

Reception Tonight To Honor Teachers at Lone Schools

By LORRAINE BALL

IONE—The September meeting of the Lone PTA will be held on Thursday, September 11, at 8:00 p.m. in the Cafeterium. There will be a short business meeting followed by a reception for the new teachers in our school this year. Everyone is welcome and urged to attend. Also we would like to see a good attendance of our parents at all PTA meetings this year.

In our schools this year we are welcoming four new teachers. Mrs. Karen Dubuque is teaching the second grade. She is a recent graduate of Oregon State University and this is her first year of teaching. Mrs. Dubuque makes her home in Heppner.

Mrs. Karen Beck is our fifth grade teacher. She is a graduate of Oregon College of Education and she taught in the Sherwood school district last year. Mr. and Mrs. Beck are residing on 2nd street in Ione.

Miss Lynn Bowman will teach Homemaking, Girls PE, and Junior High English. She is a graduate of North Dakota State University, and is presently residing at the Charles Carlsons.

The new shop teacher is Lynn Killpack. He is a graduate of Brigham Young University and taught for four years in Utah. He is assistant football coach also. Killpack resides in the home owned by the school district adjacent to the football field.

Several Ione teachers attended summer school this summer. Among those were Mrs. Bob (Betty) Rietmann and Gordon Myers who attended Eastern Oregon College at La Grande. Jerry Martin attended Black Hills State College, Bill Flechtner attended Portland State University and Linda McKay attended Northern Arizona University. Principal Harold Beggs attended Washington State University.

CHOOSE A THEME

For the 1970

RODEO PARADE

WIN Two Tickets To Two Performances of the Rodeo

Heppner-Morrow County Chamber of Commerce needs your help in choosing a theme for the 1970 Rodeo Parade which it sponsors. Requests have been made that the theme be chosen early in order to allow more time to plan entries.

If your idea is judged best, you will win the prize—two tickets to the Saturday and Sunday afternoon performances of the rodeo in August, 1970.

Make your theme idea general enough so that it can apply to a wide variety of floats and entries.

Anyone may enter this contest—just fill in the blank below and bring or send it to the Gazette-Times, Heppner, Friday, September 26.
