Characters in the opposing Katzfelter Family (right), were Hiram—Harold Beggs; Effie—Linda McKay; and Pappy Katzfelter—Bryce Keene.

Play is Big Hit On Variety Show

IONE—The PTA "Spring Variety" show held in the Ione High school cafeteria on April 11 was a great success. The local critics enjoyed every moment of the various performances, and stated those not attending missed an unusual evening.

The one-act play of "Feudin' Mountain Boys" dramatized a story about Freddie Frump and his family. Freddie, suffering from a malady common among young men of his age—being in love, had as the object of his affection, Effie Katzfelter, who, unfortunately, found no glamour in the boys of today. She longed for the old days when dueling was the code of the hills

Community Club Has Plant Sale

IRRIGON—Over 100 4-H members and friends attended the skating party last Thursday night at the Hermiston Skating Rink.

The 4-H Community Club has done its part in contributing to the beauty of the area, by having a Plant Sale. Since this is the time of year to thin perennial plants and shrubs, many friends and neighbors donated to the sale. These were sold for a fraction of their true value, with the proceeds going into the club treasury. Shrubs that have proven that they grow well in this climate, such as forsythia, Oregon grape, flowering quince, spirea, buckhorn sumac, flowering almond and many others, were given. Also, many prized house plants and annuals, as well as rhubarb, strawberry plants and raspberry bushes were donated and sold.

Mrs. Marge Shade was chairman of the Plant Sale. Other leaders, who each had a crew of 4-H members to assist them, were Mrs. Ival Sullivan, Mrs. Don Leighton, Mrs. John Brandt, Mrs. Chester Wilson, Mrs. Pete Richards, Mrs. Dean Acock, and Mrs. Duane Kerlin.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee LeBlanc were kind enough to take the plants that were left over and all were sold at their Texaco station.

A good number of brooms and light bulbs were sold also, by house-to-house 4-H salesmen. The profit from these was donated to the 4-H club by the Lion's Club. Tomato, sweet pepper, pansy, petunia, and chrysanthemum plants were bought from the Pendleton Grain Growers at cost and were among the first to be sold at a profit.

Three representatives of the Heppner Willow Lodge, IOOF, attended the annual Jacksonville trek over the week-end, as April 19-20, held at the old historical Odd Fellow hall, No. 10, in Jacksonville. Those going were Raedall Peterson and Pete McMurtry, who accompanied Jack Sumner in his plane.

Plans Underway For Ione Auction

Committee chairman for the seventh annual Ione Barbecue and Auction of the United Church of Christ met in the church basement last Thursday evening with general chairman, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Rietmann, presiding. Various merchandise is needed for the auction and will be picked up and stored until June 7, when the event will be held at Willows Grange hall in Ione. Eldon Tucker or Pete Cannon may be contacted for pickup.

Chairman of the dinner committee, Mrs. Earl McCabe, announced that plans are under way to serve the delicious pit-cooked barbecue beef with baked beans, assorted salads, and desserts to 425 or more people, the number served last year.

Fred Nelson and crew will prepare the pit and supervise the beef cooking. The pit is about four feet deep, four wide, and eight feet long and prepared with a two foot bed of coals in the bottom made from locust and fruit wood. Then the foil and burlap wrapped meat is placed on the bed of coals and the pit is sealed for the rest of the night. The meat is removed the next day in time for the noon dinner.

Mrs. Pete Cannon, in charge of the antique table, will call on helpers soon to prepare the growing number of antiques for the sale. She is urging people
