

Legion to Hear Report Of Boys and Girls State

By LORRAINE BALL

IONE—Ione American Legion and Auxiliary will hold a potluck dinner at their hall on Tuesday, September 30, commencing at 6:30. Main feature of the evening will be the presentation of reports from the boys and girls who attended Boys and Girls State this past summer.

An invitation by the Legion and Auxiliary is extended to all members of the community to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Doherty and family motored to The Dalles on Saturday to attend a picnic dinner with Mrs. Doherty's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Byron Bradshaw.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Nichols, Shirley, Arleta and Arlynda Aldrich, enjoyed a camping trip over the week-end at Cutsforth Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Crabtree and their grandson, Scott Crabtree, of Lexington visited in Colfax, Wn., over the week-end with their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin McCabe. The trip was to help their grandson James celebrate his seventh birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Jepsen and Jimmy accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Ayers enjoyed a fishing trip near Anthony Lake and Mason Dam over the weekend. They reported fishing was good.

Mrs. Leo Crabtree and Mrs. Mike Cotter were in Hermiston on Monday for medical care.

Mr. and Mrs. Lindsay Kincaid and daughters were in Portland over the week-end. They visited with Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bilboa while there.

Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Wilson and family of Lake Oswego were week-end guests of Carl Troedson. Mrs. Wilson is the former Maj-Britt Johnsson of Sweden who was sponsored by Mr. Troedson in 1960. Dr. Wilson practices in Portland at the Good Samaritan hospital. Accompanying the Wilsons was Mrs. Howard Nottage of Portland, sister of Mr. Troedson. Mrs. Nottage is a teacher in the Clackamas school system.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Ball, Bill Nichols and Harold Sherer attended funeral services in Heppner on Monday for Raymond Bailey. Mr. Bailey worked for Morrow county, retiring several years ago.

Millie Evans of Heppner was a Sunday guest at the home of Mable Cotter.

Less and Robert Nelson of Condon visited during the week-end with Mrs. Clara Kincaid.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Ray, formerly of Camas Valley, are employed at the Delbert Emert ranch. They are residing with Emert. Mrs. Ray is a niece.

Marianne Pettyjohn was house guest of Dr. and Mrs. Stan McGough of Pendleton during the Pendleton Round-Up. The Arlington court, consisting of Queen Marianne, Princesses Jeri Krebs of Cecil, and Kathy Dill of Condon, rode in parade. The court also attended the luncheon held in honor of visiting courts at the Elks Club.

Mrs. Adon Hamlett and son, Tom, spent the week-end in Pendleton with Mr. Hamlett. Hamlett is residing in Pendleton since he assumed the B-Line Service Station there. He will be doing business under the name of Hamletts Husky Station, which is located at 1715 S. E. Court St. near St. Anthony hospital.

Mrs. Mary Lundell and Darlene Gardner visited in Seattle this week for several days with relatives of Mrs. Lundell.

Capt. and Mrs. Bob Miller and family of McChord AFB visited with Mr. and Mrs. Garland Swanson and Jim over the week-end. The Miller family was so impressed with our country on earlier visits they returned for a week-end of rest and relaxation.

Chuck Nelson escaped serious injury Saturday evening when he had the misfortune to wreck his automobile. His passenger also was unhurt.

Mrs. Fannie Griffith was shaken up and required medical attention, following her car accident early Saturday evening near the Delbert Emert elevator. Her injuries did not require hospitalization.

Helen Salter returned home this week from St. Anthony hospital following her transfer from Pioneer Memorial hospital where she had been confined several weeks following a fall, which injured her back while on duty at the hospital where she is employed.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Snider are the parents of a baby boy born at St. Anthony hospital on September 12, at 12:55 a.m. The baby weighed 1 lb., 3 1/2 oz. Mrs. Snider returned home, but the infant must remain longer. Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Salter, paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. George Snider, all of Ione. A name had not been chosen at this writing.

Lloyd Johnson spent the week-end from his teaching position in Salem, with Mrs. Johnson, who is remaining in Ione until their new home is available.

Mrs. Lloyd Johnson was surprised by several ladies at the home of Mrs. David Rietmann last Thursday, with a coffee hour. Refreshments were served to Mrs. Dot Halverson, Mrs. Marion Palmer, Mrs. Lee Palmer and Anita, Mrs. Carmen French, and Mrs. Lulubelle MacIntosh.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Halverson of Medford were week-end guests at the home of his brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Halverson.

Willows Grange will hold their meeting on Saturday, September 20, beginning at 6:00 p.m. with a buffet dinner. Members are asked to bring salads or desserts.

Mrs. Wayne Ball was hostess last Wednesday evening for pinocle club. Three tables of progression was enjoyed. Mrs. Diana Hams received high, Mrs. Ball.

Tanya Padberg, second, and Mrs. Maureen Davis the door prize.

Mrs. Darrell Padberg spent several days in Pendleton this week to be near Mrs. Sara Adkins of Heppner who underwent major surgery on Monday at St. Anthony hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Beggs took their daughter, Charity, to Nampa, Idaho, on Sunday where she has enrolled in Northwest Nazarene College for her freshman year. Mr. and Mrs. Beggs were also dinner guests at the home of his sister, Mrs. Jim Hodgdon of Boise. They returned to Ione Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Dunham of Camas Valley visited recently with her brother, Delbert Emert, and Mr. and Mrs. Dick Ray. They also visited with the Phill Emerts of Echo. Also visiting was another sister, Mrs. Blanche Ward, of Kuna, Idaho.

Mrs. Mary Emert, who is residing at the Midland Manor, 438 Midland Blvd. Kuna, Idaho 83651, would enjoy hearing from her friends. Mrs. Emert celebrated her 88th birthday this week. She is reportedly feeling much improved at this time.

Among the many young men from our area going to Portland this past week for their army physicals were Rodney Linnell and Virgil Morgan.

John Krebs, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Krebs of Cecil, is home on an extended leave before he is assigned duty in Germany.

Pvt. Jay Ball left Sunday evening for New Jersey for assignment to Germany for 18 months following a 14-day leave with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Don Ball.

Mr. and Mrs. R. G. McMurtry visited Mr. McMurtry's brother, James, in Philomath. They were joined in Philomath by a sister from Eugene, who is leaving soon for a trip to the east coast.

Mrs. W. A. Sherman and Cathy traveled to Forest Grove for the week-end to visit relatives and attend the wedding of a niece.

Miss Helen Sreman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sherman, Jr., to Dale S. Deshon of Monument, on Sunday afternoon.

Sp. 4 Gary Dick and his brother, Dennis Dick, traveled from Portland to spend the week-end with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Pieper. Gary was home on two-weeks leave from his service training in Maryland.

RODEO PARADE

WIN Two Tickets To Two Performances of the Rodeo

Heppner-Morrow County Chamber of Commerce needs your help in choosing a theme for the 1970 Rodeo Parade which it sponsors. Requests have been made that the theme be chosen early in order to allow more time to plan entries.

If your idea is judged best, you will win the prize—two tickets to the Saturday and Sunday afternoon performances of the rodeo in August, 1970. Anyone may enter this contest—just fill in the blank below and bring or send it to the Gazette-Times, Heppner, Friday, September 26.

Make your theme idea general enough so that it can apply to a wide variety of floats and entries.

If the tracts are not sold on that day, the sale will be adjourned and the tracts reoffered for sale on each succeeding Tuesday at 10:30 a.m., in the Land Office, until sold, but if not sold by May 5, 1970, the sale will be closed on that date.

No bid will be accepted for less than the appraised value, to which bid there must be added $5.00 for each parcel to cover the estimated cost of publication; if the bidder is the petitioner for sale, he will be required to pay such cost less any amount previously deposited toward publication costs.

All the lands will be sold subject to a reservation to the United States of rights-of-way for ditches or canals under the act of August 30, 1890 (26 Stat. 391; 43 U.S.C. sec. 945), and oil and gas will be reserved to the United States, pursuant to the act of July 17, 1914 (30 U.S.C. 121-123).

Tract No. 9 will also be sold subject to right-of-way, Oregon 05533, for an electric transmission line granted to Columbia Basin Electric Cooperative, Inc., pursuant to the act of March 4, 1911 (36 Stat. 1253; 43 U.S.C. 961), and to right-of-way, Oregon 010556, granted to the Pacific Gas Transmission Company for gas pipeline purposes pursuant to the act of February 25, 1920 (41 Stat. 449; 30 U.S.C. 185).

The purchaser of Tract No. 23 will be required to make provisions to compensate the grazing lessee for a fence which was authorized by the Bureau of Land Management permit No. 379.

Bids may be made by the principal or his agent, either personally at the sale or by mail. Bids for a parcel must be for all the land in the parcel. Bids sent by mail will be considered only if received at the Land Office prior to the time of sale on each date the auction is held. Late filed sealed bids will be held for consideration at the next weekly auction. Bids sent by mail must be in sealed envelopes accompanied by certified checks, post office money orders, bank drafts, or cashiers' checks made payable to the Bureau of Land Management for the amount of the bid; plus the estimated publication cost shown above. The envelopes must be marked in the lower left-hand corner "Public Sale Bid, OR 4110, Tract No. _____". The highest bidder at the sale will be required to pay immediately the amount thereof together with the cost of publication.

Any adverse claimants of the above-described land should file their claims, or objections with the undersigned on or before the time designated for sale. The owners of contiguous lands who wish to claim a preference right will have a period of 30 days, commencing on the day after the close of bidding and the announcement of the amount of the highest bid, in which to offer to purchase the lands and to submit an amount equal to the highest bid price, or at three times the appraised value, if three times such appraised value is less than the highest bid, in accordance with 43 CFR 2243.1-4. However, contiguous owners will not be able to assert their preference rights to any parcel for which bids are not received. For reimbursement to owners of authorized improvements on the land and other requirements, see 43 CFR 2243. The land described in this notice shall be segregated from all forms of appropriation, including locations under the mining laws, from the date of first publication of this notice.
