

Bid Received For City Park Work

By MARY LEE MARLOW
(Held over from last week)

BOARDMAN — Harris and Ascher, a landscaping firm at Pendleton, submitted the only bid to finish one-half acre of the city park in the east end of the park by the 4-H building. The bid was opened at the meeting of the city council last week. It is subject to approval by the Corps of Engineers.

The Urban Renewal Agency approved the sale of lots 1-5 in block 4 of West Boardman to William E. Nelson of Madras. Construction has already started on the five houses.

Members of the Ladies Aid Society of Boardman Community church went to the home of Mrs. Emory Lyons at Meacham last week for their meeting. Mrs. Lyons is a former resident here and member of the society. Guests from Pendleton were Mrs. Charles Anderson and Mrs. Nate Macomber, also former members.

Mrs. Hazel Miller was in charge of the devotional hour and read "The Clock Without Hands." Mrs. Lyons read a passage from the Bible.

October 26 was set as the next time for a potluck family dinner at the church following morning services.

A rummage sale was discussed, the proceeds of which will go for some benefit, to be decided later.

The next meeting will be an all day workshop at the church October 1, starting at 10 a.m., with a sack lunch at noon. Mrs. Glen Carpenter will serve dessert.

Ladies attending from Boardman included Mrs. Roy Ball, Mrs. Carpenter, Mrs. Rollin Bishop, Mrs. Harold Rash, Mrs. Seth Russell, Mrs. Arthur Allen, Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Ralph Earwood, Mrs. Vera Pettit and Mrs. Chub Warren.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor P. Finck are the parents of a son, Jody E., born September 3 at the Good Shepherd hospital in Hermiston. The baby weighed 6 lb., 12 oz. Grandparents are Mrs. Pearl Hoag of Hermiston, Richard Einspahr of Hastings, Nebr., and Mr. and Mrs. Solomon Finck of Portland. Great-grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Claud Cain of Otis, Colo., and Mrs. Ted Einspahr of Imperial, Nebr.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Pace of La Grande were week-end visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Bedford.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Blakeley and children Karen and Mike of Pasco, Wash. were Sunday visitors at the home of Blakeley's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Ball.

Mr. and Mrs. Rollo Moore and daughter, Toni, were in Portland over the week-end visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Rowe.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Seehafer, Mrs. Glen Carpenter, Mrs. Hazel Miller and Mrs. Frank Marlow went to Ione Sunday afternoon to attend the Booster program and dinner at the Willows Grange hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Daltoso and children Joe, Danette, Helen and Danny went to Portland over the week-end to visit at the home of Daltoso's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Birmingham. Saturday the men were joined by Jerry Meyer and Mel Rayner of Boardman and they all went deep sea fishing on the coast.

Death Takes Relative Of Nellie Anderson

Mrs. Nellie Anderson was informed last week of the death of her brother-in-law, Arthur Jennings Cox, at the Veteran's Hospital in Santa Barbara, Calif., on Friday, September 19. He had been in ill health for some time and was a retired U. S. service man.

A posthumous certificate has been received by his widow, Mrs. Anderson's sister, from President Richard Nixon, in honor of his years of devoted service to his country.

The couple had visited Mrs. Anderson and others in this area frequently.

HUNTERS--

Sportsmen don't do this

So... why do this?

We Hope You Have A Good Opening Weekend

And We Ask Your Full Cooperation On

FIRE PREVENTION

One untended campfire can burn a forest. One carelessly dropped cigarette or match can send flames across thousands of acres, ruining fishing and hunting for hundreds of sportsmen. If you like to hunt, use common sense. Be careful with fire in the woods. Keep Your State Green!

WILL YOU PLEASE HELP US IN THESE WAYS:

1. Be sure your camp fire is out when you leave it unattended.
2. Build your fires in a safe place—where it cannot spread.
3. If you come across any unattended warming fires, please extinguish them.
4. Report immediately any fires that may break out in the woods.

Hunting Is A Privilege and Your Assistance in Keeping The Woods Safe from Fire Will Be Appreciated.
