

Civic League Room Mothers Host Annual Kindergarten Picnic

Civic League room mothers were hosts at the annual Kindergarten picnic one day last week to about 130 youngsters, including this year's students, their parents and younger brothers and sisters and many of next year's Kindergarten age pupils and their families.

Picnic sack lunches were the order of the day with ice cream treats for all the children furnished by the Civic League.

Members held election of officers following the picnic and elected a new group of officers to lead the organization for next year. New president elected to serve the club will be Mrs. Bruce Griffith; vice president, Mrs. Randy Lott; treasurer, Mrs. Barbara Jessmer and secretary, Mrs. Jerry Adamson.

Officers presented a gift of appreciation to this year's teacher, Mrs. Don Turner, who will move from Heppner with her family following the close of the school year.

New teachers for next year's classes will be Mrs. Marcel (Deloris) Jones, who will teach the early session and Mrs. Bill (Rena) Marquardt, who will instruct the afternoon session.

Members also voted to have Kindergarten classes extend throughout the regular nine months' school year.

Outgoing officers are Mrs. Carl Marquardt, president; Mrs. Jerry Dougherty, vice president; Mrs. Loren Lucore, secretary and Mrs. Sybil Gallier, treasurer.

Meeting Set June 4 At Mountain Cabin

June meeting of the Ione Garden Club is announced for Wednesday, June 4, at the mountain cabin of Mrs. Vida Heliker. The day's activities will start at 10:00 a.m., with potluck dinner served at noon. Part of the day will be spent in wild flower hunting. All members are urged to attend, and those needing transportation are asked to contact officers or other club members.

WORTHY ADVISOR CINDY HARSIN

Cindy Harsin Installed Rainbow Worthy Advisor

At impressive formal ceremonies Sunday afternoon, May 18, Miss Cindy Harsin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Harsin, was crowned Worthy Advisor of Ruth Assembly No. 50, International Order of Rainbow for Girls. The new worthy advisor used as her installing theme, "Hope", and decorations were in her chosen colors, violet and white. Several members of the Blue Mountain Chapter of Demolay in Hermiston were in attendance to participate in the installation and to perform the crowning ceremonies.

Following the welcome by Mrs. Rachel Harnett, mother advisor, installing officers were introduced, which included Sue Melby, installing officer; Sara Miller, installing marshal; Teresa Harshman, installing chaplain; Lynda Baker, installing recorder, and Mrs. Pauline Miller, installing musician.

Incoming officers were introduced and escorted to their stations. Serving for the summer term will be: Cindy Harsin, worthy advisor; Teresa Wright, worthy associate advisor; Karla Weatherford, charity; Christie Taylor, hope; Karen Cox, faith; Patti O'Hara, chaplain; Marie Van Marter, drill leader; Debbie McLeod, love; Tricia Prock, religion; Barbara McCarl, nature; Cathy Sherman, patriotism; Cyde Allstott, immortality; Bobette Jones, fidelity; Diane McLachlan, service; Jill Scott, confidential observer; Diana Wright, outer observer; Taml Meador, musician; Sandy Matthews, choir director. Choir members are Delvina Turner, Sally Winters, Shannon Walker, Peggy Taylor, Luann Kelly, Glenda Kay Van Winkle and Jerri Keithley.

Following the crowning ceremonies, a vocal duet, "Whispering Hope," was sung for the new worthy advisor by Mrs. Carl Marquardt and Mrs. Bill Marquardt, accompanied by Mrs. Miller.

In tribute to Sue Melby, past worthy advisor, officers expressed appreciation as she was escorted to each station with a variation of thoughts from the poem, "My Friend". She was presented a past worthy advisor's pin from members and officers.

An addendum honored Cindy when words of good wishes were sung to the familiar tune, "Get Along Home, Cindy," and she was presented token gifts of each office.

Special guests introduced were Mr. and Mrs. Harsin, parents of the new worthy advisor, and other members of her family. A special gift was presented to her by her brother, Dallas.

Among distinguished guests in attendance were Paul Jones, grand high priest of Royal Arch Masons in Oregon; Boyd Thomas, dad advisor of Blue Mountain Chapter of Demolay; Boyd Thomas, Jr., past master counselor, and Troy McGowan, master counselor of Blue Mountain Chapter of Demolay; Sara Miller, grand representative to the State of Louisiana, and Jill Padberg, grand choir member of International Order of Rainbow for Girls in Oregon; Mrs. Rogenia (Wilson) Hyde, Camas, Wash., past worthy advisor of Ruth Assembly. Also, Kay Edwards, grand representative to State of Kansas, International Order of Jobs Daughters, Friendship Chapter No. 1, Portland; and Trudi Thomas, honor queen-elect of Bethel No. 44, Order of Jobs Daughters, Hermiston.

Other guests included Miss Harsin's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Fossum and Mrs. Maude E. Boyd, all of Heppner. From out-of-town were Mrs. Bertha Harsin and Mrs. Martha Magill, both of Delhi, Calif.; Mrs. Wilma Edwards, Jeff Edwards and Kay Edwards, all of Portland; Mrs. Lynn Liebe, Loraine, Brenda and Brett, and Judy O'Brien, all of Pilot Rock. Centering the reception table was a large white cake, decorated in lavender and inscribed with "Oh, How Welcome Thy Voice". It was served by Mrs. Hazel Bauman. Serving punch was Mrs. Wilma Edwards and coffee was poured by Mrs. Lynn Liebe.

Floral arrangements were by Mrs. Stanley Cox, who also helped prepare nosegays of lavender and white spring flowers for the officers and iris corsages for the honor guests.

Society AND Clubs

Mrs. Graves Heads Advisory Committee For County Extension

Mrs. John Graves, Hardman, was recently elected chairman of the Morrow County Home Extension Advisory Committee, according to area Extension Agent Molly Saul. Mrs. Graves has completed two years of a three-year term on the committee, and held the office of treasurer this past year.

Other new advisory committee officers are: vice-chairman, Mrs. George Luciani, Echo; secretary, Mrs. Norman Nelson, Lexington; treasurer, Mrs. Gene Ferguson, Heppner.

The County Advisory Committee is the basic planning group in Home Extension. They carry out all the varied Home Economics programs in the county. Members serve a three-year term.

New members to the committee for the coming year are Mrs. Vern Keithley, Heppner; and Mrs. Norman Nelson. In addition to the new officers mentioned, Mrs. Walter Hayes,

Church Youth Attend Young People's Rally

Rev. and Mrs. Robert Wolfe and Evangelist Everett Olp, accompanied about 20 members of the local Assembly of God youth group to Pendleton on Saturday evening, May 17, to attend a young people's rally, which attracted many youth clubs from various churches in the district. Included were those from Pendleton, Hermiston, Irrigon and other smaller towns.

The Heppner delegation received a trophy given for the largest attendance at various rallies over the past nine months period.

Mr. Olp, who attended with the group, had been appearing as a featured guest speaker at the Heppner church for several evenings throughout the preceding week.

Boardman, is also a member. Outgoing members are Mrs. Frank Connor, Heppner; Mrs. Dean Acock and Mrs. Eva Anderson, both of Irrigon.

2-County Extension Committee Selected

Mrs. Larry Coppock, Adams, was recently elected chairman of the Home Extension Program Development Committee for Umatilla and Morrow counties. She succeeds Mrs. Floyd Snyder, Hermiston, outgoing chairman.

According to Home Agent Molly Saul, the Program Development Committee is the key study committee for the two-county Home Economics program. They study the needs and problems of the area and then try to select programs geared to meeting these needs and problems. It is this committee that developed the five-year study program on early marriage and related teenage problems. Working with Mrs. Saul on this important committee are area Agent Mary Speckhart and Mrs. Garry Tullis, Extension Aide, Morrow county.

Other new officers elected are: vice-chairman, Mrs. K. A. Hansell, Athena; and secretary, Mrs. Royal Raymond, Helix. In addition to the above mentioned women, other committee members are: Mrs. Earl McKinney, Hermiston; Mrs. Glenn Hardy, Milton-Freewater; Mrs. Wesley Ayars, Ukiah; Mrs. Gordon George, Pendleton; Mrs. John Madison, Echo; and Mrs. Roland Bergstrom, Ione.

Also serving are the two Community Health Representatives for the Tribal Office, Umatilla

Indian Reservation: Mrs. Edna Williams and Mrs. Elizabeth Jones.
