

Couple at Home In Tigard

Miss Anna Rose Obermeier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Obermeier of Boardman, became the bride of Donald E. Earlywine, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Force of Rainier, at an early winter ceremony held in the Warren Baptist Church at Warren. The service was performed by the Rev. L. O. Magnuson.

Mrs. Edith Cruse of Portland sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "Together", accompanied by Cherry Shelegal of Kennewick, who also played the nuptial music.

Given in marriage by her brother, Ernest Obermeier of Rainier, the bride wore a floor length white lace gown with long lace train. Her shoulder length veil was held in place with a peaked head piece that matched the tiny peaks on the bodice of the gown. She carried a bouquet of white carnations and white roses with blue ribbon.

Carolyn Burg of Pendleton was maid of honor, and bridesmaids were Teresa Thorpe of Hermiston, and Joyce Jackson and Betty Eppenbach of Irrigon. They all wore long blue brocade dresses with white gloves and white accessories. They wore blue brocade hats trimmed with blue net, and carried nosegays of white carnations and blue ribbon.

Brother is Best Man

Sumner Earlywine, brother of the groom, was best man, and ushers were Dan Force of Rainier, Pat Vining of Beaverton, and Robert Obermeier, brother of the bride, of St. Helens. Candelighters were Tim and Tom Force of Rainier, brothers of the groom.

John Earlywine of Rainier, nephew of the groom, was ring-bearer, and Becky Obermeier of Rainier, niece of the bride, was flower girl.

For something old the bride carried a handkerchief belonging to her grandmother. Something new was her gown, something borrowed were pearl earrings, and she wore the traditional blue garter.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the church Fellowship Hall. The cake was cut and served by Mrs. Bill Thorpe of St. Helens, sister of the bride, and Doris Thomas of Goble. Pouring were Mrs. Robert Obermeier of St. Helens, sister-in-law of the bride, and Lynda Vining of Beaverton.

Connie Thorpe of St. Helens, niece of the bride, had the guest book.

The bride is a graduate of Riverside High School in Boardman, and attended Multnomah School of the Bible last year. The groom is a graduate of Parkrose High School. Both are employed by Tektronix, Inc. in Beaverton.

For going away the bride wore a pink knit dress with matching accessories and had a white rose corsage.

After a wedding trip to the Oregon coast, San Francisco, Calif., and Nevada, the couple is living in Tigard.

Mrs. Bergstrom Speaks to Teachers Honorary

Mrs. Roland Bergstrom of Ione, a member of the largest tour group ever assembled, showed slides and talked of her visit to the Holy Land at the Jan. 17 meeting of Iota Chapter, Delta Kappa Gamma.

Mrs. Bergstrom and her husband made the tour in November, 1968, as members of the Bethel Bible Study group. It was composed of teachers who had been associated with the Bethel Bible study and their husbands and wives. Some 550 people from the United States made the visit to Palestine and other Mediterranean areas. The large group was ordinarily broken into busloads of 40 people, called "clans."

Incident weather cut the attendance at the January meeting of the women teachers honorary to 32 people, who met for luncheon at the Tapadera Cafe. Chapter president, Mrs. Velve Becholdt of Heppner, discussed plans for the International Convention, to be held in Portland Aug. 2-9, with the group.

Other members from this area who attended the luncheon were Mrs. William Rawlins and Mrs. L. E. Dick, Jr.

Rhea Creek WAC Sew for Hospital

Rhea Creek Grange Women's Activity Club met at the Neighborhood Center in Heppner for their January meeting. A busy time was spent sewing for patients of the Nursing Home of Pioneer Memorial Hospital.

At the business meeting committees for the coming year were appointed by the chairman, Mildred Wright. Vice-chairman for the year is Marilyn Bergstrom and secretary Mary Wight.

Those attending were Mrs. Robert Stevens, Marilyn Bergstrom, Mrs. Edwin Cutting, Alia Stevens, Mrs. Cecil Lutkins, Mrs. Glen Farrens, Mrs. Roy Drake, Mrs. Harold Wright, Mrs. Walter Wright and Mrs. Elmer Palmer.

Hostess for the February meeting will be Mrs. Leonard Rill.

Mrs. McMurtry is LAPM Installing Officer

Mrs. Pete McMurtry was the installing officer last Wednesday in Pendleton for Pendleton Auxiliary No. 3 Patriarch Militant. She was accompanied by Mrs. Adolph Majeske and Mrs. Florence McMillan of Lexington. Mrs. McMurtry holds the office of Inside Sentry for the state organization; a part of the Rebekah Lodge.
