Irrigation is on its way. See special section in today's Gazette-Times.

86th Year Number 25 Heppner, Oregon 97836, Thursday, August 14, 1969

Price 10 Cents

By DON GILLIAM

THEY PULLED AS HARD as they could, but the men represent-ing the Heppner-Morrow county Chamber of Commerce still got wet as the Morrow County Jaycees outtugged them in the an-nual tug-of-war at the Queen's Coronation Saturday night. Ac-tually, only one man pictured is a member of the senior Chamber, Herman Winter (third from right). Others are (from left) Don Greenup, David Hanna, Doug Dubuque and Pat O'Brien.

The loss was the first for the elders after two consecutive wins over the Jaycees. The contest is evened now, with two wins each. (G-T Photo).

Heppner Man

as a result of the accident, Col-umbia Basin Electric foreman

Bill Gentry said.
Telephone service to about 10 customers was also affected.
Electric lines fell on the tele-

A 23-year-old Heppner man was fined $150 in Justice court Monday on a charge of driving under the influence of intoxicating Heunes for interest the first day will be Tuesday, September 2, with morning and afternoon bus cannot be found to the Mornov county for the Monday of the Monday for the first day beginning at $40 am. Follows Richard K. Willard, Heppner, one and Riverside High schools will all register Sunday morning. Registration dates for Morrow will be Tuesday, September 2, with morning and afternoon bus to the Morrow country's three high schools, as substant to the Morrow country for the Mornov country for the Morrow country for Morrow Country will be open the Morrow country for Registration Dates

Racing Fees Due On Rodeo Entries

trict manager Dale Slusher.

Power service was restored in the Quaid and Stansbury street areas about 3 a.m., Gentry said, while it took until 6:30 that morning to get the other lines required.

Contests expected to fill quick-ly include bull riding, novice bronc riding, and Wranglers cow riding, according to rodeo board chairman Charley Daly.

A new policy this year will require a $10 entry fee for all required.

shutting off power.

A capacitator bank was also on the pole, used to supply power for rodeo grounds lights.

Total damage was about $1,100, Gentry said.

Willard's car was demolished.

The fees must be paid at the time of entry. Entries close at 8 p.m. Thursday, August 21.

Another new ruling allows a pass only to contestants who pay at least $20 in entry fees. Two $1,100, Gentry said.

Willard's car was demolished.

The fees must be paid at the time of entry. Entries close at 8 physical examination, and in addition grade one students must have a physical examination, and in addition grade one students must have a physical examination, and in addition grade one students must have a birth certificate.

Students new to the area having questions are urged to contact administrators of the school they will attend.

Daltoso, principal.

Fees at all high schools are $6 for student body fees and $8 for textbook rental. Other fees are $3 for insurance and $2 for towel fees. The towel fee applies to all students taking physical education, and a like fee is charged students partici-

The lines which snapped carry 12,000 volts, Gentry said, and while one of the lines remained "hot" the other two blew fuses, shutting off power.

A capacitator bank was also

Chamber President

Although making the cry of foul with tongue in cheek. Sweeney gave little explanation as to his absence while the other in federal custody in Portland this week are Clarence W. Byrd, 45, and Danny Frances Ward, 25, both of Twin Falls. Idaho.

To Fair Events

Electric lines fell on the telephone lines, burning through them to cause the outage.

Damage was minor, according to Pacific Northwest Bell district manager Dale Slusher.

Power service was restored in the Quaid and Stansbury street areas about 3 a.m., Gentry said, while it took until 6:30 that

The Rough and Rough and a like fee is charged students particing the girls can and a like fee is charged students particing the country for girls enrolled in clothing and knitting projects will be the public style revue "My Favorite Things" to be presented at Heppner High School Cafetorium on August 19 at 8:00 p.m. This is the time all 4-H girls from the burglaries was for girls enrolled in clothing and knitting projects will be the public style revue "My Favorite Things" to be presented at Heppner High School Cafetorium on August 19 at 8:00 p.m. This is the time all 4-H girls from the youngest to the oldest modulus of the sunday.

Sunday.

A highlight of the 4-H year for girls enrolled in clothing and knitting projects will be the public style revue "My Favorite Things" to be presented at Heppner High School Cafetorium on August 19 at 8:00 p.m. This is the time all 4-H girls from the youngest to the oldest modulus of the sunday morning when Oregon State Police officers Larry Kraft and Larry Shown were returning to Arlington after routine patrol in Heppner Saturday night. el garments they have made in night.

their 4-H year.

Prior to the public revue the girls have modeled their garments and have been judged on hour" aroused their suspicion. one and nine are required to have a physical examination, and in addition grade one students must have a birth certifier. The outfit is considered on how becoming it is to the girl in many points, including posture, poise, grooming, and attitude. The outfit is considered on how becoming it is to the girl in choice of color, texture, style and fit. She is also judged for her selection of accessories for the outfit and for her as an integral of the outfit and for her as an integral of the pair and also been entered, the pair and also been entered, the pair as it contributes to the protessional look of the garment.

Four-H leaders, members, and fair superintendents of this special event extend an invitation arrest, and then were taken to Umatilla county jail in Pendleton later Sunday.

Monday, the pair was arraignment of the Peace of the Peace tend and enjoy an evening with the 4-H girls of Morrow county. Other Home Ec events to which the public is welcome are the contests and demonstrations for 4-H members. Meal preparation and other cooking contests will be held in the Hopping High school Home Ec events will be judged in the after moon beginning at the first second to attend and enjoy an evening with the 4-H girls of Morrow county. Other Home Ec events to which the public is welcome are the contests and demonstrations for 4-H members. Meal preparation and other cooking contests will be held in the Hepping High school Home Ec room this year.

morning. Four-H Home Ec Judg-ing contests will be on the fair grounds beginning Wednesday afternoon at 1:30 p.m.

Demonstrations will be in the annex at the fairgrounds starting Thursday morning, August

Allan Langenwalter of Herm-Intermediate Showmanship—

1. Joan Healy; 2, Patty Luciani.
Junior Showmanship—1, Dawn
Feterson; 2, Denise Henkle.
Small Fry Showmanship—1,
Clady Brock; 2, Kim Cutsforth.
Colt Showmanship (on halter)
—1, Cassie Chapel.

Alian Langenwatter of Hermiston is to present a program of slides on a recent trip to England and Scotland at the noon meeting of the Heppiner-Morrow county Chamber of Hermiston is scheduled to present a program of slides on a recent than $1,000, and said the bank and its customers were covered by insurance.

Commerce on Monday, according to Morrow Chamber of the Heppiner-Morrow county Chamber of the Heppiner-Morrow

1969 Morrow Fair Sets Tuesday Start

The 1969 edition of the Morrow county Fair opens Tuesday, offering four full days of excitement for fairgoers and exhibitors alike.

Events will begin at 8:30 a.m. Tuesday when 4-H and FFA entries open, and run through Friday with a horse show planned for that day.

Sen. Mark O. Hatfield and family are scheduled to visit the fair Friday, August 22 during the Morrow county horse show. The Senator is expected to arrive about noon. Further plans for the visit will be announced next week.

Preparations are now underway at the fair-grounds, with booths to be judged Wednesday. Premiums totaling $5,500 may be paid at this year's fair, according to Mrs. Lenna Smith, fair board secretary.

The figure reflects an increase of $200 over last year's premiums, Mrs. Smith said.

Livestock and farm exhibits aren't the only ones at the fair. Included will be arts and crafts, foods, Children's Corner, Collector's Corner, clothing and other interests for young and old.

Several prizes are offered in a canning contest, now in its second year.

Another second-year feature will be the Soroptimist Country Store, a popular booth in its

Seventeen booths and nine other display areas are scheduled to be set up in the fair pavilion. Among the booth entries are the Heppner Among the booth entries are the Heppner Mother's club, Butterfingers 4-H club, Irrigon community 4-H club, Ten Stitchers 4-H club, Oregon Dairy Council, Heppner PTA, Jaycees, Heppner Garden club, Willows Grange.

Others are Assembly of God church, Latterday Saints church, Umatilla Wildlife Refuge, Lett's Florties Seventimiet alab OMSI.

Lott's Electric, Soroptimist club, OMSI, Nutra-lites, and Degree of Honor. Reserving tables or floor space are Pat Petiyjohn's 4-H club, KOHU radio, Oregon State Fish and Game Commission, Morrow county Rock-hounds, Amway Products, Mrs. Justine Weath-erford, Mrs. Bonnie Culp, Mrs. G. E. Nikander and the Extension Advisory council.

The 4-H Snack Shack will operate throughout the fair, offering food and refreshment.

Four-H and FFA entries close at 10 a.m. Tuesday, and judging is set to begin immediately of 4-H foods, clothing and style revue entries. The style revue is to be held Tuesday eve-

Tuesday afternoon, livestock judging contests are slated, along with 4-H ag demonstrations.

Open class entries open Wednesday morning at 8 a.m., and close an hour later, except for flower entries which remain open until 11:30

Most open class judging will be done that morning. Other judging that morning will in-clude 4-H meal preparations, and 4-H livestock judging.

Members of 4-H clubs will engage in food and clothing judging contests that afternoon.

Thursday, 4-H showmanshp contests will be

The always popular pet show will be held Thursday morning, with the parade of pets set for 11:30 a.m.

Events that evening include the livestock auction and pig scramble.

All day Friday, August 22, is the Morrow county Horse show.

After the fair concludes that day, the events of the rodeo get into full swing with a dance Featuring the music of the Picadilly Line of Pendleton, the dance will start at 10 p.m.
Saturday, a big street parade gets underway at 10 in downtown Heppner. The first rodeo performance is the same day at 1:15 p.m. Wranglers Cowboy breakfast will begin Sunday morning at 7, and the final rodeo show is set for 1:30 that afternoon.

Two Face $100,000 Bail In Bank, Tavern Breakins

In federal custody in Portland

They each face two counts of burglary not in a dwelling and a single count of bank burglary. Ball has been set at $100,000

The pair is accused of break-ing into the Bank of Eastern Oregon and Ed's Tavern, owned by Ed Bristow, sometime early Sunday

"The evidence of a breakin was noted to be in the vehicle," dividual.

Construction in this event is judged on the quality of work as it contributes to the professional look of the garment.

Four Holders members and

They were lodged in Multnomah county jail there.
Entry to the bank was gained through a window latch, Bank President Gene Pierce sild Tuesday. The latch was broken and entry was made through the top of the vault.

Safety deposit boxes were broken into in the vault, and papers were strewn on the floor. Pierce said. At the tavern, vending machines were jimmled.

"Damage was minor," Pierc making the ground slick.

The president said the senior group did concede the loss, however, and would produce a trophy soon.

A routine check of a suspichad caused a mess. The roof was ious car led to the arrest of two loss repaired by the week-end. New safety deposit boxes are two burglaries in Ione early Sunday.

Everything in the bank was removed at night and brought to Heppner, and then taken on their way from Spokane, and are also due immediately, Pierce during the first of the week.

NOPE, YOU'RE NOT SEEING THINGS. Those are identical pictures of the 1969 Morrow County Fair and Rodeo court. Casting a wary eye on the nine pictures is Gazette-Times office girl Nancy Doherty. The pictures were some of several sent to newspapers throughout Eastern Oregon boosting the week's events which start next Tuesday. (G-T Photo).

Horsewomen Win at 4-H Show; Open Class Event Next Friday

Young horsewomen dominated the show next Friday, which is the first of two horse shows to be held in conjunction with the ing club.

They took 17 of 18 first and ed to those who entered last second places in the annual 4-H year, according to Art Vance, Horse show held last Sunday at superintendent of the event.

in force next week at the sec-ond of the two shows, the an-Closing d ship at the 4-H show, while Fair and Rodeo Princess Patti Healy horsemen of Morrow county on was grand champion showman. ly, the superintendent said. Marianne Pettyjohn was named reserve grand champion in for the event, and among the serve grand champion showman. and Bryant; Elma's Apparel; The three girls are eligible to compete at the Oregon State Columbia Basin Electric; Mur-

Entry blanks have been mailhe fairgrounds here.

However, the date on the entry blanks telling of the closing date

ond of the two shows, the annual Morrow County Open Horse Show, set for Friday, August 22.
Marcia Jones was named
grand champion in horseman.

Marcia Jones was named
grand champion in horseman.

Marcia Jones was named
grand champion in horseman.

The contest is restricted to

Many prizes will be offered horsemanship, while Craig Mun-kers, the only young male to place in the top two, was re-Mahoney; Turner, Van Marter Fair. rays Drug Store; Fulleton Chev-All will be eligible to enter rolet; Heppner Lumber Compa-noon beginning at 1:15.

At the 4-H Show, other winners besides the grand chamions included: Intermediate Horsemanship Joan Healy; 2, Susan Healy. Junior Horsemanshp — 1, Dawn Peterson; 2, Denise Hen-

Small Fry Horsemanship —

1, Cindy Brock; 2, Janice Healy.
Colt Horsemanship (under saddle)—1, Peggy Henkley.
Intermediate Showmanship — iston is scheduled to present