Mrs Daltoso Installed Head of Altar Society

By MARY LEE MARLOW
BOARDMAN—The Altar Society of St. Patrick's church held an installation dinner last week at the Dodge City Inn. Mrs. Dan Daltoso was in charge of decorations. Red and white geraniums decorated the tables, and individual plants marked the places.
 Officers installed included Mrs. Daltoso, president; Mrs. Delmer Hug, vice-president; Mrs. Vern Evans of Irrigon, secretary-treasurer.
 Potted plants were presented to Mrs. Lloyd Proctor, outgoing president, and to Mrs. Dennis Gronquist, who is moving to Arlington. Shirley Zielinski received the traveling prize.
 Projects for the year were discussed and a schedule set up for ladies to care for the church for the year: June, Mrs. E. Wilkie; July, Mrs. Zielinski; August, Mrs. Gene Curley.
 This was the last meeting until August.
 Spec. 4 Steve Partlow has returned from a 13 month service at Vietnam, and has received his discharge from the army after 20 months of service. He was stationed at Hue in Vietnam. He and Mrs. Partlow are now living in Pendleton.

Carol Moen, local postmaster, attended the Oregon Postmasters convention at Bend June 11-12. This was the 35th annual convention for the Oregon chapter of the National Association of Postmasters, with about 200 postmasters attending.
 Those attending studied many phases of postal operations, including transportation, irregularities in operations, legislation affecting postal service and many other areas designed to keep Oregon postmasters abreast to the rapidly changing postal system.
 Dean Wasson, acting regional director for the five northwest states, was the featured speaker at the final banquet Thursday.
 The Women's Activity Committee of Greenfield Grange met Wednesday of last week at the home of Mrs. Rollin Bishop. Mrs. Frank Marlow was co-hostess. Announcement was made of the multi-county grange picnic

Eppenbach Gets EOC Degree With Honors

By FRANCES ROSE WILSON
IRRIGON—Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Eppenbach and Betty, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Isom, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Eppenbach and Mark of Umatilla, and Mrs. Wayne Eppenbach and girls of Hermiston, attended the graduation at Eastern Oregon College, La Grande, where Don Eppenbach received a Bachelor of Science degree in history, graduating summa cum laude. This is a high scholastic honor attained by very few. Only three in this class received this honor.
 Mr. and Mrs. Don Eppenbach will be going to Ames, Iowa in the fall, where he has been granted a position as a teaching assistant at Iowa State University. He will begin his work on a Masters Degree in history at that time.
 Mr. and Mrs. Don Adams and family, Mr. and Mrs. Burrell Cooley and boys of Irrigon and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Buckner and family of Arlington, went boating and water skiing on the John Day river about eight miles above the Columbia, over Saturday and Sunday. They camped at a park that can only be reached by boat.
 Mr. and Mrs. Herman Havekost of Ione have moved to Irrigon. They have purchased the Gene Gurley property on 8th and Washington. They are staying with Mrs. Josephine Buchanan who is Mrs. Havekost's sister, while working on the house and yard which lies next door.

The Rev. and Mrs. Herbert Vaughn attended the funeral of Mrs. Vaughn's sister-in-law, Mrs. Harold Ranniger in Spokane, Idaho. Rev. Vaughn was in charge of the funeral service.
 A series of young people's meetings is being conducted this week, Monday, June 16 through Friday, the 21st, by the Assembly of God churches of the area. Young people have been gathering for a period of spiritual encouragement and recreation, at these locations, Monday at McNary Dam Spillway Park; Tuesday at Stanfield; Wednesday at Umatilla; Thursday at Irrigon; Friday at McNary again.
 Rev. Al Akimoff, a graduate of Bethany Bible College, Santa Cruz, Calif., will be guest speaker at the Assembly of God on Sunday, June 22. He plans to travel to Switzerland soon.
 The Kenneth Eppenbaugh family have moved to La Grande where he has been employed for some time by a trailer home industry.
 Mrs. Charlotte Easterling spent her two week's vacation in Salem and at the home of her parents, who live near New Plymouth, Idaho.

 St. Patrick's Altar Society held their installation dinner at Dodge City Inn. Tables were decorated with geraniums which each member received. Plants were presented to Mrs. Leroy Proctor, outgoing president, and Mrs. Dennis Gronquist, who recently moved. Mrs. Dante Daltoso presided over a short meeting and gave an outline of events of the coming year.
 Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Stewart traveled to Portland last week. Mrs. Ellen Reeder, her mother, returned from Portland after an extended visit with her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Dwayne Reeder.
 The June "Sing Out" will be at McKenzie Park, Tuesday, June 24, at 7:30 p.m. There will be music on tape. It will be participated in by various churches in the area.
 The entire session of the June City Council meeting was devoted to routine City business, involving transfer of funds, between accounts in preparation for the July 1 end of the fiscal year.
 A progress report during the course of the meeting revealed that most of the water mains and laterals have been laid and that there will be some delay due to hold up on materials. When installing services are completed all trenches will be water settled and surface restoration completed.
 Michael Hamilton of Cornell, Hayes, Howland and Merryfield, Seattle, attended the council meeting.

Engineer Chosen For Division Five
 H. Scott Coulter has been named Division 5 Engineer for the State Highway Department, it is announced by Forest Cooper, state highway engineer. He replaces A. F. (Doc) Parson, who retired effective May 31 after 17 1/2 years in the position.
 Coulter, who has been Assistant Division 5 Engineer, has been with the Highway Department for approximately 21 years, starting his career with the department in June, 1948. He attended Willamette University and received his degree in Electrical Engineering from the University of Washington in June, 1946, under the Navy V-12 program. During his tenure with the Highway Department, Coulter has worked in various capacities throughout the state.
 Coulter lives at 401-3rd Street, La Grande, with his wife and three children.

Installed Head of Altar Society to be held at Emigrant Springs Park June 28. Those going are to furnish their own name tag.

 Report was made that Pomona Grange for Morrow county would be held here the day of June 23 instead of June 28, to keep from conflicting with the picnic.
 The annual Greenfield Grange picnic will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Seehafer July 13 at 1:30 p.m. This will take the place of both the WAC meeting and the grange meeting for the month.
 The Pomona dinner was planned and will be a smorgasbord.
 Mrs. Jack Flug returned to her home at Monmouth last week after visiting a week at the home of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Rod Flug.
