

Irrigon Receives Live Fir Christmas Trees

By FRANCES ROSE WILSON
(Held Over From Last Week)

IRRIGON — Paul Hovinghoff donated a live fir Christmas tree to the city. Workmen planted it near the site where the Lion's Club have their annual Christmas Tree with treats for the children. They are making plans to do this again this year. Children in Irrigon eagerly await the arrival of Santa in the Lion's Club "Jalopy".

The Irrigon Lions Club have collected quite a few toys, and more are still coming in. These will be cleaned and repaired on a work day, for the School for the Blind.

The women's Lion Auxiliary had a most enjoyable day recently when they visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Witherell in Pendleton and viewed slides of the International Lions Convention, in Tokyo, Japan.

A sixth daughter was born to an Irrigon couple, Mr. and Mrs. Vern Evans on Nov. 29. Susan Ann weighed 7 lb., 10 oz. Maternal grandmother is Mrs. Rose Francis, Pendleton, paternal grandparents are Roberta Evans, Condon, and Vern Evans, Sr. Heppner.

Lee and Carrie Le Blanc will be giving away a "Christmas gift window" an assortment of prizes again this year, to some lucky person, from Lee's Texaco and Groceries.

Mr. and Mrs. LeBlanc were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Albright for a family dinner on Thanksgiving day. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hovinghoff were also dinner guests.

Lee LeBlanc had several long distance calls from members of his family on his birthday, Nov. 28. He says, "It's not too bad to be a year older if you are remembered by friends and family."

The Irrigon Assembly of God joined with the Umatilla Assembly for a baptismal service at the Hermiston Assembly of God Church. Pastor John Kenney baptized 5 young people and Pastor William Smith of Umatilla baptized 3 young people. Rev. William Smith was the speaker of the evening.

CA Convention
Ann Mesteth, Jody Noble, and Sheryl Partlow attended a C. A. Convention at Eugene on Thursday and Friday. They traveled with Assembly of God Young people from Umatilla and Hermiston. On Saturday Rev. William Smith, pastor at Umatilla took the young people to Newport, where they spent the day at the beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Smith spent Thanksgiving weekend in Portland, at the home of Mrs. Smith's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Vern Caldwell. Their son Mike met them there from the University of Oregon in Eugene, where he is a senior. Other members of the Caldwell family joined them for a family reunion.

Mr. and Mrs. William Glen Hoover spent Thanksgiving at the home of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Hoover, in Arlington. They were joined by their daughters' family, Mr. and Mrs. William C. Stiles and Pat Sullivan of Phoenix, Ariz., who attends Oregon State University.

The men folks in the party had a successful goose hunt. Mr. and Mrs. Hoover spent the first of the week in Portland.

New Management
The Complete Food Store opened under the management of Mr. and Mrs. Laverne Christiansen on Friday, after remodeling and painting the interior. The former managers, Mr. and Mrs. Don Estes have moved away.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Berg and Ronald were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Al Partlow, and Sheryl. On Sunday the two families were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Mills and family in Hermiston. The three women are sisters.

Dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hobbs on Thanksgiving day were Mr. and Mrs. Al Partlow, Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Hobbs and Jon Starke.

Recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Bentley were Captain and Mrs. Verner Rasmussen.

Mrs. Houghton visited at the home of her son Donald Houghton in Portlad for the Thanksgiving holiday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Ferger called at the Lee LeBlanc home as they were returning from Eugene, where they spent the weekend. They brought back a good supply of walnuts for them.

Recent visitors at the Harold Erwin home were Mr. and Mrs. Willard Cameron of Walla Walla and Wyoma Duckworth from Clarkston, Wn., and Chuck Erwin of Prescott, Wn.
