

KAY DAGGETT

Kay Daggett to Wed Steven Hunkapillar

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Daggett of Heppner announce the engagement of their daughter, Kay, to Steven Hunkapillar, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chester T. Hunkapillar of Athena.

Miss Daggett is a 1967 graduate of Heppner High school and a secretarial graduate of Blue Mountain Community college.

Hunkapillar, a graduate of Athena High school, also attended Blue Mountain college.

Both are now employed in Pendleton.

A late September wedding is planned.

Jaycee Wives Plan Summer Activities

Members of the Morrow County Jaycee Wives club met at the Heppner Neighborhood center last Thursday evening to form plans for coming summer activities under the direction of Mrs. Clyde Allstott, president.

Committee chairmen chosen to work on the organization's float entry in the rodeo parade this year are Mrs. Ron Gray and Mrs. Tom Wilson.

Members also made plans for the Sidewalk Bazaar, July 18-19, when they will operate a sidewalk concession and booth, and discussed the possibility of operating a booth at the county fair in August.

Mrs. Ed (Marie) Struthers of Lexington was greeted as a new member, and hostess for the evening meeting was Mrs. John Privett.

Society AND Clubs

Linda Smith Weds Lt. Kent Garner

Former Heppner residents, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. M. (Marv) Smith of Coos Bay gave their daughter Linda Rea in marriage on June 21 to Lieutenant Charles Kent Garner of the United States Marine Corps Reserve.

The wedding was solemnized at Emmanuel Episcopal church, Coos Bay. A reception in the social rooms of the church followed. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Dick, Jr., of Heppner.

The Smith family lived in Heppner a number of years, moving first to Longview, Wn., then to Coos Bay in 1959, where Smith has been district manager for Standard Oil Company of California. They have visited in Heppner a number of times in the intervening years.

Mrs. Garner was graduated from St. Paul's nursing school in New York City in May. She will take her state board nursing examination in California this month. After a two-week trip through California the groom will report for a short tour of duty in Texas.

Lutheran Youth To Lead Services At Cutsforth Park

A special worship service conducted by the youth of Heppner and Lone Lutheran churches will be held Sunday, July 6, 11:00 a.m. at Cutsforth Park. In charge of the sermon messages are Dianna Cutsforth, Bobby Peck, Carley Bergstrom and Sandy Peterson. Liturgists: Kristine Peterson, Debby Warren, Herbert Ekstrom III, Cynthia Ekstrom, Janet McCurdy, Kirk Robinson, Tom Cutsforth and Terry Pettyjohn. Ushers: Kerry Peterson and David Matheny. Greeters: Shauna Bergstrom and Tana Rauch. Sandy Matheny will be in charge of the music. Herbert Ekstrom will be in charge of the sound control.

Potluck dinner and fellowship hour will follow immediately after the service.

The Hope Heppner and Valley Lone Lutheran churches cordially invite the public to this special open air service by the youth, as well as to be the guests to the potluck fellowship hour. Ball games, horseshoes and other sports will be the afternoon entertainment.

Newcomers Greeted By Hello Committee

Heppner's Hello Committee, the evening extension group, called on a number of newcomers to Heppner last week, to greet them to the community, present each with a map of the city, names of merchants, locations of churches, and lists of professional services offered in the community and of organizations available.

Those greeted included Mr. and Mrs. Larry Mills and family, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Kircher and family, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Ireland, and Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Miller. Mills is now the manager of the Morrow County Grain Growers, Kircher is druggist at Murrays Drug, and Ireland and Miller are with the U. S. Geological Survey group.

Also greeted were Alfred Ellsworth, R. B. Cogburn, and Mrs. Minnie Campbell. Ellsworth is working with his brother, Otto, in well digging operations. Mrs. Campbell's husband is a timber faller.

Relatives of Howells Married in Portland

United in marriage in Portland June 28 were Janice K. Cunningham and Michael C. Wold. Miss Cunningham is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Cunningham; Mrs. Cunningham is the former Sybil Howell. Lee Howell, formerly Tum-A-Lum manager in Lone and Heppner and now residing in Colorado, is the bride's grandfather.

The newlyweds will make their home in McMinnville this summer, moving to Corvallis in the fall where the bridegroom will be a graduate student in oceanography at Oregon State University.

Mrs. Wold studied at Linfield College, where she joined Kappa Alpha Phi. Wold, son of Mr. and Mrs. Milo A. Wold, McMinnville, is a Linfield alumnus and Pi Kappa Alpha.

Among the guests at the wedding were Mrs. Vida Heliker of Lone and her daughter, Mrs. Harriet Bolman of Seattle. Mrs. Heliker made the trip to Portland with Mrs. Paul Heinrich and Mrs. Snoda Blake, and returned to Lone with her daughter who stayed for a brief visit.

PAM HUGHES

Hughes-Stroda Troth Revealed by Parents

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hughes, formerly of Heppner and now living in Monroe, announce the engagement of their daughter, Pamela Jeanne, to James D. Stroda, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Stroda of Monroe.

Miss Hughes is a 1969 graduate of Monroe Union High. She plans to enter Oregon State University in the fall.

Stroda, also a graduate of Monroe Union High, plans to enter the National Guard after the summer harvest.

No wedding plans have been made.

Lone Lions Club Installs Officers

Members of the Lone Lions club, wives and guests were guests of the Heppner Elks lodge last Saturday evening for a pit-cooked beef barbecue dinner.

Following dinner Lions members used the upstairs clubroom for installation ceremonies in which newly chosen officers were installed into office by Mrs. Mel Pullen, immediate past president of the Pendleton Ladies auxiliary.

New president of the organization is Lindsay Kincaid, who will be assisted by Gene Rietmann, 1st vice president; Ray Boyce, 2nd vice president; Garland Swanson, 3rd vice president; Herb Ekstrom, Jr., secretary-treasurer; Gordon Meyers, lion tamer, and Rollo Crawford, tall twister. Directors chosen to serve for two year terms are Charles O'Connor and James Barnett. One year directors elected are Don Heliker and Gene Dockter.

Highlight of the evening came when the drawing for the No-mad travel trailer was held, with the lucky ticket held by Doug Dubuque of Heppner.

Immediate past president, Herb Ekstrom, Jr., expressed his thanks to the many who worked toward making the drawing a successful project for the Lions organization.

OES Delegates Attend Grand Lodge Meet

Eastern Star delegates from Heppner who traveled to the annual Grand Lodge meeting at Memorial Coliseum in Portland on Monday, June 23, were Mrs. Mary Bryant, worthy matron, Ruth Chapter, and Mrs. Beth Bryant, past worthy matron.

Also attending from here was Mrs. Virginia Wilkinson, who has served the lodge during the past year as Associate Grand Conductress of the Grand Lodge of Oregon.

Mrs. Wilkinson was chosen for the position of Grand Conductress of the Grand Lodge of Oregon at special elections held during the three day meeting session. In her capacity as Grand Conductress, she will be in charge of instructing 61 Eastern Star chapters in the Portland area, beginning next September.

On Wednesday evening, installation was held for newly chosen state officers, attended by over 3,000 members and guests. Installing duties were done by Alice Robinson, Past Grand Matron of Salem.

Attending the installation service on Wednesday evening was Dick Wilkinson, Mrs. Wavel Wilkinson, Mrs. Larry Prock, and Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Wilson.

Church Honors Dirk Rineharts With Potluck

Rev. and Mrs. Dirk Rinehart were honored at a farewell potluck luncheon by members of the All Saints Episcopal church Sunday, June 29. After three years at the Heppner church, Rev. Rinehart will become associate rector of The Church of the Redeemer, an Episcopal church in Pendleton.

At the well-attended potluck, gifts were presented to Rev. Rinehart and his wife, Karen. Herman Winters, who acted as master of ceremonies for the occasion, presented a private communion service for use at hospitals and in homes to Rev. Rinehart as a gift from the church. Rob Abrams gave the departing rector a gift from the acolytes.

Mrs. Rinehart was presented with a gift from the choir by Elizabeth Abrams, and one from the Episcopal Church Women by Mrs. Ned Clark.

The Rineharts will move to Pendleton some time next week, when their house is ready.

In his new position, Rev. Rinehart will work with youth. One of his duties will be involved with youth and adult education through a church-community program with Blue Mountain Community College.

Rev. Richard Payne is rector of the Pendleton church, which has about 650 members.

Irrigon Man On USS Klondike

Disbursing Clerk Second Class Howard L. Keith, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Keith, Sr., of Irrigon, and husband of the former Miss Janice Arnold of 156 Hardy Ave., Eugene, is serving as a crewmember of the repair ship USS Klondike.

The San Diego based ship just completed a seven month tour of duty in the Western Pacific. As a member of the crew he was instrumental in helping the ship provide repair services for other ships of the Seventh Fleet.

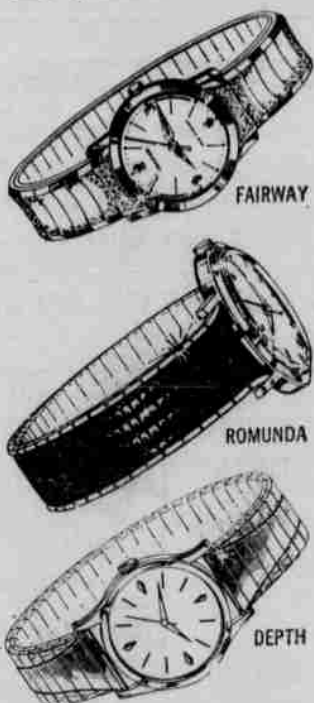

He visited such ports as Yokosuka, Japan, Kaohsiung, Taiwan, Vung-Tau, Vietnam, and Subic Bay, Republic of the Philippines during Klondike's deployment.

As a repair ship attached to the Seventh Fleet, Klondike functions as a floating shipyard whose principal advantage is mobility. It is this asset which is being utilized to aid America's position of defense in the Vietnam conflict.

Enjoying the Rose Festival parade and other activities in Portland recently were Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Becholdt, Archie Becholdt and Marion Hayden, who traveled there early on Friday. The group were house guests of a nephew and family of Mrs. Becholdt who live near Vancouver while they were away.
