

Achievement Day Set for April 27 At Lexington

Morrow County's annual homemakers' achievement day will be Monday, April 27, at the Lexington Grange hall. The Pine City home Extension unit is in charge. Featured speaker will be Mrs. Dorris Graves, Hardman, who will show colored slides and discuss "India as I Saw It." Mrs. Graves, who is Extension advisory committee chairman, spent the month of January touring India. She will also model saris brought back from India.

Another featured speaker will be Roberta Frasier, acting assistant director of Extension, Oregon State University. Mrs. Frasier will discuss "Extension Today—New Directions."

The program will begin at 9:30 with a coffee and get acquainted hour with members of the Heppner evening unit in charge. Members of the Rhea Creek unit will handle registration. The program will begin at 10 a.m. and conclude at 2:30 p.m. Mrs. Dorris Graves and Mrs. Weldon Witherrite will alternate as mistress of ceremonies.

Also included on the program will be a style revue of pants and shirts made in recent Extension sewing workshops. Narrator will be Mrs. Roland Bergstrom, lone. Mrs. Witherrite will present a recognition program for long time Extension workers and home agent Molly Saul will discuss "Looking Forward." The latter will include a discussion of next year's Extension program and special projects.

Luncheon will be potluck. The main dish will be prepared by the hostess unit, Pine City, and others will bring salads or desserts.

All homemakers in Eastern Oregon are invited to attend.

Friends Invited to Matthews Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Verlin Matthews invite all friends and relatives to the wedding of their daughter, Kathy, to Bill McLeod, on Sunday, May 31, at 2:00 p.m. at the Heppner Methodist Church.

A reception will honor the couple in the church social rooms immediately following the wedding.

MR. AND MRS. ADOLF MAJESKE at their 50th Wedding Anniversary.

50 Years Highlight Golden Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Majeske were honored April 5 on their Golden Wedding Anniversary at the Lexington IOOF Hall with their children and families acting as hosts. Refreshments were served from a beautifully decorated table, centered by a three tiered white and pink cake topped with white bells and a gold on 50. A milk glass punch bowl and silver service were also used at this table. Serving and pouring were friends of the couple. Cake was served by Mrs. Florence McMillan, Mrs. Delsie Chapel and Mrs. Pete McMurry; punch by Mrs. W. Wright, Mrs. Al Fetsch, Mrs. Oris Padberg; and coffee by Mrs. Altha Kirk, Mrs. Kenneth Marshall and Mrs. T. E. Messenger, Sr. These ladies all had lovely white carnation corsages, tied with golden ribbon, gifts of the hosts. Mrs. Majeske wore gold brocade and a beautiful white orchid corsage. The rooms were decorated in appropriate style for the occasion, with a lovely golden arrangement flanked with golden candles on the piano, and flower gifts from friends about the room, and centering a gift table.

A point of interest was an arrangement of family portraits starting with the wedding picture of the honored couple, on a shelf and pictures of their 25th wedding anniversary. On the second shelf were the wedding pictures of each one of the children, and on the lower shelf the grandchildren in single folders. All were flanked by beautiful bouquets of spring flowers in crystal vases.

Miss Freida Kurth and Mr. Adolf Majeske were married April 5, 1920, at the home of her sister, Mrs. Carl Weinke, at Nolin. Mrs. Majeske, whose home was in Wassau, Wis., was visiting in Oregon at her sisters when she met Mr. Majeske, who had recently returned from World War I. He was born in Germany and had migrated to the United States at an early age, where he worked prior to enlistment in the U. S. Army. Following his discharge, he returned to Morrow County where he was employed.

With the exception of one year spent in the Willamette Valley they have spent their married life in Morrow County. Mr. Majeske has two brothers and one sister still living in Germany and one brother in Michigan, and Mrs. Majeske has a brother living in Wisconsin.

Guests were present from Pendleton, Baker, Gresham, Ukiah, Astoria, Pilot Rock, Hermiston, Milton-Freewater, The Dalles, St. Helens and Morrow Co.

Their children are a son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Majeske; a daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Mounts of Portland, and another daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Wright and family of Gresham. Members of Holly Rebekah Lodge assisted them. All members of the family were able to be present but a grandson Steve Mounts, who is stationed in California with the U. S. Marines. The Majeskes retired about 25 years ago, moving to their home in Lexington. The son and family live on the ranch.

Heppner Home Ext. Unit Elects Officers

Mrs. Norman Clow was elected chairman of the Heppner Home Extension at their meeting Monday morning at the home of Mrs. Ailee McCabe. Mrs. Merritt Gray was elected vice chairman and Mrs. Felix Schwarzin secretary-treasurer.

The group will arrange a display of smaller electrical appliances at the Achievement Day program on April 27 at Lexington Grange. They also made plans to attend the Umatilla County Achievement Day program at Ukiah on April 30.

The May meeting the last one before summer will be held at the home of Mrs. Norman Clow. Mrs. Gene Ferguson will give the lesson on "Planning for Retirement."

Prior to the potluck luncheon, Harold Kerr, County Agent gave the lesson on the development of the comprehensive land use plan and county zoning ordinances.

The purpose of this lesson is to create an awareness of some of the environmental and land use problems that exist in Oregon today. The plan being developed by the planning commission will meet the state requirements and is designed to protect the farmer and his land.

He will show his slides and talk to the Soroptimists, Hello Heppner Home Extension Unit and probably the Heppner-Morrow County Chamber of Commerce.

Homemakers Invited to Achievement Day

"Do You Remember?" is the theme of the annual Umatilla County homemakers' achievement day to be held at the Ukiah school Thursday, April 30. Mrs. Harold Searcy, Athena, curator of the Museum of the Air, will be the featured speaker. She will carry out the theme by telling interesting historical points in the settling of Eastern Oregon. Another program highlight will be a fashion show of garments from yesteryears, modeled by home Extension members.

This annual event is the one time during the year that home Extension members from all parts of the county get together. The purpose of the event is to tell the general public what has been done in the homemakers program during the past year. General chairman of the achievement day is Mrs. Gordon George, chairman, Umatilla County home Extension advisory committee. Assisting her are committee members: Mrs. James Parent and Mrs. Richard Meier, Milton-Freewater; Mrs. Leo Klaus, Hermiston; Mrs. George Ball and Mrs. David Cobb, Pendleton; and Mrs. B. C. Hinton, Ukiah. Sponsoring Extension unit is the Ukiah group.

The program will begin at 10 a.m. with a coffee and get acquainted hour. Members of the Pilot Rock and Pendleton Extension units will serve fruit breads and hostess this part of the program. Visitors will have an opportunity at this time to examine the antiques and relics of yesteryear, to be displayed by members of the Ukiah unit.

In addition to the featured speaker, the program will also include a fashion show given by patients at the state hospital who made garments in the Extension sewing classes. Mrs. M. H. Finch, sewing instructor, will be in charge. Home agent Molly Saul will show slides and explain the nature of the expanded nutrition program being conducted on the Umatilla Indian Reservation.

Luncheon will be potluck. The Ukiah unit will furnish the main dish, and others are to bring salads and desserts. There will be a fifty cent charge to defray expenses.

All homemakers in Eastern Oregon are invited to attend. Non-Extension unit members are especially welcome. Reservations should be in the Pendleton Extension office no later than April 20. Reservations are
