DOT'S JOTS

For years Charlie has had a column "Chuck Wagon" . . . for all the odds and ends that don't seem to fit anywhere else. From time to time I made contributions to this column. One time I was in Portland for a PTA state board meeting. I came home and Charlie had given me a column which he called "Dot's Jots". So . . . sometimes it's good and sometimes it isn't!

One time I had gone to Vashon Island to be with my youngest brother's family, the Don Lakes during the arrival of a new baby. This time when I got back Charlie had bought a new TV and new car. I told the Vashon Lakes that we couldn't afford for them to have any more babies!

Anyway I guess this should teach me to stay at home.

The Farm-City banquet last Thursday was quite an enjoyable affair. Suppose I'll always be curious about Jerry Sweeney's two jokes. Jerry said he had practiced a couple of jokes on his friends just prior to the meeting and they advised him not to tell them . . . he'd muffed the punch line for sure . . . so he didn't!

Charlie learned long ago to say good things about his cook's efforts and nothing about the things she cooked that he didn't like. But of course Charlie's cooking consists only of making a neat peanut butter sandwich.

Referring to the low wheat prices, the Oregon Man of the Year said he'd planted the same kind of wheat a lot of others had, "Recreation"!

Pinning the corsage on Shirley Rugg at the dinner was gallantly done but typical . . . it fell off when Shirley got to her place to sit down! This time firmly pinned by one of her young daughters on the left shoulder it stayed on.

WHAT'S COOKIN'?

Each guest at the Farm-City dinner had a folder of beef recipes. The first recipe of the "Seven Wonders with Beef" that we tried we found very tasty.

Stuffed Meat Loaf
2 lb. ground beef
1/2 tsp. catsup
1 tsp. salt
1 onion, chopped
1 egg
1/2 tsp. ground pepper
3 cups bread cubes
1 medium chopped onion
3 large chopped celery stalks
1/2 tsp. poultry seasoning
1/2 tsp. salt
1/2 tsp. pepper
1/2 cup water
tbsp. melted butter

Mix first six ingredients and roll out flat on piece of wax paper to 1/2 to 3/4 inch thickness. Mix last seven ingredients and spread over beef mixture. Roll and bake for one hour at 325 to 350 degrees.

Machinist Mate Fireman
Thomas L. Troxell, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Troxell, of Spray is serving aboard the destroyer USS Alfred A. Cunningham in the western Pacific. The Long Beach based destroyer will be engaged in various gunfire support, plane guard and anti-submarine warfare type duties during the tour of duty.

Pastors Exchange Pulpits

On Sunday, November 9, Pastor Orville Jacobson of Nyssa and Pastor R. Mensch of the Heppner Lutheran Church will exchange pulpits. Pastor Jacobson will have for his topic, "The Re-Structuring of the Blue Mountain Conference."

Changes would make possible an annual safari for the youth to various institutions of the church and a winter retreat for college bound high school seniors who could discuss higher education, social and religious issues. The change would call for sponsoring a missionary who would spend part or full time in this area when on furlough. Provision would be made to give the congregation a better opportunity to express their views on social action that effects this area. Outdoor ministry would be programmed at various recreational spots in the area.
