

Molly to Visit Units in January

During January and February, Molly Saul, Area Extension Agent will visit all units in Morrow County and give the lesson "Know the Truth about Foods". The lesson concerns food fads, frauds and food additives. With nutrition very much in the spotlight nation wide, this lesson should prove interesting to all homemakers.

Everyone is welcome to attend any Extension meeting — attendance is in no way limited to membership. We invite all county women especially to attend one of the meetings at which Molly will be giving the lesson. Meeting dates for Molly's lesson are:

Heppner Evening — Jan. 6, Neighborhood Center.
Rhea Creek — Jan. 7, Grange Hall.
Boardman — Jan. 8.
Pine City — Jan. 14.
Heppner Day — Feb. 9.
Ione — to be determined.

Lodges Will Have Joint Installation

Society AND Clubs

Nashs Entertain At Holiday Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln Nash had a very busy Christmas vacation with out of town guests and a wedding in the family. On Christmas Eve, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Parsons and family of Beaverton arrived to spend the holiday.

The Nashs, the Parsons and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Palmer and children spent Christmas Eve at the Dean Connor home. The Connors, the Parsons and Mrs. Lyle Jensen and children all had Christmas dinner at the Nash home. Mr. and Mrs. Parsons returned to Beaverton on Friday.

Simplicity Wardrobe To Be Shown Here

Naomi Davis, Morrow-Umatilla 4-H home ec agent will be here Jan. 14-15 bringing the Simplicity Company Wardrobe. It will be shown in Ione Jan. 14, and Heppner Jan. 15. The showing will be arranged in cooperation with home ec teachers in both schools. Due to school vacation, final plans are not yet completed. Leaders and members are asked to note dates of the events, and further notice will be given when final plans are completed.

Soroptimists Fix Christmas Boxes

The Heppner Soroptimist Club held a Christmas party last Thursday at the Wagon Wheel with vocal selections from a group of grade school children as the program attraction. They were directed by Ola Mae Groshen.

Members exchanged gifts and honored four members with December birthdays. They were Eleanor Gonty, Marlene Gray, Joyce Ritch and Joyce Johnson. Members brought gifts, candy and cookies for boxes to be given to three families for Christmas. Several members were to fix the nursing home patients hair on Christmas Eve.

The next regular meeting will be on Jan. 8 at the City Hall with a sack lunch.

Tiffani Sharene Baptized At Hermiston

Mr. and Mrs. Doug Anderson and Tiffani Sharene of Beaverton were up to spend Christmas with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Luciani. Also home for the holidays was another daughter, Sheila from Oregon State and her fiancé Robert Cozad whose home is at Huntington Beach. He has since gone to his home for the last of the vacation with his parents.

On Sunday they attended services when Tiffani Sharene was baptized at the Trinity Lutheran Church in Hermiston. Also here for the occasion were Doug's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nels Anderson of Dallas.

A First For The Forest Service

This year for the first time the Umatilla National Forest Heppner Ranger district has a glowing Christmas card on their front yard. A semi-circle of six evergreens form the background for a deer and fawn. The animals were drawn by Judy McLaughlin, and painted by Lynda Dunlap.

Dancing in the wind high overhead are the words Merry Christmas and the words Umatilla National Forest are sitting on the ground.

A lighted tree is in the back.

Tree Permits

About 30 more permits than last year for individuals to cut Christmas trees were issued from the Heppner ranger station this year according to Frank Rasmussen. This year a total of 110 permits were issued.

Hoppers Have 3-Way Christmas

Mr. and Mrs. John Hopper accompanied Lyle Potter to Condon to spend Christmas Eve with his family. Also present were his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Don Potter of Olex and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Britt and Donna of Spray.

Christmas day guests of the Ray Britts were Mr. and Mrs. Burke Gentry of Hardman, the John Hoppers and the Lyle Potters.

On Friday Mr. and Mrs. Britt and Donna accompanied by Raelene Gentry brought the Hoppers home to Heppner where they had another Christmas dinner. Additional guests were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hopper, Loren and Cody from Hermiston.
