

June 21 Ceremony Unites Osmin-Felt

Saturday, June 21, was the date chosen by Miss Donna Mae Felt for her marriage to Albert Lee Osmin at the First Christian church in Hermiston.

The evening ceremony was read by the Rev. Jack Naff before an altar decorated with tall altar baskets of pink and white roses with large white bows and tapers in candleabra.

The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Felt of Hermiston, and the groom is the son of Alton L. Osmin of Heppner and the late Mrs. Osmin.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose to wear a floor length satin gown with empire style waistline. The bodice of the gown featured a lace scalloped neckline and elbow length sleeves. Her elbow length veil was held in place by white satin roses, and she carried a bridal bouquet of pink and white roses with white ribbon streamers.

The bride chose to follow tradition by wearing something old, something new, something borrowed and something blue. Something old was a heart shaped agate necklace, an heirloom of her deceased grandmother. Something new was a cross necklace, a gift from the groom. Something borrowed was a silk handkerchief from Japan, which belonged to her mother, and something blue was a garter. A sixpence in her shoe was a 1969 penny, given to her by her brother.

Maid of honor for the ceremony was the bride's cousin, Marlene Moore, from Merrill, Ore. Bridesmaid was her roommate, Judy Taylor of Heppner, and candlelighters were Monica Moore and Vicky Hoskins, both cousins of the bride. Attendants wore floor length pink flowered gowns styled with velvet trimmed empire waistlines and elbow length bell sleeves. All wore headpieces of pink flowers and each carried a nosegay of pink roses and white carnations.

Best man attending the groom was Cliff Green, a former schoolmate, and ushers for the ceremony were Frank Osmin and Art Osmin, brothers of the groom, and Willard Felt, brother of the bride.

Musical selections for the ceremony were furnished by the Rev. Naff, who sang two vocal solos.
