturing knight; Bill Siewert, esquire; Bob Mahoney, chaplain; Glen Ward, secretary; Joe Balfe, inner guard; Ralph Kincaid, tiler; L. E. Dick, treasurer; Everett Harshman, Orville Cutsforth-Conley Lanham, Clint McQuarrie and Pat O'Brien, trustees; and Kenneth Turner, organist.

Preceding the lodge meeting, a ham dinner was served to observe Ladies Night, by a committee of past exalted ruler's wives.

Coast Trip Enjoyed Following Wedding

Mrs. Millie Evans enjoyed a week of vacation last month when she and Mrs. Grace Buschke traveled to Eugene on March 22 to attend the wedding of Mrs. Evans' grandson, Monte Evans, to Miss Susan Wiemers. The wedding ceremony was held in the Lutheran church on the University of Oregon campus.

Accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Karl of Pendleton, they traveled from Eugene to Newport for a visit with Mrs. Evans' brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Les Carr. Traveling on up the coast they stopped for a visit at the home of Mrs. Ann Fehmerling, and at Westport for a visit with relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Bus Travis, who operate a charter fishing service there. The group enjoyed a pleasant boat trip to Ocean Shores and found ideal coast weather.

Susan Wiemers Weds
Donald Wayne Evans

Central Lutheran Church in Eugene, was the scene for the wedding ceremony in which Miss Susan Carol Wiemers and Donald Wayne Evans were united in marriage on Saturday evening, March 22.

The double ring ceremony was read at 7 p.m. by Pastor Philip L. Natwick before an altar decorated with white gladiolus and yellow chrysanthemums.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. James R. Wiemers of Fall Creek, Ore., and the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Donald K. Evans of Heppner.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a sheath gown of white crepe, with bodice and long sleeves fashioned of scalloped Venice lace, which also edged the neckline and the attached chapel train. Her pill-box crown headpiece was covered with lace and studded with pearls and rhinestones and held in place her elbow length veil of imported silk illusion. Her bridal bouquet was of white carnations centered with yellow rosebuds, and for something old she wore a gold watch pin, which had belonged to her great-great grandmother.

Attending the bride as maid of honor was her sister, Miss Connie Wiemers, who wore a mile green lace trimmed floor length gown, fashioned with wedding ring neckline and full skirt. Her bouquet of small white chrysanthemums was centered with green chrysanthemums.

Other bridal attendants were Miss Julie Elligsen of Canyon City, Miss Susan Crampton of Lowell, and Miss Mari McKee of Roseburg. Their matching lace trimmed floor length gowns were maize yellow in color, and were fashioned with wedding ring necklines. All three attendants carried bouquets of small white chrysanthemums centered with yellow chrysanthemums.

Candlelighters for the ceremony included Michele Evans, sister of the groom, and Rodney Wiemers, brother of the bride. Serving as best man was David Matheny of Heppner, and groomsmen included Eric Anderson, Robert Bray, and Monte Evans, brother of the groom. Ushers for the ceremony were Bruce Davis, Lydon Nicholson and John VanDyke.

Selected vocal numbers were provided by Lowell Chase, who was accompanied at the organ by Mrs. James Walsh.

Following the ceremony friends and relatives of the couple attended a reception in the youth room of the church.

Serving the tiered wedding cake to guests were Mrs. Marion Krebs and Patricia Hult. Mrs. George Cape served coffee, and Mrs. Eddy Glaspey served the punch.

Attending the guest book and the gift table were Mrs. Martin Crouch and Miss Pamela Mitchell.

For her going away ensemble the bride chose a pink dress with matching coat and black patent accessories. Following their wedding trip to San Francisco, Calif., the couple will make their home in Corvallis, where both are students at Oregon State University. Evans is affiliated with the Alpha Gamma Rho fraternity.

Special guests who attended the ceremony included Mr. and Mrs. Marion Krebs and family of Crescent City, Calif., uncle and aunt of the groom; Larry Harmon, uncle of the groom from Walla Walla, Wash., Mr. and Mrs. Joe Edington, also of Walla Walla, cousins of the groom.

Other honored guests were Mrs. Elma Duncan, grandmother of the bride from Roseburg, Mr. and Mrs. George Krebs of Portland, and Mrs. Millie Evans of Heppner, all grandparents of the groom.

Condon Pair Honored On 67th Anniversary

All five children of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Evans of Condon gathered at their parental home on Sunday, March 30, to join with their parents in the celebration of the couple's 67th wedding anniversary, observed on Friday, March 28.

Joining with their parents for the special event were their only daughter, Mrs. Margaret Thompson and her daughters, Sharon and Cathy, of Clackamas; sons, Roy of Portland, Harold of Colton, Mr. and Mrs. Vern Evans and Chris of Heppner, and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Evans of Condon.

Other friends and relatives of the couple who joined in the day of celebration included Mr. and Mrs. Ken J. Evans and son, Gibb, of Adams; Mr. and Mrs. Vern K. Evans and Kathleen, Erin, Marie, Angie, and Anna Marie of Irrigon; Mrs. Ray Shade and Doug, Rick, Millie Jean and Debbie of Pendleton; Mr. and Mrs. Dean Acock and Steve, Bobbie, and Scott of Irrigon, and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Evans of Fossil, brother of Jim Evans.

Highlight of the day included a long distance call from their granddaughter, Mrs. Jeanne Blunk of Salt Lake City, Utah.

Following a potluck dinner guests were served refreshments of a lovely cake, decorated in the anniversary theme, and presented to the couple by their daughter, Mrs. Thompson.

The couple was married on March 28, 1902 in Bloomfield, Okla. Following their marriage they traveled to Oregon by covered wagon, where they first settled in Wheeler county. In 1907 they moved to Gilliam county where they have remained most of their married lives while engaged in farming. The couple purchased their own ranch in 1923 and farmed it until their retirement in 1950. Both enjoy good health and are quite active, and are now living in a new home built a few years ago in Condon.

Students to Attend FBLA Convention

For the first time in its 21-year history, the Oregon State Chapter of the Future Business Leaders of America will hold its annual state convention at the Southern Oregon College campus in Ashland. In past years, the conventions have been at Oregon State University in Corvallis.

Membership in the organization is open to students in grades 10-12 who are enrolled in commercial classes. Members compete in typing, shorthand, spelling, and many other events.

Spring Card Party Set by Altar Society

Plans for a Spring Card party, to be held Monday evening, April 28, were made by members of St. Patrick's Altar Society as they met last Monday with Mrs. John Mollahan presiding over the meeting.

Co-chairmen of the event will be Mrs. Wilbur Worden, Mrs. Bill Kenny, and Mrs. Randy Lott, who have planned an evening of bridge and pinocle, with dessert to be served in the parish hall at 8 p.m. Admission will be $1. Hostesses for the March meeting was Mrs. Joe Balfe.

with winners in the state contests eligible to attend the National Convention, to be held in Texas in June.

Those who plan to attend the convention in Ashland this week-end, April 11-12, from Heppner High school are Jack Simkins, commercial teacher, and five students, Ginny Clough, Martha Pierce, Kay Huson, Teresa Harshman, and Donna Pointer.

Plans include a side trip to Medford for the Pear Blossom Festival Parade, a modern art exhibit on the SOC campus, and a trip to Jacksonville for those members who will not be competing in skill events.
