

Boardman Couple Marries Dec. 27

By MARY LEE MARLOW

BOARDMAN — Miss Carolyn Nadine Burg became the bride of Paul Allen McArthur at a 4 p.m. candlelight ceremony Dec. 27 at the Boardman Community Church. The bride is the daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Herman R. Burg of Valleyford, Wash., and the groom is the son of the Rev. and Mrs. Harold McArthur of Stanfield. The service was performed by the fathers of the couple.

Luann Burg, sister of the bride, sang "Wedding Prayer" and "All Our Life", accompanied by Cherry Shelegal of Kennewick, Wash., who also played the nuptial music.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown of white satin with brocade trim, fashioned in Victorian style with a full train. Her shoulder length veil was held in place with a bow. Her bouquet was of white roses.

Luann Burg was her sister's maid of honor and bridesmaids were Mrs. Donald Earlywine of Tigard, Kay Cardwell of Coos Bay, and Debra Burg, sister of the bride. All the attendants wore floor length gowns of dark rose velour with burgundy trim. They all carried bouquets of roses.

Bruce Bates of Condon was best man, and ushers were Jack Rowland of Valleyford, Wash., Jim Blanton of Portland and Wayne Bates of Condon. Candlelighters were Steven Burg, brother of the bride, and Mark Shearer of Fairview, nephew of the groom.

Richard Eakin of Welser, Idaho, nephew of the groom, was ringbearer, and Katie Lange of Troutdale, niece of the groom, was flower girl.
