

Roberts English Is Program Topic

By LORRAINE BALL

IONE — The Ione PTA will meet on Thursday, October 9 at 8:00 p.m. at the Ione School cafeteria.

A discussion is planned on Roberts' New English Series, which has been adopted by all county schools. It will begin in the lower levels and plans are to be adapted along the lines of presentation, such as the new math methods were given.

Fifth and sixth grade mothers will serve refreshments following the meeting. It has been noted that anyone who is interested in membership in the PTA should contact Mrs. Herb Peterson (422-7284) and that membership dues are only $1.00 per person.

Mrs. Carmen French, president of the Ione Garden club, accompanied by Mrs. Helen Martin, Mrs. Norma Rea, Mrs. Jo Huston, Mrs. Delta Huber and Mrs. Lou Crum, attended the Blue Mt. District No. 10 meeting of the Garden Clubs in Pendleton.

The district holds two annual meetings each year, one in the spring and one in the fall. This fall meeting was held at the Tapadera.

Because of the untimely passing of Dist. 10 director, Mrs. Elaine Rietmann, Mrs. Elaine Dallas of Pendleton, assistant director, presided at the meeting and will finish the term as director. Mrs. Dallas is from the Dirt Dabbers Club in Pendleton.

Mr. and Mrs. Lindsay Kincaid left Friday for Caldwell, Idaho, to attend the wedding of Mrs. Kincaid's cousin, Pat Wright, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wright. On their return trip on Sunday, they visited in Baker at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carol Miller. Mr. Miller was the band instructor in Ione several years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Turner and sons, Monte and Mike Rowell, of Eugene were week-end guests at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cleo Drake. Three friends of Mike's, Bennie Dean and Dick and Bill Fuller, also of Eugene, accompanied the Turners to Ione for a week-end of deer hunting. Bennie was the only successful hunter in the group.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom White of Heppner spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Tucker. The men and Tanya went deer hunting.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Nelson and daughter, Kristin, and Debbie Warren attended the OSU-ISC football game this week-end. The Nelsons also attended the 30th class reunion at Oregon State at the Benton Hotel of Mrs. Nelson's class of 1939. They attended both the noon luncheon and the dinner in the evening. Lawrence Doherty of Echo was a member of this class and was also present. The family left on Friday and spent the evening with Mr. Nelson's mother, Bertha Nelson, at the Torwilliger Plaza in Portland. They attended the first exhibition hockey game of the season at the coliseum. The first game was between the San Diego Gulls and the Salt Lake Golden Eagles. The second game saw the Portland Buckaroos against the Seattle Totems. The family also visited with their son, Chuck, while at Oregon State.

The combination Legion and Auxiliary potluck dinner held last Tuesday was well attended, with over fifty members and guests in attendance. The guests of the evening included the girls and boys who represented this district at Boys State at Corvallis and Girls State at Salem last summer. Kristin Nelson and Christine Peterson presented the highlights from their session. Joey McElligott also spoke of his experiences. A letter from the other delegate, Scott Wilson, was read. Due to his broken leg, Scott was unable to attend.

Bernice Matthews and Pat Thornton spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Matthews. Bonnie Akers accompanied them home from Monmouth to spend the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Berl Akers.

WAC will meet at the home of Mrs. Berl Akers on Friday, October 17. It will be an all day meeting with members asked to bring salads or desserts.

Leslie Madden and Ron Saint Marie of Portland spent the week-end at the home of Leslie's mother, Mrs. Elby Akers. They went deer hunting with Ron being the only successful hunter.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Beggs of Boise spent Thursday through Sunday at the home of their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Beggs.

Mr. and Mrs. Darrel Wilson and family have moved into the Marjorie Baker ranch home.

Friends in the area were notified that Alvy Barlow suffered a stroke on Sunday evening and is in Pioneer Memorial hospital. He was found Monday morning by relatives.

The Ione Library Board met Monday and announces that Mrs. Bill (Marilyn) Rietmann is the new librarian. It is also noted that new library hours have been announced. School children, grades one through six, will visit the library each Wednesday between 1:30-2:30. Regular hours for others wishing to use the library facilities are: Monday and Wednesday from 2:30 to 4:30 p.m. Formerly the library was opened on Thursday but will not be in the future.

Following worship services on September 14, a congregational meeting was held to discuss the purchasing of a Baldwin organ that the church had on loan for a few weeks. Following reports from Mrs. Fred Martin and Darrell James concerning the pros and cons of purchase, the congregation approved the purchase of said organ. It was noted that over half of the cost (less trade-in) was available. Anyone who would like to donate to this fund as gifts or memorials may do so by contacting Mrs. Roy W. Lindstrom.

LOTS OF STRENUOUS and time-consuming work is done between coach and players on the practice field between football games. Ione Coach Gordon Meyers (left) is finding a lot of eager enthusiasm among his boys, and is having a good building year. Getting a briefing on fundamentals are Herb Ekstrom (24), Doug Beggs (36), and Dick Snyder (26), all seeing plenty of action this year. They will meet Helix in a Homecoming game in Ione this Friday afternoon. (G-T Photo)

Approval of the United Church of Christ budget is needed and following worship service on Sunday, October 12, there will be an important meeting of the congregation. Everyone is urged to attend. Pastor Luedde will begin classes in late winter which will lead to Confirmation if desired. Anyone who is interested in enrolling should contact Rev. Luedde as early as possible.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Rietmann, who will again be in charge of the annual church auction and barbecue, are already planning for the 1970 event. Anyone with suggestions, or anyone who wishes to be on a particular committee should contact them. During the winter months, items could be made for this very worthwhile event.

Last Thursday the first fall meeting of the Women's Fellowship met at the parsonage with Anna Lee James and Allison Luedde as hostess. Mrs. Darrell Wilson, president, presided over the meeting. Mrs. Kenneth Smouse was elected worship chairman replacing Mrs. Blaine Chapel who had resigned. Plans were made to serve dinner for the youth-adult workshop in the near future. Mrs. Fred Martin led the group in worship, assisted by Rev. Luedde. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Bill Rietmann on October 23.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Meyers and family recently spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Meyers at Imnaha.

Mr. and Mrs. Arland Emert of Sebastopol, Calif., surprised his sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Pettyjohn, on Sunday with a short visit on their way home following a visit at Raymond, Wn., with Mrs. Emert's parents.

Princesses for the Homecoming Dance to be held at the Ione Cafeteria have been chosen by the classes. Senior class princesses are Linda Pettyjohn and Lynn Justus; junior class, Jane Krebs; sophomore class, Jackie Howton; freshman class, Nancy Ashurst. The Letterman's Club will vote on the queen and her name will be announced at half-time of the Ione-Helix football game on Friday, October 10, played at Ione. Crowning ceremony will be Saturday evening at the homecoming dance.

The Ione High school girls are playing volleyball under the coaching of Mrs. Dennis McKay. Girls from grades 9 through 12 have four teams. Two games have been played thus far, both with Riverside, one here and one at Riverside. The girls have come out on the short end of the scoring but will improve with practice.

The Ione student body elected editors for the school newspaper and the Ione annual last Thursday. Kristin Nelson was elected to the Ione Cardinal and Karen Edwards to the annual editorial position.
