

Mrs. Jane Rawlins To Conduct Flower Workshop in Ione

Mrs. Bill (Jane) Rawlins will conduct a flower arranging workshop Wednesday, August 6 at an all day meeting of the Ione Garden club. Mrs. Fred Martin, publicity chairman for the club, extends an open invitation to the public to attend the workshop. Mrs. Rawlins will teach the fundamentals of arranging.

Instruction will take place at the Ione Legion Hall beginning at 10 a.m. At noon there will be a break for sack lunches and the afternoon will be spent practicing flower arrangements.

All attending are asked to bring containers, flowers and foliage plus any equipment they may need. Pruning shears, scissors or a knife will be needed for cutting.

Nelson Elected at 37th Yearly Reunion

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Nelson, Jr., spent Saturday night, July 26, in Portland with her mother, Mrs. S. C. Ransdell. Sunday they took his mother, Mrs. A. H. Nelson, with them to Lions, Ore., to attend the Neal-Trask-Christman family reunion.

Other members of the Nelson family attending were Mr. and Mrs. Howard Slonecker (Clara Nelson) of Milwaukie.

During a brief business meeting it was noted that the reunion has been an annual affair for the past 37 years. Alfred Nelson, Jr., was elected president of the group for the coming year.

Family Visits Here After Stay in Japan

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Huffman (Nancy Wright) and Chip, Lisa, Leslie and Lorinda, visited recently at the home of her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ron Hagewood and her grandmother, Mrs. Ava Wright.

The Huffmans had just returned to the states after living three years in Tokyo, Japan. After a trip to Memphis, Tenn., to see his family, they will be stationed in Phoenix, Ariz.

Also at the Hagewood home during their visit were Mr. and Mrs. Oral Wright of Everett, Wn., parents of Mrs. Huffman and Mrs. Hagewood, and son and daughter-in-law of Mrs. Ava Wright.

Society AND Clubs

MR. AND MRS. WILLIAM E. SHERMAN (Carolyn Ruth Harold).

Carolyn Harold, Bill Sherman United In Boston Ceremony

The historic Park Street church in Boston, Mass., was the scene of the marriage of Miss Carolyn Ruth Harold and William Edward Sherman on Sunday, June 29. The bride is the daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Kenneth A. Harold of Mandeville, Jamaica, West Indies, and the groom is the son of Mrs. Wesley A. Sherman of Heppner.

Presiding over the double ring afternoon ceremony was Dr. Harold John Ockenga of Hamilton, Mass., former minister of Park Street church and now president of Gordon College in Wenham, Mass. He was assisted during the ceremony by the bride's father, Rev. Harold.

Organ selections before and after the ceremony were by Rice

Nutting of the Boston Conservatory of Music. He also accompanied Alan Wade of Worcester, Mass., soloist, during his singing of "Song of Ruth," and "O Perfect Love."

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride was lovely in a floor-length A-line gown of white organza, detailed at the bodice and scalloped neckline by Venise lace. The full, trailing mantilla veil of point d'esprit, was edged in matching Venise lace, and held by a full lace crown headpiece. She carried a cascade bridal bouquet of white rosebuds.

Matron of honor attendant was Mrs. R. M. Lord, Cleveland, Ohio, cousin of the bride.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Olli Silander, Philadelphia, Pa.; Miss Linda Sheperd, Ellington, Conn.; and Miss Vivian Russell, Philadelphia, Pa., college friends of the bride.

The attendants wore identical gowns in floor-length apricot chiffon, styled in low empire lines, with Venise lace collars and cuffs. Bouffant, matching double net headresses were gathered to a Venise lace crown. Each attendant carried a single long-stemmed Talisman rose, with baby breath, maiden hair fern, and contrasting ribbon streamers.

Attending as best man was Lt. Paul Crogan of Portland, a former classmate of the groom at the University of Oregon.

Ushers were Rev. David Bicker, LaMirada, Calif., and Douglas Harold, both brothers of the bride, and Edward Riffell, Grosse Pointe Farms, Michigan.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Harold selected an ice blue street-length coat dress of organza with white floral embroidery, and white accessories. Following the church ceremony, a wedding reception was held at Lane Student Center at nearby Gordon College in Wenham, Mass. A three-tiered all-white wedding cake centered the bride's table, with accents of chosen apricot and white wedding colors in floral arrangements on the table and about the rooms.

The Rev. Stanley A. Washburn of Holliston, Mass., close family friend, presided during a brief candlelighting ceremony. An ensemble of bridal attendants and family members joined in dedicating a vocal number, "If Thou But Suffer God to Guide Thee" to the newlywed couple.

College friends of the couple assisted with the serving, and attending the guest book were Mrs. David Bicker, sister-in-law of the bride, and her daughters, Sharon and Beth.

Guests attended from over a wide area of states and Canada. For their wedding trip to Cape Cod beaches, the bride changed to a double-breasted pink knit ensemble, with matching accessories. On their trip to Oregon that week they visited relatives in Cleveland, Ohio.

Following their return in August, they will reside at 169 Hesperus Ave., in Magnolia, Mass. Mr. Sherman will enroll for his second year at Gordon Divinity School in Wenham, and Mrs. Sherman plans to teach in secondary schools.

Mrs. Sherman received her degree from Gordon College in June, and the groom was graduated from the University of Oregon in 1968.

The bride's parents have been members of the teaching staff of the Jamaica Bible School and College at Mandeville, Jamaica. Mrs. Sherman attended grade school in Haiti, the Manchester High school and Bishops High school, under the British system, in Mandeville, and three years at Gordon College.

The newlyweds were honored Sunday, July 20, at a family reception at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Hayes near Forest Grove. A large number of relatives and close friends attended, including the groom's mother, Mrs. Wes Sherman, and his sister, Cathy Jo, of Heppner.

Majeskes Observe Silver Anniversary

On Sunday, July 20, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Majeske were honored on their 25th wedding anniversary when friends and neighbors came to an open house reception held from 2 to 5 p.m. at their ranch home.

The affair was held on the lawn, with the main table decorated with a lace cloth, beautiful 3-tiered cake, all in white, with silver tea and coffee service and punch bowl. Serving were mothers of the honor couple, Mrs. Kenneth Marshall and Mrs. A. F. Majeske, both of Lexington; Mrs. Jack Mounts of Portland, sister of Mr. Majeske, and Mrs. Janet Crabtree, niece of Mrs. Majeske.

Married in Lexington, the Majeskes have spent most of their married lives in Morrow county, with the exception of years when he was in service in Germany and at Ft. Lewis, Wn. Mrs. Majeske accompanied her husband to Ft. Lewis, returning to their home in Lexington when he went overseas. Their two honor attendants at their wedding were Mrs. Mounts of Portland, who was present for the day, and Herman Wallace of Pullman, Wash., who was unable to attend.

Hosts for the open house were their daughters, Debbie and Ginger Majeske, and a son, Donald of Forest Grove, who was unable to attend, but called to congratulate his parents. Many lovely and useful gifts were presented the honor couple by relatives and friends, with Mrs. C. C. Jones attending the gift table.

Guests were present from Heppner, Lexington, Ione, Baker, Portland and Seattle.

Monahan to Wed In Washington, D. C. Catholic Ceremony

Mr. and Mrs. James Monahan announce the coming marriage of their son, James Dominic (Dom) Monahan of Washington, D. C. Monahan will marry Judy Elizabeth Baran, Buffalo, N. Y., in Washington August 2. The ceremony will take place at St. Joseph's Catholic church at 2 p.m.

Monahan is an attorney practicing with a Washington law firm. His fiancée works as a consultant to IBM in the same city. After their marriage they will drive west, arriving in Heppner in time to attend the wedding of his sister, Teresa.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Monahan of Portland will fly East to be present at the ceremony. Monahan will serve as best man in his brother's wedding.

Friends Are Invited To McDaniel Reunion

McDaniel families and relatives will gather at the Anson Wright Memorial Park Sunday, August 3, for a family reunion. The affair will start at noon.

Family friends are invited to attend also, according to Mrs. Ramona Marshall.

Friends Asked to Sunday Open House

Mrs. Phebe Bartholomew will celebrate her 95th birthday at a reception to be held for her Sunday, August 3. Her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Myers, invite her friends to see her at their home on Butter Creek between 2:00 and 6:00 p.m.

Mrs. Bartholomew was born August 4, 1874 on the family farm. Her parents were Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Thomson.

Local Couple Extends Invitation

Mr. and Mrs. James Monahan invite their friends and relatives to attend the wedding of their daughter, Teresa. The ceremony will take place Saturday, August 16, at 7 p.m. in St. Patrick's Catholic church.

Miss Monahan will wed Ronald B. Hoffman, son of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Hoffman, Pendleton.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Pratt and son, Jeff, were in Heppner on business last Thursday and Friday, taking care of their home here. They were overnight guests of Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Gunderson and family.
