

CHUCK WAGON

Feller told me that opportunity may knock only once, but temptation bangs on the door for years.

He also said that it may be true that man does not live by bread alone, but look at those getting along on crust!

You probably have noticed that Cal Sherman files the American flag every day. Nice going — a fine idea.

Everyone from the tiniest to the hugest, the youngest to the oldest of all you good folks in this country and elsewhere are cordially invited! Yessir, all the merchants in Heppner Shopping and have brand new Easter things ready for you folks to look at. If you don't have much time, come on in a minute and say "howdy" anyhow.

Feller asked me if I EVER got anything right in the paper? Well, sir, back in 1958. . .

...We would like to say a big "well done" to the cast of "You Can't Take It With You". We've seen this play different places perhaps four or five times. The performance here was really tops.

Cornett Green advertises bulbs and spring stuff in this issue. And Clint displays his seeds over at Central. Guess spring's just about here! (And you'll notice the faraway look in the eyes of the local fishermen.)

Blue Bird party was held last week for the two Blue Bird groups to receive their Blue Bird pins. The Blue Bird Buttons and The Swans earned their pins by selling candy last fall. At their party they played games, sang "Happy Birthday" to George Washington and had George Washington treats.

NNC Messengers Coming for Easter

Three members of the Messengers' quartet from Northwest Nazarene College at Nampa, Idaho, who were in Heppner for Easter services a year ago and pianist Grace Yoda from Japan will be at the Heppner Church of the Nazarene for special Easter Weekend Services.

Planned events include a Special Neighbor Night Service on Saturday night, March 28, at 7:30 p.m. with special musical numbers from local talent as well as inspirational musical numbers by the Messenger's Trio that will be of interest to youth of the community.

The Church of the Nazarene will participate in the community Easter Sunrise Service. Other Easter Sunday events include Sunday School at 10:00 a.m.; Morning Worship at 11:00 a.m.

Following the worship service there will be a potluck dinner in the fellowship hall and an afternoon program beginning at 2:45 p.m. which will feature special singing and novelty numbers by the trio and a good time for all. The 7:00 Evening Service will again feature the trio and a sing-along.

Pastor Everhart extends a cordial invitation to friends and neighbors of the community to attend any or all of these special Easter weekend events.

With Mrs. Cox

Visitors at the home of Mrs. Oma Cox over the weekend were her daughter, Mrs. Cecil Mullins and her granddaughter, Danita Hinton, also from The Dalles.

HOME FROM MARINES

David Gray expected to receive his discharge from the Marines on Wednesday of this week. He has been stationed at Camp Pendleton. Mrs. Gray has been down there. They will visit along as they return to Heppner. David is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Merritt Gray.

Medical Terminology Class Nears End

The ten students in the Medical Terminology Class will complete the course on March 16. Mrs. Jack Graham, medical secretary, has been the instructor. Mrs. Graham moved here with her husband about six months ago from Salisbury, N. C., where they were married in September. She graduated from Lees-McRae College at Banner Elk, N. C. Mr. Graham is scaler for the Forest Service. He is the son of a retired Major General and was born in Portland.

Students in the class are Ilene Wyman, Pat Prock, Suzanne Jensen, Gen Springer, Marge O'Hara, Bettie Doherty, Betty Currutt, Anna Schwarzin, Maxine Schmidt and Eunice Pettyjohn.

Mrs. John Pfeiffer was in Seattle for a week visiting her father, F. O. Seymour. He is 90 years old and still lives by himself.

Dogs Trail Quail At Field Trials

Dog trailers from Washington and Oregon huddled around a bon fire March 1 and watched the Columbia Basin Brittany Club's first fun field trial. The unexpected snow didn't deter these hardy dog folks from coming from as far away as Portland and Vancouver, Wn.

There was plenty of action as the dogs found and pointed Bob White quail on the grounds across from the Boardman bombing range. Many of the dogs had never hunted Bob White before but it didn't take them long to realize this was a great little game bird.

Four breeds of pointing dogs were represented at the trial. English Pointers, English Setters, German Shorthair Pointers were there to run with the host Brittany Spaniels.

First place trophy and blue ribbons went to Champion Black Butte's Ace Wild Brittany owned by Norm Clow, Heppner, for Open All ages. Sour dough Lil, German Shorthair, owned by Albert Kelly of Kennewick for puppy; Bill's Hi Tone Doc, English setter owned by William R. Rachels, Jr., Pilot Rock, for Derby and Bills Flashy Lady, English setter, also owned by Mr. Rachels, for hunting dog.

All four breeds shared in the winning of second, third and fourth place ribbons on the various stakes.

Gary Huber was home on a short vacation last week with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. H. S. Huber. He is a senior at Laurelwood Academy near Forest Grove.

Steve Pettyjohn has returned to his classes at Oregon State following a car accident on Feb. 14. He sustained multiple lacerations and mouth damage to teeth and bones. He plans to take his final exams. He had to drop one course but was able to pick up the others.

Why do we want to get to know you? "It's simple. The better we know you, the more we can do for you.
Which is the only way we're going to get your business. And keep it.

Besides. The better you know us, the more apt you are to ask for help when you need it.

Help with things like balancing your checkbook.

Choosing the right savings program.

Or maybe just getting change
for your parking meter.

Why would we like to get to know you?

Because it gives us a chance to do those extra little things that make your banking, and our work, a lot nicer."

That's why.
