

Soroptimists Plan Initiation for 3

Final plans for the Jan. 29 initiation ceremonies were made at Thursday's Soroptimist luncheon meeting at the Wagon Wheel. The 7 o'clock dinner and initiation of Marlene Bergstrom, Mary Eleanor Gilman and Dorothy Heard will be held at the home of Joan Hughes. Members are reminded to bring their green stamp book as the price of "admission". The stamps will be used to purchase a portable hair dryer.

The dryer will be used in the "Hair-Do" project. Each Saturday Bettie Doherty and Alice Soward go to the hospital to give a shampoo and set to four of the women in the Nursing Home. It was reported the women look forward to these sessions with much pleasure.

Preliminary plans are being made for the Feb. 14 party at the Nursing Home. Blue Birds will attend to pass out the gifts and favors.

The Feb. 5 meeting of the Soroptimists will be held at the conference room of the Gilliam & Bisbee Bldg. The casserole will be furnished.

Open House Sunday For George Lucianis

Nonda Clark Married In Holiday Ceremony

MR. AND MRS. HAL SUNDAY, the former Nonda Clark, with Patrick Clark, who was ring bearer at their wedding during the holidays.

Nonda Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Barton Clark became the bride of Hal Eugene Sunday, son of Mr. and Mrs. Darwin Sunday at a winter holiday wedding Dec. 28 at the All Saints' Episcopal Church, Heppner. The Rev. Dirk Rinehart read the double ring ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a flowing princess style gown of sculptured velvet. The dress was fashioned with a high neckline in front dipping to a V in back with self-bound and shaped streamers that formed the train. Her full length illusion veil was held in place with a double satin bow headpiece. She carried a crescent shaped bouquet of white gladioli accented with silver ribbon. For luck she carried a six-pence in her shoe and wore the traditional blue garter.

Her attendants were Maralee Trotter, matron of honor from Corvallis and bridesmaids were Bonnie Hanna her roommate from Myrtle Creek and Carol Rawlins of Heppner. They wore floor length empire style gowns of turquoise velvet. They carried topiary balls of white carnations, turquoise net tufts and silver bows.

Sal Lo Franco, San Jose, was best man. Ushers were Jeff Kresner of McMinnville and Tom Sutro of Los Angeles, both of whom are fraternity brothers of the bridegroom. Patrick Clark, nephew of the bride was ring bearer.

Mrs. Dirk Rinehart played the nuptial marches as well as musical numbers preceding the ceremony. The altar flowers were turquoise carnations and there were white bows on the pews.

Reception Follows
The turquoise and silver colors were also carried out at the reception with Christmas evergreens as the background.

After the young couple cut the traditional first piece of the wedding cake it was cut and served by Mrs. Harold Wright of Heppner and Mrs. Earl McKenney of Hermiston. Pouring were Mrs. Ned Clark, sister-in-law of the bride and Mrs. Jerry Sunday, sister-in-law of the bridegroom. Attending the gift table were Marsha Sowell and Frances Abrams, and Elizabeth Abrams was in charge of the guest book.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Clark wore a royal blue dress ensemble with matching blue velvet hat. Mrs. Sunday wore an emerald green coat style dress with matching veil hat. They wore corsages of white carnations with silver.

For going-away the bride chose a dark brown wool pants suit with brown accessories and tangerine carnation corsage. Following a short wedding trip the couple is at home at 915 Rummel St., McMinnville where both are students at Linfield College. The bridegroom is also working in management training at Shakeys in Portland.

Catching the bride's bouquet were Bonnie Hanna, the bridesmaid, and the best man caught the "blue garter".

DOT'S JOTS

Justine Weatherford called last week to say this is a mixed up place. She went out to watch a big flock of birds flying south. In so doing her attention was focused on the Poplar trees with swollen buds just ready to pop! Now she wants to know which is smarter, the birds or the trees?

Happy birthday to Jeff Huston on Jan. 31. He is an excited almost-six year old. It just so happens that on Sunday he'll be putting in his six pennies at church the same time his good friend the Rev. Dirk Rinehart will be over from Pendleton and will be putting in his pennies, also! Happy birthday to Dirk, too. Jeff is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Omer Huston.

Mrs. Omer Huston.

Like mother . . . like daughter is the way it is at the Melby's. We have word that Mrs. Steve Jurcich, the former Kathy Melby, is writing news and working circulation at the Sullivan Review, a weekly at Su-shore, Pa. This is about 15 miles from the AFB where her husband is stationed.

Thurs., January 29, 1970

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Harshman returned home Tuesday from Portland. Their daughter, Teresa, attends Northwestern Business College and they enjoyed a visit with her.

Mr. and Mrs. Harshman and Mary and Wilbur Van Blokland attended the Northwest Flower Show.
