

Cardinals Edge Echo Cougars For League Win

The Echo Cougar's Homecoming on Friday, October 17, did not prove to be a happy one, as the Ione Cardinals narrowly won by a margin of 34-32.

The win kept Ione fighting with a 2-1 standing, and dropped Echo behind 1-2 in Dist. 3 B-8 play.

The Cardinals bolted to a 14-6 edge in the first quarter, but the lead changed hands several times throughout the game.

Herb Ekstrom made the first two TDs for the Cards on 5 and 23 yard runs, and Terry Cannon ran the extra PAT. Doug Beggs charged across the line on 8, 23, and 58 yard runs, and after Beggs' last touchdown, Dick Snider threw to David Warren for the deciding PAT.

Scoring for the Cougars was Ron Stockard, who also threw two passes to Jerry Roberts, and Bruce Waterburger ran across to score six more.

A pass from Stockard to Mark Madison tied up the score in the fourth period, but the conversion failed and Ione stayed ahead by two.

The Cards ran the remaining few minutes out and won the game which will probably prove to be their most exciting one of the season.

Yardage gained showed a slight edge for Ione with their 318 yards to the Cougar's 310.

Ione will next test the Heppner Jayvees on Thursday, October 23, on the Heppner field, starting at 7:30 p.m.

GAA Schedules Coming Events

Heppner High School Girls Athletic Association began this season's competition in a volleyball game with Ione on Thursday, October 15. Additional tilts with Ione, Pilot Rock, Stanfield, Echo, Spray, and Riverside will be held through coming weeks.

Besides the regular extra-curricular sport events the GAA sponsors the PE spring program and holds a GAA Fun Night the third Thursday of every month, from 7 to 9 p.m.

Officers for this year are Diana Cutsforth, president; Valerie Boyer, vice-president; Sarah Witherrite, secretary; Jill Rugg, treasurer; Terry Pettijohn, sports manager; Mrs. Dorothy Agee, coach and advisor.

Volleyball games have been planned for the following dates: October 23—Ione, there; October 28—Stanfield, here; October 29—Pilot Rock, here; November 6—Pilot Rock, there; November 13—Stanfield, there.

There will be competition also with Spray, Echo and Riverside, but they have not yet been scheduled.

Students Added To College List

Several young people of the area are enrolled in advanced education who were not listed in the earlier report.

Linda Palmer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ron Palmer, is enrolled as a sophomore at Oregon State University.

Mrs. John (Jackie) Wagenblast is in her senior year at Oregon State University, and doing her student teaching this term at South Salem High school.

John Wagenblast is enrolled in graduate work in the law school at Willamette University, and he and his wife, Jackie reside in Salem.

Norita Marquardt is a freshman at Multnomah School of the Bible in Portland, where she is majoring in music.

Doing graduate work at the University of Alaska in Fairbanks is Marti Dixon, former resident here, and she is also working in one of the banks there.

Students now enrolled at Blue Mountain Community college include Danny Leathers and Dean Kindle. Bill Baker plans to enter for the winter term.

Bill Sherman has returned for his second year of graduate work at Gordon Divinity school at Wenham, Mass.

Vanessa Cutting, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Edwin Cutting, is a freshman at George Fox College at Newberg. Her sister, Rebecca Ashton, is a senior at the University of Oregon Medical School of Nursing in Portland.

MARK HALVORSEN
EOC Co-Captain

Halvorsen Stars In EOC Victory

Mark Halvorsen, 1969 Eastern Oregon College football co-captain from Ione, turned in one of his best games in a Mountie football uniform against the highly thought of Southern Oregon College Red Raiders Saturday, October 4, in the Mountaineer's upset victory.

Halvorsen, starting wingback for coach Lee Insko's squad for the last two years and a three year letterman, caught a pass for six yards, setting up one of the three Mountie touchdowns in their 20-7 victory over SOC. Insko stated that the Mountie player's real value to the team was as a blocker.

"Mark is one of the best blockers we have," the coach commented.

Insko also had praise for Eddie Sherman, a freshman also from Ione, saying that as he gains experience he should also have a bright future in the Mountaineer football program.

Sherman, who is running in the number two position at halfback, has the size at 185 pounds and the speed, state "B" championship in the 100 and 220 yard dashes, to become one of the top Mountie players in coming years.

Ione Meets Heppner In 8-Man Contest

Heppner High Jayvees will have another game of eight-man football tonight (Thursday) when they meet the Ione Cardinals under the lights on the Heppner field at 7:30 p.m.

They have also played the Riverside Pirates in the eight-man game, defeating them October 13, 16 to 14.

During half-time trophies will be awarded the winners of this year's Punt, Pass and Kick contest for boys 8 to 13. Parents of these boys will be special guests at the game.

Mustangs Edge Prospectors in Friday Contest 12-7

By DALLAS HARSIN

Though two touchdown underdogs, the Heppner Mustangs pulled out a 12-7 win over the Grant Union Prospectors. The non-league clash was played on the John Day field October 17.

John McCabe returned the opening kickoff 95 yards for one of the Mustangs' two touchdowns. Dean Wright scored the second TD on an end sweep, in the fourth quarter.

Inside the Mustangs' 5-yard line three times, the Prospectors were able to get across only once. Gary Lenz scored six points, and Dan Lissman kicked the PAT.

Mustang Coach Ed Hiemstra said, "the reason that Grant Union only scored once was because Thunnell was forced to eat the ball 15 times."

Heppner had a TD called back after intercepting a Prospector pass, because of a pass interference penalty.

Gary Watkins made two interceptions, one fairly early in the game. The second came with about 1:30 left in the game.

Then all the Mustangs had to do was eat up the clock.

Chosen outstanding player was Matt Murray. Best defensive backs were Dean Wright and John Hall. Best offensive line man was Murray.

John McCabe and Bruce Marquardt were best defensive backs, and the best defensive linemen were Murray and Lee Huson.

Head Coach Hiemstra said, "anybody who played in the Grant Union game did a great job."

A Grant Union fan drew a 15-yard penalty for being on the field. Hiemstra said he had not asked the official to move the crowd back. The official did so on his own.

The rulebook states that the five yards immediately adjoining the field is part of the playing area and is to be kept free of anyone not participating as a player or a coach. A Grant Union fan, when asked to move back, swore at the official, thus draw the penalty. This occurred in the third quarter. After the penalty the Prospectors had the ball for a series of downs.

Heppner drove for the winning score later in the fourth quarter.

Grant Union 0 7 0 0-7

Students to Help UNICEF Project

Heppner High school students will try a new thing this year during Homecoming week, Trick or Treat for UNICEF will be the project.

According to student body president Pat Kilkenny, "Trick or Treat for UNICEF is part of a new Citizenship plan which is aimed mainly toward the betterment of our society. We feel that such projects are valuable for our pursuit of this goal."

High school students will "trick or treat" a day early because of a conflicting football game which is scheduled for Halloween night.

The members of the student body will be divided according to classes and pursue the project after the annual Homecoming bonfire on Thursday, October 30.

Instructions and materials pertaining to the UNICEF project will be available soon.

Matched Teams Play In Volleyball Games

The Ione girls' volleyball teams tied 2-2 with the Heppner girls' volleyball teams at Heppner on October 15. Four volleyball games were played.

Ione's yellow and red teams lost to Heppner's G and A teams. Ione's white and blue teams were victorious over Heppner's B team.

Ione's high scorers for the games were: White team—Karen Edwards, 9 points; Linda Pettyjohn, 5 points.

Red team—Joy Beggs, 7 points; Trudy Moore, 7 points. Blue team—Karen Crowell, 8 points; Marlene Magill, 7 points. Yellow team—Anita Crawford, 8 points; Carley Bergstrom, 7 points.
