

Family is Witness To Recent Marriage Of Julie Rietmann

At a family service on August 9, Miss Julie Rietmann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Rietmann of Ione, was united in marriage to Paul Frink, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Frink of El Monte, Calif.

Vows were exchanged at St. Mark's Presbyterian church in Corona del Mar, Calif., with Dr. Cecil Hoffman of the University of California at Irvine reading the ceremony.

Attending the ceremony were the groom's five sons, Ted, Tim, Terry, Tal and Toby Frink. Also witnessing the rites were Mrs. William Callis and Mrs. Curtiss Turill.

Their honeymoon trip took them to San Diego, Calif., and, accompanied by the boys, visited the bride's parents in Ione. The couple and their sons are now at home at 249 Brentwood, Costa Mesa, Calif. 92627.

Farrens Announce Daughter's Betrothal

Mr. and Mrs. Roland N. Farrens of Milwaukie have announced the engagement of their daughter, Kathryn Arlene, to Theodore Hugh Thomas of Eagle Point.

Miss Farrens was a 1967 graduate of Rex Putnam High school and attends Oregon College of Education at Monmouth, where she is a junior in elementary education.

Thomas is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo L. Thomas, and a 1966 graduate of Eagle Point High school. He attended Central Oregon Community college in Bend for two years and is now a senior in physical education at Oregon College of Education.

A June wedding is being planned.

The bride-elect's parents were former Heppner residents when Mr. Farrens was employed by the U. S. Forest Service. As the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Farrens, he spent his early childhood here.

Big Booster Program Starts Grange Year At Rhea Creek Hall

Booster Day program held Sunday, September 28, at the Rhea Creek Grange hall was enjoyed by a large crowd of Grangers and friends.

After Robert Stevens, Grange master, extended a welcome to everyone attending, invocation was offered by Mrs. Oran Wright, chaplain, followed by the singing of the National Anthem, with Mrs. Walter Wright at the piano.

Distinguished guests were introduced by Master Stevens, including State Officer Berle Akers and Mrs. Akers, Pomona WAC chairman; also Mrs. Arthur Dalzell, Pomona secretary, and the Rev. and Mrs. Edward Cutting.

Mrs. Robert Stevens, secretary, introduced the following Rhea Creek Grange officers: Robert Stevens, master; Ronald Haguet, wood, overseer; Archie Bechdolt, steward; Harold Wright, gatekeeper; Elmer Palmer, treasurer; Mrs. Pearl Wright, chaplain; Rudy Bergstrom, assistant steward; Mrs. Evelyn Farrens, Pomona; Mrs. Mary Wright, Ceres; Mrs. Stevens, secretary; Mrs. Elmer Palmer, lecturer; Mrs. Ron Haguet, lady assistant steward; Mrs. Walter Wright, musician, and Miss Marilyn Bergstrom, flora.

Following the piano selection, Scherzo by Franz Schubert, played by Craig Cutting, a "History of the Grange, its Aims and Purposes" was presented by Mrs. John Graves.

The number, "Michael Row your Boat Ashore" was sung by Kristi, Kelwayne, Kevin and Kimmie Lou Haguet, and a piano trio was played by Kristi, Kelwayne and Kimmie Lou.

A memorized poem, "A Boy" was presented by Johnnie Stevens; Archie Bechdolt gave a humorous selection and some well-chosen statistics. Robert Stevens followed with three selections on the violin. The lone Grand Square Dancing group performed two numbers, and the program closed with the singing of "Blest Be the Tie that Binds".

Next regular meeting of the Rhea Creek Grange will be Friday, October 10, starting with a potluck dinner at 6:30 p.m.

Mrs. Harold Wright will be hostess to Women's Activity club of the grange at her home on Thursday, October 16.

Holly Lodge Plans For State Officer

Holly Rebekah lodge will entertain the State Rebekah Assembly President Joan Blatter at the next regular meeting, Thursday, October 16, at 8:00 p.m. Joining them for the meeting will be members of Bunchgrass Rebekah Lodge of Ione.

Also planned by the Holly lodge is the annual turkey dinner, on November 1, at the Lexington hall. Serving will be from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. and served family style. Following the dinner will be the second in the monthly series of card parties.

Miss Bernice Thomson is enjoying a two week's vacation from her work in Fortnad visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Thomson.

Invitation Extended To Jones' Reception

Family members and close friends of Mr. and Mrs. Marcel Jones are planning an at-home reception which will honor the couple on their 25th wedding anniversary, to be held Sunday, October 12.

Friends and relatives are cordially invited to call at the Jones home between the hours of 2 and 5 p.m. to extend personal congratulations. It is requested there be no gifts. Hosts will be their daughter, Judy, and their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. Jones were married in Paris, Ark., on October 7, 1944, and have lived all their married years in the Heppner community.

Couple Reside Here Following Marriage

The United Methodist church in Lakeview was the scene chosen by Miss Judy Minerva Taylor for her marriage to Allen Frank Osmin on Sunday, August 24.

Officiating at the 2:00 p.m. double-ring ceremony was the Rev. Dwayne W. Mozena. An all-white background was carried out in wedding baskets of white gladioli and white chrysanthemums flanked by tapers in candleabra.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Taylor of Lakeview, and the groom is the son of Alton Osmin and the late Virginia Osmin of Heppner.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore a full-length white brocade gown with Empire waistline and oval neckline, with long sleeves extending to a point at the wrist. Her detachable chapel train was fastened at the waistline, and a bouffant shoulder-length veil was held by a floral headpiece. She carried a white Bible, topped with a bridal bouquet of pink roses and long white streamers.

Miss Aleatha Patterson of Anchorage, Alaska, was the maid of honor. Bridesmaid attendants were Mrs. Donna Osmin of Heppner, sister-in-law of the groom, and Mrs. Dale Wonderly of Salem, sister of the groom.

Their identical sleeveless streetlength gowns of mint green cotton featured embroidered white daisies and Empire waistlines. The three attendants carried single dark pink roses.

Flower girl was Linda Williams of Lakeview, wearing a sleeveless two-tier dress of mint green with white embroidered daisies.

Attending as best man was Mitchell Ashbeck of Echo. Ushers were David Taylor, U. S. Navy, brother of the bride; Albert Osmin, Heppner, brother of the groom, and Don Wonderly, Salem, brother-in-law of the groom.

Chris Lindsey of Lakeview was the ring bearer, and candle lighters were Art Osmin of Heppner, brother of the groom, and Robbie Nutten of Salem, cousin of the groom.

Organ selections were played by Mrs. Mollie Sullivan, who also accompanied Mrs. Carolyn Grogan, who sang "Whither Thou Goest", "The Lord's Prayer" and "O Perfect Love."

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Taylor had selected a beige sheath with brown lace coat, brown net hat, white accessories, and corsage of dark pink roses.

Also attending was the groom's grandmother, Mrs. Besie Nutten of Redmond.

The newlyweds greeted their guests at a reception in the church parlors following the ceremony.

Wedding cake was cut by Mrs. Clair Smith, assisted by Mrs. Don Lindsey and Mrs. Axel Felt. Serving coffee was Mrs. Calvert Jones, aunt of the bride; serving punch was Mrs. Marshall Jones, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Axel Koofoed. In charge of the guest book was Sherron Reed and at the gift table were Sonja Norton and Gail Bourie.

For their wedding trip to Crater Lake and Salem, the new Mrs. Osmin wore a three-piece navy blue and white suit and the pink rose corsage from her bridal bouquet.

The young couple is now at home at their ranch home near Heppner. Mrs. Osmin is continuing her employment at the First National Bank of Oregon in Heppner.

Wedding guests who attended from this area were Mr. and Mrs. Albert Osmin, Alton Os-min, Art Osmin, and Tom Green, all of Heppner, and Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell Ashbeck of Echo.
