Japanese Theme Used For Junior-Senior Prom

By MARY LEE MARLOW
BOARDMAN—Tom Zielinski, Riverside High school senior, was crowned queen of the junior-senior prom Saturday night at the school. Larry Wilson, who was her escort, did the crowning. Princesses and their escorts were Kathy Graham and Greg Bedord, Jana Everett and Gene Gollyhorn, Anita Pummel and Albert Phillips.

A Japanese theme, "Sayonara," was used for decorations. Music was furnished by "The Shadows" from Portland.

Eight grangers were initiated in the third and fourth degree at a meeting here Saturday night at Greenfield Grange hall. They included Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wicklander of Greenfield, Linda Baldwin from Stanfield grange, and Mr. and Mrs. Don DeMoss, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Zastrow and Oscar Hall from Columbia Grange at Hermiston.

There were 26 guests for the evening, 17 from Columbia grange and nine from Stanfield. Morton Wolverton, master of Columbia, and Karl Krause, Stanfield master were among them. Wolverton substituted in the master's chair during the initiation. Alice Jackson from Columbia was in the chaplain's chair, and Alex Jones from Columbia substituted for the steward.

The Greenfield Grange will also exemplify the third and fourth degree again at the next meeting, May 17, for those who wish to take them.

At a short business meeting the grange voted a donation for the WAC Scholarship Fund.

The meeting started with pot-luck supper at 6:30 p.m. Hosts were Mr. and Mrs. William Bates.

Mr. and Mrs. Rod Flug are the parents of a 6 lb., 7 oz. son born April 17, at St. Anthony hospital in Pendleton. He has
