

MR. AND MRS. DEAN ARTHUR TROTTER (Maralee Murray)

College Couple at Home In Corvallis after Wedding

Miss Maralee Margaret Murray was united in marriage to Dean Arthur Trotter at an impressive spring ceremony on Sunday, March 23, at All Saints' Episcopal church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rod Murray of Heppner, and parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Trotter of Florence.

The Rev. Dirk Rinehart performed the double ring ceremony at 2:00 p.m. A chosen blue and white color scheme was carried out in basket arrangements of blue and white carnations and stock, with satin pew bows marking the bridal aisle. Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride was lovely in a distinctively styled gown of white chiffon over peau de sole, with wide bands of French lace accenting the neckline, extending into the short sleeves, and edging the wide band of white satin around the bottom of the gown and chapel train. Her full-length veil of illusion was attached to a heavy white bow headdress. She carried a white prayer book, topped with white rosebud nosegay and cascade of white satin streamers.

Attending as maid of honor was Miss Nonda Clark of Heppner. Bridesmaids were Misses Marsha Sowell of Heppner, Suzie Morrison, JoAnne Myers and Nancy Niemuth, sorority sisters of the bride.

The attendants wore identically styled floor-length gowns of ice blue moire, in A-line style with bias inserts down the front panels and around the hemline. They carried nosegays of white roses and blue tinted carnations, and wore matching floral headbands of white carnations.

Traditional wedding selections were played by Mrs. Rinehart, organist. Steven Jones lit the altar tapers before the ceremony. Anne Catherine Murray, sister of the bride, served as flower girl, and John Roderick Murray attended his sister as ring bearer.

Don Trotter of Florence served as best man for his brother. Ushers were Doug Thompson, John Weber, Ron Tsukamaki and Randy Morgan, fraternity brothers of the groom.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Murray chose to wear a sky blue knit suit ensemble, with white accessories. Miss Trotter, mother of the groom, attended in a pink knit sheath dress, with white accessories.

Wedding guests were greeted by the couple at a reception immediately following the ceremony in the parish hall. Tea and coffee were poured by Mrs. Laura Shook, grandmother of the bride, of Hillsboro. At the punch bowl was Mrs. Alice Shook, great aunt of the bride, of Hillsboro; and cutting and serving cake were Mrs. Francis Yackey of Newberg and Mrs. C. D. Haynes of Molalla, both aunts of the bride.

Misses Sheila Luciani and Merrill Lee Jacobs attended the gift table.

The guest book was passed by Miss Linda Kay Clark of LaGrande.

The new Mrs. Trotter changed into a print knit A-line dress ensemble with black patent accessories for their wedding trip to the Oregon coast.

Rainbow Reception Honors Sara Miller

A reception honoring Miss Sara Miller, grand representative to the State of Louisiana, International Order of Rainbow for Girls, was held April 26, at 7:30 p.m., with Ruth Assembly No. 50 sponsoring the event. Presiding officer was Sue Melby, worthy advisor.

Miss Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Miller, greeted her guests in a bouffant pink formal, official gown of her grand office.

Members of the assembly joined in a special addenda, "Sara is on Cloud 10". Transported around the room in a pink-covered wheel barrow by Jim Swanson, the procession stopped at each station where she was honored. This represented the work Sara has done in the assembly, as a wheelbarrow is used in building. The tire was smooth, representing the smooth way in which she has carried out her duties.

Miss Teresa Harshman repeated a reading given at Sara's installation as worthy advisor in May, 1968. She was accompanied at the piano by Jan Wheelhouse.

Announced as a grand choir member for the 1969 Grand Assembly was Jill Padberg, who was unable to attend the reception.

Several honored guests were greeted. Present were Mrs. Florence Van Gaasbeck, grand deputy, and Clark Van Gaasbeck, both of Arlington; Mrs. Virginia Wilkinson, associate grand conductress, Order of the Eastern Star; Dick Wilkinson, grand escort; Mrs. Mary E. Bryant, worthy matron of Ruth Chapter No. 32, O.E.S.; Howard Bryant, worthy patron, Ruth Chapter, all of Heppner; and Boyd Thomas, Jr., past master counselor, Blue Mt. Chapter, Order of the Demolay for Boys, Hermiston.

Refreshments were served in the dining hall at the close of the evening.

Bride-Elect Honored At Surprise Shower

A surprise miscellaneous bridal shower honoring Miss Terry Lincecum was given at the Dale Holland home last Wednesday evening, April 23.

Guests enjoyed an evening of bridge play before surprising the bride-elect with many gaily wrapped shower gifts.

Miss Lincecum's wedding to Duane Griffith will be an event of June 13, and will be held in Lakeview.

Assisting Mrs. Holland with arrangements for the shower party was Miss Shirley Jucht.

Bride winners for the evening included Mrs. John Gochbauer, high, Miss Lincecum, second high, and Mrs. Hal Whitaker held low score.

Following the evenings play guests were served refreshments with coffee and tea by the hosts.

Auction is Feature Of Degree Meeting

A miscellaneous jewelry and hat auction added interest to the meeting of the Degree of Honor Protective Association on April 23. Mrs. Adolph Majeske, president, called the meeting to order, with members assisting with the staff work.

Mrs. Clara Gertson, national treasurer and state director, spoke on the national convention of the lodge, to be held in St. Paul, Minn.

Hostess for the evening was Mrs. Ed Hunt. Before refreshments, and the auctioning of articles brought by members, a practice was held of the drill team. Mrs. June Field received the door prize.

Umatilla 4-H Juniors Schedule Style Revue

"My Favorite Things" will be the theme of the 1969 4-H Junior Show Style Revue scheduled Thursday, May 8, in Milton-Freewater. The revue will begin at 8 p.m. in the McLoughlin High school auditorium, according to Mary Speckhart, extension agent.

Club members from Umatilla county will model clothes made during the past year. Garments range from knitted slippers, sweaters, skirts, dresses to formal and suits.

Members who participate in the show will have been judged prior to the show. They are judged on posture, grooming, and attitude. The fit of the garment and workmanship is also taken into consideration.

Golden Agers to Hold May Dinner Meeting

Regular monthly meeting of the Heppner Golden Age club is planned for Tuesday, May 6, at the Episcopal parish hall. Varieties of entertainment will follow the serving of a potluck dinner at 7:00 p.m. Guests are always welcome to attend.

The June meeting will be the last of the current season, with no meetings planned during the summer months of July and August.

Ray Ayers traveled to Portland earlier this month where he attended an air conditioning school, sponsored by the Albina Fuel Co., who provided a factory trained representative of the Armstrong and Torrid-Heat Co., to present the informative session. The schooling was held at the City Center Motel on Thursday and Friday, April 17-18, and Ayers attended both days, representing the M and R Co.

Holly to Mark 65th Year With Reception

Holly Rebekah Lodge No. 139, will celebrate its 65th anniversary at a special reception and program, planned for Sunday, May 4, at the Lexington IOOF hall. Special honor will be extended those who have been 50-year members, or over.

The lodge cordially invites all members of surrounding Rebekah and IOOF lodges, and friends, to attend the reception, to be held between the hours of 2:00 and 4:00 p.m.

Last of the series of six card parties, sponsored by Holly lodge during the past six months, will be Saturday evening, May 3. Pinochle will be in play from 8:00 p.m., and grand prizes will be awarded at the end of the evening to those totaling highest scores for the series.

Sewing Club Members Send Gifts to Greece

Mrs. C. E. McQuarrie was hostess to friends and members of her sewing club at her home last Wednesday afternoon for a gift wrapping party, in which sewing club members brought gifts for a pink and blue shower honoring Mrs. Larry Derrick. Members devoted the afternoon to wrapping the gifts and preparing them for mailing to Mrs. Derrick, now living in Athens, Greece. Mrs. Derrick is the former Barbara Gribble, daughter of the Lowell Gribbles.

Spring Music Program Planned by Students

Piano students of Mrs. D. G. Hudson will participate in a Spring music program on Sunday afternoon, May 4, at 2:30 p.m., at the Legion hall.

The students extend a special invitation to their parents to attend the program, which will feature a variety of musical numbers, solos and duets. Refreshments will be served at the conclusion of the afternoon program.

Mr. and Mrs. Rick Johnston of Portland spent the week-end here at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Johnston and family. Johnston is nearing completion of a course in barber training, which he is taking at Molar Barber college in Portland.
