

Monahan-Hoffman
Wedding Solemnized
In August Ceremony

Miss Teresa Margaret Monahan and Ronald Boone Hoffman exchanged marriage vows at the altar of St. Patrick's Catholic church in Heppner on Saturday, August 16. The nuptial mass was performed at 7:00 p.m. by the Rev. Raymond Beard. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James M. Monahan of Heppner, and the groom is the son of John J. Hoffman and the late Janice May Hoffman of Pendleton.

Mr. Monahan escorted his daughter to the altar. Her bridal gown was a Paris original of white organza, with diagonal decorative seed pearl trim from the left shoulder to the hem of the gown. Her veil of illusion was held by a crown of seed pearls, and she carried a cascade bridal bouquet of white roses, centered with orchids. Matron of honor was Mrs. JoAnn Paulson, cousin of the bride, wearing a floor-length gown of pale green dotted Swiss fashioned in A-line style.

Bridesmaids were Miss Joy Miller of Pendleton and Miss Debbie Young of Heppner. Their identically styled gowns were fashioned of contrasting pale yellow dotted Swiss. The attendants carried white wicker umbrella baskets with yellow bows and streamers, holding arrangements of daisies and ivy. At the altar were decorations of yellow and white gladioli. Organ selections were provided by Miss Margaret Glavey, who also accompanied Bill Kenny when he sang "Ave Maria."

Jack Hoffman attended his brother as best man. Ushers were Bill Monahan, brother of the bride, and John Wahl of Pendleton.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Monahan selected a pink chiffon dress with white accessories. Her corsage was of white gardenias. The newlyweds greeted their guests at a reception in the parish hall. A four-tiered wedding cake, decorated with daisies, centered the reception table. Yellow and white gladioli and daisies were used on the tea table.

Pouring punch and coffee were Mrs. Peggy Paulson and Mrs. Kathleen Hisler, aunts of the bride.

Guests from England
Visit Currin Home

Rodeo guests at the George Currin ranch were Margaret Tyrrell and Valerie Seagroatt of London, England; Gizi Toya of Gresham; Louise Hemphill of Newport; Ann Marie Currin of Portland and Cella Currin of Pendleton.

Miss Tyrrell and Miss Seagroatt were classmates of Cella Currin at Nottingham University last year. They are making a three months tour of Canada and the United States and will return by plane to England for their senior year. They enjoyed the Eastern Oregon country, and found the Rodeo very exciting, especially since it was the first one they had seen.

Couple is Honored
On 60th Anniversary

All immediate family members, except one grandson, were here Sunday, August 31, to extend greetings to Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Harris in celebration of their 60th wedding anniversary. Unable to attend was Renne Harris of Berkeley, Calif., and his family.

The special occasion was arranged by a son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hill of Coos Bay, and a son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Darrel Harris of Heppner.

Over 75 relatives and friends came to the Harris home to extend good wishes and congratulations. Five of the couple's seven great-grandchildren were among those present.

The honored couple has lived 54 of their 60 married years in the Heppner area. Mrs. Harris was born and raised here, and was the bride of Mr. Harris in a ceremony in Payette, Ida. Their youngest son, Benn, was killed in an accident 22 years ago.

Serving the guests were the couple's granddaughters: Mrs. Don Hevener of McMinnville and Mrs. James Williams of Coos Bay served cake; Mrs. Dale Hill of Coos Bay, punch; and Miss Mary Pointer of Coos Bay, coffee. Great-granddaughter, Colleen Hill of Coos Bay, kept the guest book, and Patti Saling of Heppner was in charge of gifts.

Garden Club Plans
September Meeting

An important meeting of the Ione Garden club is planned for Wednesday, September 10, at the home of Mrs. Kenneth Klinger in Lexington, from 1:30 to 5:00 p.m.

Appropriate to the season will be a program on "Bedding Down the Bulbs", presented by Clell Rea.

Also, detailed plans will be discussed for the annual fall flower show, planned for Sunday, September 21, at the school cafeteria. All members are urged to be present.

Annual Plans Made
By Catholic Women

Heppner Altar Society held their first meeting Tuesday, September 2, at the Catholic Parish hall. Mrs. Bill Gentry presided over the meeting.

Plans were made to sponsor a public card party and dessert September 29 at the Catholic Parish hall. Committee in charge of arrangements are Mrs. Pat Brindle, Mrs. Rita Wolf and Mrs. Tiny Sweeney.

Members also decided they would agree to cater dinners for organizations again this year as they have done in the past.

Engaged Pair Plans
November Wedding

The engagement and coming marriage of Miss Mary Louise Pointer of Portland and Clayton Hill, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hill of Coos Bay, was recently announced by her brother, Jerry L. Pointer of Beaverton. Miss Pointer is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Lewis S. Pointer of Portland.

A November wedding is planned in Portland.

The couple was among those who traveled here for the 60th wedding anniversary reception of Mr. Hill's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Harris on Sunday, August 31.

Phegley Home Scene
Of Wisner-McBride
Wedding August 1

An evening ceremony at the Jim Phegley home in Heppner united in marriage, Miss Ramona Wisner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Phegley, and Danny Lee McBride, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nate McBride.

The double ring ceremony was performed at 9:00 p.m. on Friday, August 1, by the Rev. Don Johnson in the presence of families and close friends.

Given in marriage by Mr. Phegley, the bride chose to wear a white satin dress fashioned with lace bell sleeves. A floral pearl-trimmed headpiece held in place her finger-tip veil. She carried a white Bible, topped with white carnations and satin streamers.

Miss Bonnie Kessel was the bride's honor attendant. She wore a blue and white ensemble, and carried a single white carnation.

Best man was Gary Romberg.

Piano selections were played by Miss Sandy Matheny.

Mrs. Phegley greeted the wedding guests in a beige print dress. Mrs. McBride, mother of the groom, selected a blue knit dress.

Refreshments of wedding cake, punch and coffee were served the guests. Mrs. Edith Wisner and Mrs. Alice Lightle poured and
