

100 Persons Attend Achievement Program

More than 100 members and guests attended the annual Morrow County Extension Homemakers Achievement Day program held at the Rhea Creek Grange hall last Tuesday, April 15. Hostesses for the day were members of the Rhea Creek Extension Unit, with Heppner Unit members hosting a morning coffee hour preceding the program.

Mistress of ceremonies for the day's events was Mrs. John Graves of the Extension Advisory Council, who introduced many special guests and the featured speaker of the day, Mrs. James Whittaker of Pilot Rock, president of the Oregon Homemakers Extension Council.

Mrs. Whittaker presented an interesting and informative slide program of her trip last year to Puerto Rico, where she attended the National Council meeting.

The program will begin at 11:00 a.m. and conclude at 2:30 p.m. Hostesses for the entire day will be members of the Athena and Youngs Units. Sponsors for the event are units in the Southern and Central districts.

Luncheon will be potluck, provided by Extension unit members. There will be a small registration fee. Non-Extension members are to be guests, so are not asked to provide food. It is asked that those wishing to attend notify one of the three county extension offices by April 23, in order to plan the food and make necessary room arrangements.

Martin Shows Slides Of Mexico Vacation To Soroptimist Club

Scenic beauty and the colorful, relaxed atmosphere of the resort city, Mazatlan, Mexico, were shown in a fine selection of colored slides by Alan Martin, elementary principal, at the luncheon meeting of the Soroptimist club last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin and family spent the past Christmas vacation in Mazatlan, about 1,000 miles south of the California border, where they were guests of his mother, Mrs. C. R. Dimm, and grandmother, Mrs. Laura Barnes.

They toured much of the city and outlying areas, making close observation of native customs and culture, of types of architecture and their construction, and found special interest in visiting schools and becoming informed on the educational systems. Of special enjoyment were the warm temperatures in air and water, ranging during their stay between 70 and 80 degrees. Mr. Martin assured his listeners that this was "the ideal vacation spot."

Artistic work of the Mexican people was displayed in the handmade articles of clothing, pottery and jewelry brought home by the Martins. They made the round-trip by jet plane.

Mrs. Vern Keithley, leader of the Swans Bluebird group, which the club sponsors, was present and expressed appreciation for assistance of the club. She displayed several of the art projects which the small girls have been making, and told of their activities.

Report of the nominating committee was given by Mrs. Charles Starks, chairman, with election planned for May 5, and installation of new officers in June.

Women Prepare Hall For Grange Events

Women's Activity club of Rhea Creek Grange spent the day, April 17, cleaning the hall. Several items of business were also discussed.

The menu was planned for the dinner to be served at the Pomona Grange meeting at the Rhea Creek hall Saturday, April 26. Members also voted to give a 4-H scholarship to a 4-H member for Summer School at Corvallis.

Attending the meeting were Mrs. Ray Drake, Mrs. Ben Anderson, Mrs. Glenn Farrens, Mrs. Walter Wright, Mrs. Orian Wright, Mrs. Lewis Ball, Mrs. John Graves, Miss Marilyn Bergstrom and Mrs. Elmer Palmer.

Dick Wilkinson presented the lecturer's program at the regular meeting of Rhea Creek Grange on April 11. He showed slides and told of the trip which he and Mrs. Wilkinson took to Europe and Russia. Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Thorpe were also guests of the evening.

Umatilla Extension Makes Many Plans For Achievement Day

Umatilla County's annual homemakers' Achievement Day will be held Wednesday, April 30, at the Pendleton Presbyterian church, reports Extension Agent Molly Saul.

Andy Landforce, Extension Wildlife Management Specialist at Oregon State University, will be the guest speaker. His topic will be "Family Recreation." He will show colored slides to illustrate how a family's playing together can lead to family happiness and stability.

Another special feature of the program will be a style revue of garments made by extension homemakers at recent "Sew with Knits" and "Pattern Fitting and Alteration" workshops. Included with this will be a style revue of garments made by state hospital patients at recent extension sewing classes, included Mrs. Doris Murray of Pilot Rock, chairman of the Umatilla County Advisory Council, Mrs. Jack Saul and Miss Mary Speckhart, area extension agents of Pendleton, County Commissioner and Mrs. Walter Hayes of Boardman, Mrs. John Madison and Mrs. Roland Bergstrom, Morrow county program development committee members, Elizabeth Jones and Ethel Williams of Pendleton, representatives of the Umatilla Indian tribal council, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Kerr, Morrow county agricultural agent, Gail McCarty, 4-H and livestock agent for Morrow county, Mrs. Frank Connor of Heppner, and Mrs. Gene Ferguson of Heppner, both members of the Morrow county Extension Advisory council, Mrs. Whittaker, and several members of the Hermiston Extension Unit.
