

Stocking Hanging Starts with Santa

Santa Claus, envisioned today as a jolly, cheerful man with an affinity for children, was a romanticist, too, according to legend.

The first Santa Claus, St. Nicholas, started the custom of hanging stockings by the chimney when his romantic heart was touched, and he gifted a bankrupt merchant's three marriageable daughters with gold for their dowries.

Desiring anonymity, he tossed the three bags of gold thru the window, or, as some tell it, down the chimney. One of the bags landed in a stocking which had been hung up to dry on the mantelpiece.

Hanging up stockings thus became part of the holiday ritual.

Mr. and Mrs. Doug Munhol and Billy of Klamath River, Calif., arrived Monday evening to spend a week with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Kircher, Tracy and Teddy. They were accompanied by another daughter, Mrs. Betty Robinson, Chuck and Jean, also of Klamath River.

Mrs. Allison Featured In Chamber Bulletin

Featured recently in the Greater Portland Commerce, a bulletin of the Portland Chamber of Commerce, was Anabel T. Allison, owner of the Postal Instant Press. She was pictured with a group of Portland business leaders and was demonstrating a new duplicating machine, a part of her business firm. She is the daughter of Frank Turner and is a native of Morrow County.
