

United Church of Christ Ends Sidewalk Project

By LORRAINE BALL

IONE—The United Church of Christ has new sidewalks bordering the church, thanks to the hard work of a number of our church members and Rev. Mike Luedde. The men worked several days in completing the project.

Mrs. Henry Krebs' Sunday School class will have a barbecue at her home on Saturday evening between 4:00 and 9:00 p.m.

David Marick was not injured when his car was forced into the bank by another vehicle, near the Clell Rea ranch on Sunday evening. Some damage to the car was received.

Mrs. Vida Heliker spent several days in Seattle last week for a check-up with her doctor. She was a house guest at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Harriet Bowman.

Mrs. Victor Rietmann and Mrs. Walter Roberts were in Portland for medical care a few days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Rod Murray and family visited over the week-end with his brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Murray in La Grande.

Mark Murray left for his senior year at the University of Oregon this past week.

Mrs. Alta Lofton and Mrs. Bill Jaeger of Condon were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Lancaster of Cecil last Thursday evening prior to the bridal shower in honor of Mrs. Lancaster. Mrs. Lofton and Mrs. Jaeger were overnight house guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Marick following the shower.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Lancaster and Laura Marick motored to Portland on Sunday to attend the circus.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Akers and son, Jeff, of Portland were week-end guests at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Berl Akers.

Willows Grange held its first winter's meeting on September 20 preceded by a potluck hamburger buffet. A large number of grange members and several guests were in attendance. During the grange meeting it was announced that the next regular meeting will be October 18 commencing with a pancake supper, prepared by the men of the grange with Carl Troedson as chairman. It was also announced the WAC meeting would be an all day meeting on October 17 at the home of Mrs. Berl Akers with Mrs. Cleo Childers as co-hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. David Rietmann visited with Mr. and Mrs. Bill Mellina in Ontario on Saturday. Relatives have received word that Alvin McCabe of Colfax, Wn., has recently been promoted to Manager of the Marina. McCabe was formerly in the parts department of the Arrow Machinery of the same city. The Marina is a branch of the Arrow Machinery and will specialize in all types of marine supplies.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Rice and Kimmy left Monday for their new home in Reno, Nev., where Rice began his new position on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Crabtree were hosts for a dinner party in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Rice and Kimmy and Mrs. Bonnie Rice on Thursday evening at their home.

Mrs. Edris Lindstrom and Lora Wilson of Portland and Mrs. Marjorie Baker of Hermiston were dinner guests on Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Crabtree.

Mrs. Marjorie Baker will soon be leaving for her winter home in Arizona. After a brief interval she will leave Arizona for an extended tour of various points in the South Pacific with the People-to-People Tour. On her return to the states she will visit in California with her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Duane Baker, before returning for the winter to Arizona.

Lloyd Johnson and daughter, Willa, were home for the week-end.

Both Ione Grade and High schools suffered defeats at the hands of their opponents this past week. On Thursday the Junior High team motored to Stanfield where they were outscored 64-0. Friday afternoon the Ione Cardinals came up against the Arlington Honkers and the end of the game saw the score lopsided 54-6. It also might interest a few of our readers to know that two of our local boys, Mark Halverson and Eddie Sherman, are playing on the EOC football team this season. Mark is a returning letterman and this is Eddie's first year. They journeyed to Forest Grove for a Saturday night encounter with Pacific University. Final score PU 34-EOC 0.

Mrs. Lewis Halverson, mother advisor of the Ione Rainbow Assembly, took several of the girls to Condon on Sunday to attend the reception for Kathy Wade of Condon, who was chosen Grand Worthy Advisor of Oregon at the June convention of the Rainbow Girls. Melanie Ball, Teena Stefani, Cheryl Hams, Cassy Chapel, Cristina Lindstrom, Tanya Tucker and Charlene Hamlett, were among the local chapter in attendance. Trudy Thomas of Hermiston, also a member of our assembly and her father, Boyd Thomas, also attended.

Several of the graduating seniors have left or will be leaving this week for rush and freshman week on the various campuses. Teresa Stefani has left for the University of Oregon. Earl James Pettyjohn for Oregon State; Bonnie Palmateer and Janet Palmateer, for EOC. Janet will be in her second year. During this week the following enrolled at Blue Mountain: David Marick, Frank Halverson, Bob Ball, Charlene Hamlett, Bonnie Morgan and Jodie Snow.

Ione Topic Club met last Tuesday with Mrs. Victor Rietmann and Mrs. Verner Troedson, hostesses. Twenty-one guests and members were present to enjoy interesting and informative program given by Arne Jonsson, International Farm Youth Exchange student from Omstad, Sweden.

Mr. Jonsson is well informed regarding his country and answered many questions about social and economic conditions in Sweden.

He was a luncheon guest of Mr. and Mrs. Troedson prior to the meeting.

Legislature Creates New Fair Commission

Appointees to the County Fair Commission created by the 1969 legislature were announced September 20 at the board meeting in Portland of the Oregon Fairs Association.

The announcement was made for Director of Agriculture Walter Leth by Assistant Director of Agriculture Ben Allen. The law provides that the appointments be made by the director of agriculture and that he or a member of his staff serve as a non-voting member of the commission.

Function of the new commission is the establishment of a merit rating system to govern distribution of funds from the County Fair account. The account is comprised of one-tenth of the money in the Oregon Racing Commission Account.

The appointees, three of which must be from the eastern section of the state, three from the western part of the state, one a member-at-large, are: Allan Moore, Hood River; John Mulligan, Pendleton; Bryant Williams, Klamath Falls; David W. Gillespie, Grants Pass; Mrs. William Gouldin, North Bend; James D. Myers, Roseburg, and Paul Northrop, Portland.

Terms for Moore and Gillespie expire December 31, 1970; those of Mulligan and Myers, December 31, 1971, and terms of Williams, Mrs. Gouldin and Northrop, December 31, 1972.

Mrs. Oma Cox has returned to Heppner to make her home, after residing for some time in Walla Walla, Wn. She moved her mobile home here September 9 to South Court by the home of Mrs. Mary Bryant.

'Geology and Art' On View at OMSI

An interesting display called "Geology and Art" is now on view in the Hall of the Northwest at OMSI. Loaned for display by Portland State University, the paintings and sculptures are the product of PSU art students who have taken courses in earth sciences at the university.

Media used by the art students in depicting their impressions of the various scientific subjects ranges from water color or through tempera, acrylics, cloth, and bronze. Under such titles as "Lower Paleozoic Underseaescape," "Porphyritic Granite," and "Trilobites and Concretions" the student artists have produced many extremely interesting and valuable works of art. The entire collection is valued at some $3,500. "Geology and Art" is on view at OMSI now through December.
