Heppler Lodges Hold Joint Installation

Heppler Lodge No. 69 AF & AM, held their 93rd installation of officers at the regular meeting on December 16, jointly with Heppler Chapter No. 26, Royal Arch Masons.

Hubert Wilson, out-going Master, installed his successor, Donald F. Gilliam, who installed the remaining officers, with the help of Paul Jones, installing marshal. New officers are Don Gilliam, Worshipful Master, Robert Abrams, senior warden, George Simonson, junior warden, Howard Bryant, treasurer, and Harold Becket secretary all elective officers. Appointive officers are Cecil Rill, senior deacon, Herman Winter, junior deacon, Claude Graham, senior steward, Millard Nolan, junior steward, Clarence Baker, chaplain, Paul Jones, marshal and Hubert Wilson, tiler.

The first installation of officers of AF & AM took place on Aug. 11, 1877. The charter was granted by the Grand Lodge on June 12 of that year. Charter members were Frank Maddock, J. L. Sperry and O. H. Hallock. Officers installed for the remainder of 1877 included Maddock, Sperry, Hallock, Henry Heppler, J. L. Morrow, Julius Keithley, A. S. Wells, and S. C. Donaldson. The officers were installed by J. H. Kunzie, junior past Grand Master, representing the Grand Master.

After the installation ceremonies were completed at that first installation, the lodge went on to confer two degrees. Members of those early days traveled by horse and buggy to attend lodge, and believed in getting as much work done as possible when they were there.

Meetings were held those days in the upstairs of a building on the southwest corner of Main and May streets, where the Chevrolet garage is now.

Bluebird Buttons had a winter picnic last Sunday when they went up Shaw Creek to gather Christmas greenery. The girls went to bring Christmas decoration materials for the Mothers Club which sponsors them. Girls making the trip were Joycelyn Thorpe, Julie Grieb, Linda Keithley, Marie Yocom. Their leader is Mrs. Elwayne Bergstrom. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Bergstrom and 5-year-old Cindy and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Yocom.

Mrs. Ida Farra is pictured on the cover of the October issue of the N. W. Ruralite. She is shown with part of her collection of lanterns and the inside feature story is well illustrated showing her with her many valuable antiques. We believe some of her articles are probably among some of the rarest and most valuable in the Northwest.
