Grangers Enjoy Film, Talk on Norway

By DELPHA JONES

LEXINGTON — Lexington Grange met Saturday night at 8 p.m. for its regular meeting.

Preceding the meeting a most interesting program was provided by Amund Kvam, IFYE student from Norway, who has been a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Nelson. Films and souvenirs were shown and a most interesting talk was given. Potluck refreshments were enjoyed.

During the business meeting it was decided to schedule an initiation in October for the four persons recently voted in as members.

It was announced that the grange will vacation during August and September.

Pomona Grange will meet in Lexington the last Saturday in October.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry M. Breeding and sons of Portland spent the week-end in Lexington with his mother, Mrs. Lola Breeding.

The annual Steagall-Anderson picnic was held at Bull Prairie over the week-end. Among those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Steagall of Lexington and their daughters and families, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Dougherty and children of Heppner, Mr. and Mrs. Greg Leyva and children of Hood River, and Mr. and Mrs. Roger Brandhagen and family of Pendleton. Also Mrs.

Lola Breeding, her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Henry M. Breeding and sons of Portland, a daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Dennis and family of Portland, and Mrs. Wanda Jones and sons of Hood River, as well as a host of cousins and other relatives. A potluck dinner was enjoyed at noon.

Jerry Grant and Andrea Smith, grandchildren of Mrs. Lola Breeding, spent several days this week with her.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Jones, Mrs. Florence McMillan, Billy Irvin and Willie Moreau were dinner guests of Mrs. Bob Taylor in Boardman on Sunday and helped celebrate the birthday of Kevin Taylor, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Taylor.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Orwick and son, Mike, left last week-end for Dallas, Texas, where they will attend the national Elks' convention.

Mr. and Mrs. Elden Padberg returned from Portland where they were called by the serious illness of Mrs. Padberg's mother, Mrs. Amy Sperry. Mrs. Sperry has been moved to Clarkston, Wn., where she is a patient in a nursing home in that city. Art Turner of Portland returned home with the Padbergs for an extended visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Messenger and children of Portland are visiting at the Bill and Carl Marquardt homes.

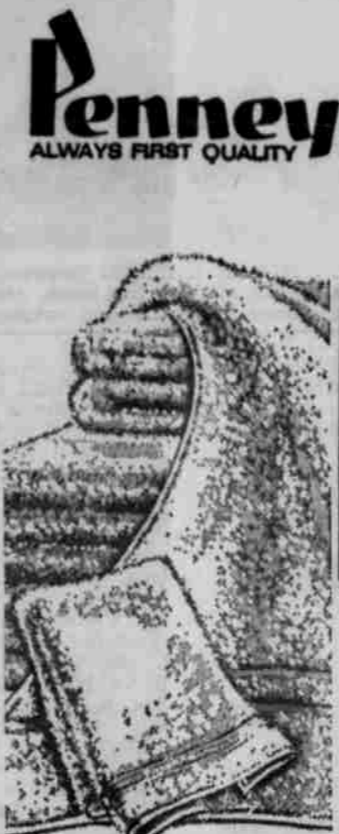

Dexter Miles and children of Montana are visiting his mother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Dunbar. Miles is working locally in the harvest. Mrs. Miles remained at home with the other children.

Mrs. Gail Burkenbine is employed at the Morrow County school district office, starting her work on Monday.

Visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Denny McMillan were Mrs. McMillan's mother, Mrs. Audrey McCarl, and her brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Mervin McCarl of Harrisburg, and Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Morris and Mrs. Kay Morris, relatives from Missouri.
