Over The Tee Cup

By MARIE McQUARRIE

Last Tuesday, cool morning weather must have kept some gals at home, probably with the furnace on, not willing to take a chance on a few goose bumps on the golf course. Truly, gals, it was a beautiful morning, you should have braved it. The "Tee-Cup" writer was hostess for the day, Helen Schaffitz won the honors by getting right on the green with her tee-off on hole No. 4.

The Kinzua Golf Club is holding its Second Annual Wheeler County Invitational Tournament on Labor Day week-end, August 30, 31 and Sept. 1. Also, a hole-in-one contest will be held Sunday a.m., August 31. Entry forms for their Invitational are in the Willow Creek Country Club clubhouse. This golf tournament is held in conjunction with the Wheeler County Fair and Rodeo and golf will be closed for certain events of their fair and rodeo.

Breakfast on Saturday, Sunday and Monday will be served. Dinner will be served on Sunday following the contest for entrants and their ladies. One thousand dollars in merchandise prizes will be awarded and the hole-in-one contest (men, ladies or juniors may enter) has merchandise prizes offered by local merchants. The first 56 paid entries, only, will be accepted. Each contestant plays 36 holes on two days, either Saturday and Monday, or Sunday and Monday. The Kinzua Golf Club goes to great length to assure everyone a good time. This is a safe way to spend the Labor Day week-end—off the main highways—so why not give it a whirl and have a real good time? Get your entry blanks and send them in early for a fun, three-day golfing holiday at Kinzua.

Sorry the results of the McNary visit is practically old news, but there was no room in the Gazette-Times for the Tee-Cup last week.

A barbecue will be held Saturday evening, August 16, at the Willow Creek Country Club. A to L brings dessert, and M to Z, salad. Golfers who are not coming to these barbecues don't know the fun you are missing. Where else in Heppner can you have a fun time with your favorite sport, have a nice dinner and a lot of good conversation with friends for just bringing one prepared salad or dessert and your own meat? There won't be many more barbecues held, as summer is on the wane, so give it a try and see what fun it is. Golfing will start any time you want to get there, with dinner afterward. See you over the coals at the barbecue pit, "Fore".

WELCOMED ADDITION to the Heppner and Lexington communities are Rev. and Mrs. Don W. Johnson and family, now serving the Christian churches of the two towns. Standing are Andrew, 13, Douglas, 14, and Jan Lea, 10; seated are Rev. and Mrs. Johnson and small son, Peter, 2.
