Nazarene Church
There has been a change in the schedule for Easter Week-end services at the local Church of the Nazarene. Grace Yoda, the pianist, for the singers from N.N.C. was called to return to Japan making it necessary for the Messengers to cancel their appearance. The Neighbor night service set for March 28 has been cancelled.

Pastor Everhart announces the following schedule for Easter Sunday. Participation in the community Easter Sunrise Service at 6:30 a.m.; Sunday School at 10:00 a.m.; Morning Worship at 11:00 a.m., with a potluck dinner in the fellowship hall at noon. The afternoon service at 2:45 will feature Mrs. Dianne Wilcox from Pendleton, who is an unusually talented chalk artist, using recorded background music as she does her drawings. You will enjoy the inspirational music and beautiful chalk artistry as it relates to His resurrection.

The Sunday evening service will be held at 7:00 with Pastor Everhart showing slides of the Resurrection account.
A cordial invitation is extended to all to attend any or all of these events.

Seven Attend State FFA Meet

Five boys and the two girl members of the Heppner Future Farmers chapter attended the 42nd annual FFA Oregon state convention at Oregon State University in Corvallis March 18-20.

Honored guests were national FFA president Harry Birdwell and national Pacific Region vice-president Dave Dietz. Dave was Oregon state president in 1968-69.

Four members from the Heppner chapter worked on the Proficiency Award committee meetings. They were Tom Cutsforth, crops; Sandy Matthews, chapter books; Sue Melby, agribusiness; and Kirk Robinson, dairy and poultry.

Other delegates were John Harris, John Currin, and Rick Drake. Hal Whitaker, advisor, accompanied the group.

Newly-elected state officers are president, Craig Latham of McMinnville; vice-president, Sam Harsin of Baker; secretary, Ron Cook of Canby; treasurer, Jeff Blitz of Eagle Point; representative, Mike Fanning of Amity; sentinel, Jim Wilcox, Enterprise.

All of the 91 nominees for State Farmer were awarded the degree. The Heppner chapter did not have an applicant for the degree this year.

Terry Reub, president of the collegiate chapter of OSU, gave his greetings to the delegates.

SPRAY SAILOR ON YORKTOWN

Navy Fireman Leslie N. Ledington, son of Mr. and Mrs. Victor H. Ledington of Spray, has arrived in Boston aboard the aircraft carrier USS Yorktown.

His ship, now 27 years old, is being prepared for deactivation at the Boston Naval Shipyard.

Ida Laura Salter Service Wednesday

Ida Laura Salter, 67 years of age, died Monday, March 23 at St. Anthony Hospital in Pendleton after a short illness. She had been a resident of the Ione community since 1942.
Mrs. Salter was born Aug. 8, 1902 in Lewistown, Mont., and was united in marriage to Hugh Salter in that city on Dec. 26, 1927.
Besides her husband, she is survived by two daughters, Helen Salter and Joyce Snider, both of Ione and two sons, Gaylord of Athena and Robert of Beaverton and one sister, Agatha Fleisch of Great Falls, Mont. Eight grandchildren also survive.

Mrs. Salter was a member of St. William's Church in Ione and of Willows Grange.
Recitation of the rosary was Tuesday at St. William's Church and funeral mass was held Wednesday, also at St. William's with the Rev. Raymond H. Beard officiating.
Interment followed at Heppner Masonic Cemetery with Sweeney Mortuary in care of arrangements. Casket bearers were Don and Dick McElligott, Howard Crowell, Gar Swanson, David Baker and Charles Doherty.

Willows Grange Meets
Willows Grange met for a potluck dinner Sunday. The WAC was in charge of the program with Mrs. Lee Palmer chairman. Because it was the beginning of Holy Week, arrangements had been made for Mrs. Roland Bergstrom to show her pictures taken when she toured the Holy Land. Her audience especially enjoyed her very fine comments.

First Aid Class Dated

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Gonty went to Ukiah Sunday to spend the day with their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Terry Blevens. They were accompanied by Mrs. Ida Farra. They enjoyed an "early birthday dinner" honoring Mr. Gonty whose birthday is March 27.
Mrs. Blevens had come to Heppner earlier in the week and Doug went back with her to spend part of spring vacation in Ukiah. He returned home with his parents.

The American Red Cross Standard First Aid course will meet for the first session on March 31 at 7:30 p.m. There will be five weekly sessions. Sessions will be held at the Elementary School Library. The only cost is 75c to purchase the First Aid book. Instructors are Bettie Doherty, Chuck Rouse and Norman Clow.

Why you should save at First National.

Saving at First National has never been better. Or easier! Better, because the interest your money earns today is greater than ever. Which means that your savings will grow faster. And we've made First National saving a little easier by offering you all types of programs to choose from. So you can save the way you want to save. If you want maximum flexibility, you may choose our regular savings plan, which pays 4 1/2% interest and traditionally permits you to withdraw your funds at any time without advance notice. Or, you may find a different plan better suited to your needs in the programs explained below.

90-DAY PASSBOOK TIME ACCOUNT

Deposit $500 or more and start earning 5% interest immediately. Additional deposits of $50 or more will keep your account growing beautifully. After 90 days, your money is available to you by withdrawing it within 10 calendar days following the end of a calendar quarter or by giving us 90 days written notice.

5 3/4%

CERTIFICATES OF DEPOSIT

These special two-year certificates, issued in amounts from $500 to $100,000 guarantee you 5 3/4% annual interest paid by check or deposited to your account each quarter. If you prefer a one-year certificate, we'll pay you 5 1/2% interest. And, if you decide you may need your money sooner than that, you can earn a big 5% interest on certificates of deposit held for interest-bearing periods less than one year. Minimum deposit is $500.

7 1/2%

CERTIFICATES OF DEPOSIT

Large deposits—$100,000 or more—now earn 7 1/2% if left with us a year. The interest rates on these certificates range from 6 1/4% to 7 1/2% depending on their maturity.

There's more to First National saving than top interest, too. Things like convenience. We have 118 offices throughout the state to serve you. No matter where you are! And now, the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation insures First National savings up to $20,000. Stop by First National and start saving. You'll like the interest.

Deposits to regular savings accounts made on or before April 10 earn interest from April 1.

We'd like to get to know you.
