

... But 1969 is Fresh in Mind!

June 9, 1969 ...

(All Photos by Gazette-Times)

At the height of the flood Monday night, sweeper Ford (at left) and of Farley Motor Co.
ess, looks east towards the courthouse.

ONE DRIVER made the mistake of turning south on Chase from Willow in the dark of night about 10 p.m. Tuesday. Water swooshed over his headlights and hood. He veered to the right and found sanctuary on the Hotel Heppner parking lot. Camera caught him emerging from the flood waters.

Heppner municipal ive damage and was taken about 11 p.m. Monday from the middle of the south end of Main street. Depth was knee high at the time.

TAKEN FROM ABOUT THE SAME SPOT as the photo on the left is this one at the pool Tuesday morning. City crews lost no time swinging into action to clean up the awful mess.

y at the Willow
late brown mud
v points to No.
3 hole. Orville Cutsforth home is in the background.

WEST CENTER STREET, as seen from Main towards the Morrow County Creamery, was a sea of mud Tuesday. The muck here was a foot deep.