Patriotic Theme Featured At Rainbow Installation

With the theme, "Faith Can Move Mountains", a color scheme of red, white and blue and the United States flag as the symbol, Karla Weatherford was installed as worthy advisor of Ruth Assembly International Order of Rainbow for Girls in Oregon Sunday afternoon at the Masonic Hall.

The installing officers were Teresa Wright, worthy advisor; Anne Rucker, OSU chaplain; Mrs. Jay Wheelhouse of Hermiston, musician; Gloria Howard of Portland marshal and Elizabeth Stephens, recorder.

Line officers for the ensuing term assisting Karla will be Christy Taylor, worthy associate advisor; Karen Cox, Charity; Sandy Matthews, Hope and Mary Kay Hughes, Faith.

Other officers: Patty O'Hara, recorder; Teresa Wright, treasurer and Jeanine Hunt, chaplain. Rainbow colors include Diane McLachlan, Love; Dewina Turner, Religion; Lisa Cutsforth, Nature; Peggy Hayton, Immortality; Carol Hughes, Patriotism; Cyde Allstott, Fidelity; Linda Baker, Service.

Other officers: Debbie McLeod, outer observer; Kay Van Winkle, confidential observer; Diane Mills, drill leader; Marie Van 'arter, musician; and Bobbette Jones, choir director.

Members of the choir are Jeri Keithley, Tami Meador, Barby McCarl, Sally Winters, Trisha Prock and Susan Melby.

Faye Wilson was introduced and installed as new Mother Advisor.

Following the flag salute and singing of the National Anthem, Mrs. Clarence Baker, Mrs. Barbara Devine, Rachel Harnett and Hubert Wilson were introduced as members of the Rainbow board.

DeMolay Boys Here

Ten members of the Blue Mountain chapter Order of DeMolay from Hermiston conducted the crowning ceremony as the Rainbow crown was taken from outgoing Worthy Advisor Teresa and placed on the head of new Worthy Advisor Karla. Teresa was then crowned with a tiara which will be hers to keep.

During the crowning ceremony, Mrs. W. S. Miller sang "Faith Can Move Mountains" accompanied by Mrs. Wheelhouse.

The DeMolay Boys were presented with an oversized stuffed toy dressed in the familiar blue cape and DeMolay crest. They were accompanied here by their advisor and Mrs. Boyd Thomas. Mr. Thomas is also Rainbow Dad for the Rainbow Girls. Senior Counsellor of the DeMolay Boys announced the State Conclave would be in Pendleton this spring and they hoped to have as many gavel as they could there. Karla assured them "We'll be there!" Karla introduced her family, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Weatherford

Holly Rebekah Lodge Holds Installation

Adelle LaTrace, Deputy President of District No. 20 of Rebekah Lodges and a staff of Past Noble Grands from Sans Souci R.L. No. 33 journeyed to Lexington Jan. 8 to the hall of Holly R.L. No. 139 for the purpose of installing officers in that lodge for the coming year.

The meeting was opened by Donna Papineau, Noble Grand of Holly Lodge, who greeted the attendance of members gathered for the scheduled activities. Later she was conducted to the Past Noble Grands station and received the obligation thereof for the coming term.

The Deputy President Adelle LaTrace and her staff of installing officers, Deputy Marshal, Altha Kirk, Deputy Warden, Opal Cook, Deputy Secretary, Esther Bergstrom, Mary Bailey, Deputy chaplain; Deputy Treasurer, Letha Archer and Deputy Guardian Ada Eskelson were formally introduced and Honors of the Degree extended.

The Deputy president Adelle LaTrace was thanked for officiating for the ceremonies and on and Anne Haberlach, senior at OSU. Also introduced were Mrs. Ruby Becket, Grand Deputy International Order of Rainbow for Girls, Mrs. Virginia Wilkinson, Grand Conductress of the Grand Chapter of Oregon and Mrs. Larry Prock, worthy matron of Ruth Chapter No. 32 OES. Past worthy advisors present who were introduced were Anne Rucker, Cindy Harsin, Jan Wheelhouse and Barbara Devine.

Three addenda were given, one for Mrs. Harnett "Friends and Happiness" as a "thank you for letting us know you". For Teresa the girls used a countdown for Rocket blast off. With each number she was presented with a memento from some occasion during her time as worthy advisor. These ranged from a can of paint, recalling the time when they painted themselves as much as they did the object they were painting, the slumber party and the time the cocoa was spilled!

The addenda for Karla featured letters from the theme of her installation, "Faith Can Move Mountains" as members placed the letters on a large poster picture of mountains they read a ditty on friendship, attitude, thoughtfulness and other characteristics attributed to the new worthy advisor. Also introduced Hubert Wilson, worshipful master of the Heppner Masonic Lodge was introduced as were Karla's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Weatherford and friends, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Rucker and Mrs. Joyce Emerson, all of Arlington and her cousins, Grant and Frank Weatherford of Fossil. Mr. and Mrs. Don Adams of Irrigon were also here from out of town.

Future Projects
The new worthy advisor announced hopes of sending someone to Camp Easter Seals near Eugene next summer and also to do some worthwhile project for Fairview.

Reception
Red punch and a red, white and blue decorated cake were featured at the reception honoring the new officers. Mrs. Adams made the reception cake. Mrs. Marion Weatherford was at the coffee urn, Mrs. Rucker at the punch bowl and Mrs. Bill Weatherford served the cake. Tana Rauch had the guest book. Ann Haberlach, Anne Rucker, both from Oregon State and Gloria Howard of Portland left immediately for Portland as soon as the installation was over.

behalf of Holly No. 139 presented a gift of appreciation by Delpha Jones.

Luther League Has Snow Party

Sleigh riding was enjoyed by the Luther League on Sunday, Jan. 4, at Cutsforth's cabin. The League wishes to thank everyone who helped to make the trip a success for the 36 people who attended.

The next meeting will be at Hope Lutheran Church at 4:30, Feb. 8. Martha Wiley, IFYE student from Ireland will be a guest for that meeting.

WSCS Vote Cookies Project for February

The women of the WSCS of the Methodist Church will send cookies to their servicemen and college kids during the month of February. The topic for their February meeting will be Community concerns to be given by Mrs. Bill Weatherford and the March meeting will be an ecumenical meeting with a Presbyterian Sunday School worker as the guest speaker.

It was announced that a Missionary from Japan may come to speak at a special meeting at the church in February.

The program on China at their meeting Jan. 7 was introduced by the Rev. Edwin Cutting by asking those present for their recollections of China. Most of these were of the old China. By reading excerpts from several different articles, Mrs. John Wood, Mrs. Carl McDaniel, Mrs. Cutting and Mrs. Douglas Drake, showed a change in tone by Communist China over the last year. A discussion followed whether Red China should be admitted to the United Nations. There are 13 million Chinese on Formosa and 400 to 700 million on the mainland.

It was felt that the work of the missionaries would continue to wield an influence in the schools, hospitals and elevation of the status of women in spite of the banishment of everything church since 1949.

Mrs. Amanda Duvall and Mrs. Pearl Wright were hostesses for the social hour which followed.

Talent Show Cancelled

The speech club of Heppner High School regrets to inform you that the talent show that we had planned for Jan. 21, 1970, has been cancelled due to lack of interest.

We were delighted to get your applications and we hope that you haven't gone to too much trouble.

Thank you for your trouble.
