Retiring District Phone Manager 40-Year Veteran

W. R. BROWN
Pacific Northwest Bell

he has seen the district almost triple in activity and number of customers served.

Since moving to Pendleton, Brown has been active in numerous community and civic affairs. He has worked on several Round-Up committees. He's a member and past director of the Pendleton Chamber of Commerce; a senior active member and past director of the Pendleton Rotary Club; a member and past exalted ruler of the Pendleton Elks Lodge and a past district deputy grand exalted ruler of the Elks organization.

Brown served nine years on the Pendleton Planning Commission. He currently is a member of the Pendleton VFW Post No. 922 and the Portland American Legion Post No. 1. He holds a life membership in the Multnomah Athletic Club at Portland. On his retirement he will become a life member in the Oregon Trail Council, Telephone Pioneers of America. He was first president of the council, composed of active and retired telephone employees in Eastern Oregon.

Brown and his wife, Helen, plan to continue their Pendleton residence at 3206 S. W. Halle Place. They plan a two-week trip to Alaska with relatives in late August and early September.

In honor of Brown's retirement, an Open House was held Wednesday, August 20 at the company's new office building at 202 S. E. Dorion from 3 to 5 p.m.

Commenting on his pending retirement, Brown concluded he was looking forward to the days of relaxation but would miss the close contacts he had enjoyed with his co-workers in the business.

Jernstedt Joins Law Revision Committee

Senator Ken Jernstedt, R-Hood River, has been appointed to serve on the state's criminal Law Revision Commission. The Jernstedt appointment was announced in Salem on Thursday August 14, by Senate President E. D. (Debbs) Potts.

Jernstedt, the only non-lawyer member of the Senate Judiciary Committee during the 1969 Legislature, will join the twelve-member committee as it passes its half-way point in its assignment.

The Oregon Criminal Law Revision Commission was established by the 1967 Legislature and was given a four-year life span. Its goal is to rebuild Oregon's 100-year old criminal laws from the ground up.

Jernstedt will continue as a member of the interim committees on Labor Management Relations and Executive Appointments.

Betty Angell is presently staying with her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Angell. She arrived July 25 and plans to stay until August 25. She is employed at Pioneer Memorial hospital during her stay. When she leaves she will continue her training at Emmanuel School of Nursing, Portland.

Peace Corps Calls For Volunteers

Morrow county residents interested in putting their skills to use in developing nations around the world are invited to take the Peace Corps Placement Test at 1:30 p.m. on Saturday, August 16 at 2022 Post Office Building, Portland.

The Peace Corps uses the Placement Test to determine how an applicant can best be utilized overseas. The test measures general aptitude and the ability to learn a language, not education or achievement. The test requires no preparation and is non-competitive; an applicant can neither pass nor fail.

Persons interested in serving with the Peace Corps must fill out an application, if they have not already done so, and present it to the tester before the test. Application forms are available from post offices or from the Peace Corps in Washington, D. C. 20525.

Fifteen thousand volunteers are currently serving in Asia, Africa, Latin America and the Pacific Islands, working with the people of those nations in self-help projects ranging from food production to health to education. More volunteers are needed for programs which will begin training soon.
