

49 Eventful Years Reviewed at Reunion With Class Advisor

A great deal of reminiscing was the order of the day on Sunday, September 6, when several members of the Heppner High Class of 1920 gathered in Portland for a reunion.

The occasion also was in honor of a favorite class advisor, during the years 1917-1919, Mrs. Martha (Struck) Brunquist, and in celebration of her 81st birthday. She now makes her home in Parkdale and continues to be a very active citizen and influence in the community.

Following a dinner at Ireland's Restaurant in Portland, the group traveled to the home of one of the class members, Mrs. Alma (Devin) Cousten. Many recollections were made of the "good ol' days" for the class of 15 graduates, and each was brought up-to-date on their life's history during the past 49 years.

Members of the reunion class who attended were Mrs. Cyrene (Lieuallen) Miller and Mrs. Odile (Groshears) Luper, both of Portland; Mrs. Neva (Chidsey) McCord of Baker, Mrs. Eva (Whittington) Steele of St. Helens, Mrs. Etta (Devin) Parker of Heppner, Mrs. Erda (Frad) Piener of Lexington, Mrs. Ruth (Huddleston) Fletcher of Ukiah, Herb Hynd of Cecil, Mrs. Alma (Devin) Clouston of Portland, and their advisor, Mrs. Brunquist of Parkdale.

Others present were Harvey Miller, Mrs. Beth Hynd, Carol Hynd, R. A. (Bob) Fletcher, John Clouston, and Mrs. Eleanor (Bronquist) Dallas of Beaverton.
