

Friends and Relatives Attend Funeral Here

Several relatives and close friends traveled here for the services of Scott Furlong on August 5, and were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Verlin Matthews and Mrs. Furlong.

Coming from Vancouver were Mr. and Mrs. Con Adkins, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Adkins, Mr. and Mrs. Don Cowdrey and Dianna, Mrs. Bess Harrington, Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Gentry and Scott and Steve. Others were Mr. and Mrs. Chick Winters, Lake Oswego; Mr. and Mrs. Bob Nichols, Mark and Sheri, Tacoma; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stark and Debbie, Mrs. Myron Knutson, and Mrs. Loretta Buchanan, Portland; Mrs. Gladys Cowdrey, Stayton; Mrs. Les Pruitt and Glenna Pruitt, Springfield; and a number of close friends from nearby areas.

Fire Damage Small; Closure in Effect

A regulated closure of state forest lands went into effect at midnight on Tuesday, August 12, according to Knox Pipkin, unit forester of the State Forestry Department in Fossil. No permits are required under the closure.

Two provisions are listed in the closure: No smoking is permitted while traveling through forested areas under state protection except on public roads and highways.

Campfires are permitted only at designated camp grounds, Pipkin mentioned.

Thirteen small fires have started in the Heppner district since the beginning of the fire season. Twelve were caused by lightning and were quickly contained with a minimum of damage.

One fire was accidentally started by a man and was controlled before it had burned more than one acre.

Sunday afternoon a fire burned nine acres at the head of Holmes Creek northwest of Spray. It is now controlled, and was mopped up on Tuesday by fire crews at the scene.

Walt Wallace had knee surgery Tuesday, August 12, at the Veteran's hospital in Portland. He traveled to Portland Monday to enter the hospital.

HOSPITAL NEWS

Patients admitted to Pioneer Memorial hospital during the past week, and still receiving medical care are the following: Tommy Schoolcraft, Kinzua; Myrtle Smith, Heppner; Alma Davidson, Ione, and Vernon Leathers, Lexington.

Those dismissed, after medical care, were Ella Bleakman, Rufus; Robert Peterson, Ione; Frieda Majeske, Lexington; Carolyn Wright, Kinzua, and Kenneth Marshall, Lexington.

Band Support Needed

Arnie Hedman, Heppner band director, is calling for a "good turnout" of present and past band members for practices for this year's fair and rodeo parade. Practices started Tuesday evening, and will continue through next week, at 7:30 in the grade school band room each evening. Good support for the marching band is encouraged, to add to the festivities of the parade.

Program Set Friday

A program for parents and friends will close the United Methodist Vacation Bible School week in the sanctuary of the church Friday evening, August 15, at 8:00 p.m. Work of the students will be on display in the various rooms, and refreshments will be served downstairs at the close of the evening.

LOCAL NEWS

Frances Abrams returned August 7 from a month long trip to the East. She left July 4 with Margaret Marks, who was driving to New York where she will work with General Foods as an assistant food technologist. During the trip, the two girls viewed Yellowstone Park, Mt. Rushmore, Cincinnati, Ohio, New York City and York Harbor, Maine. Miss Marks is now living at Hartsdale, N. Y.

Pam McCabe came home August 8-10 to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest McCabe. Two roommates of Pam's, Kelsey and Jackie Tyler, were also guests of the family. They returned to school in Portland Sunday afternoon.

Dale Cooper traveled to Portland Saturday to see his brother, Stanley Schoonover, and a friend, Jim Lynch, accompanied him. The pair returned to Heppner Monday afternoon, August 11.
