Visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Dean Wimer and family over the week-end were Jim Wimer of Aurora, Mr. and Mrs. Myrton Horton and family of Canby, and Adolph Heckel of Redland, Ore.

Week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wilsey were their daughter Mrs. Juliann Bjur and her son Walt of Portland. They all went to Dale to go hunting and were joined there by Mr. and Mrs. Albert Portner.

Mrs. Jack Wilsey went to Pendleton Tuesday to stay until Thursday and to serve with Mrs. Army Korvola at the Women's Activity club of the White Eagle Grange.

Service Academies Applications Due

Senator Bob Packwood announced October 31 as the deadline for applications from those interested in competing for nomination to one of the U. S. Service Academies.

Those interested in attending the U. S. Air Force Academy at Colorado, the U. S. Army Academy at West Point, the U. S. Naval Academy at Annapolis, and the U. S. Merchant Marine Academy at Kings Point, N. Y., should apply as soon as possible before the October 31 closing date. Applicants should include a copy of their high school transcript, date of birth, and other pertinent information.

Applications should be mailed to the Washington office: 6327 New Senate Office Bldg., Washington, D. C. 20510.

4-H Club Organized

First meeting of the new year for Ione Gooseberry 4-H Livestock club was held at the home of our leader, Louis Carlson. There was discussion on projects for the year. New officers are Peter McElligott, president; Rick Peterson, vice-president; Joel Peterson, secretary; and Dawn Peterson, news reporter. Junior leaders are Sandi Carlson, Mary McElligott, Peter McElligott and John Sumner.

A carcass evaluation was led by Louis Carlson, assisted by Bob Peterson, which enabled members to have an idea of what butchered steers should look like.
