

Good Samaritan Center Plans New Addition

There will be Ground Breaking ceremonies with Open House at the Good Samaritan Center, Hermiston, Sunday afternoon, April 26, at 2:30 o'clock. The "Outdoor Program" will feature numbers from many of the area churches, and will be Christ Centered and oriented. Various pastors from different denominations will participate in the Ground breaking. The main speaker for the day will be Pastor Rudy Mensch of Heppner. Light refreshments will be served following the program. Construction to the new addition, will begin early in May.

At Weatherfords

Invitations have been received here for the marriage of Elizabeth Ann Stevenson to William Peak Haberlach on May 17 at Yakima.

Mr. Haberlach is the son of Mrs. William Weatherford. The young couple visited with the Weatherfords this week. Miss Stevenson is a commercial artist and is employed in Seattle. Mr. Haberlach is stationed at Sand Point Naval Station as a legal officer. He received his law degree from Willamette University.

NHS Speech Class Play Festival

Along with the comedy, Red Carnations, and to be presented at the first annual play festival is the stirring drama, The Valiant, which concerns a condemned man who is withholding his identity so he will not hurt any of his relatives.

The condemned man is portrayed by Rob Abrams. Also involved in the play is Craig Cutting, Craig Munkers, Sue Melby, Rory Stillman and Ken Baker. This play has been a hit with many play festivals.

Another of the plays to be presented is the chilling thriller, Sorry, Wrong Number. Once designated as the radio play of the year, this play has now been adapted for use on television and stage. Molly Becket portrays an invalid woman who becomes involved with a murder plot. The situation is precarious and involves many weakening moments.

Other members of the speech class will be included in the cast of characters.

The three one-act plays will be given Thursday, April 30 at 7:30 p.m. in the Heppner High school auditorium. Admission is $1.00 for adults and 50c for all students.

Hermiston JVs, Echo Take Two from Ione

The Ione Cardinals were ahead 4 to 3 in the fifth inning with back to back home runs by Terry Cannon and Scott Wilson in the non-league game with the Hermiston JVs but Hermiston tied the game in the sixth on a base hit, a sacrifice and an Ione error. Hermiston went on to win in the extra innings by scoring on a walk, a single and a perfectly executed squeeze bunt with the final score Hermiston 5, Ione 4.

Ione had 6 hits and 5 errors, Hermiston 9 hits and 1 error. Besides a home run, Terry Cannon tripled in the third inning, driving in Kent Guterrez.

Echo took the league game from Ione with four runs in the fourth inning and Ione failed to score after their two runs in the third.

Kent Guterrez was the leading hitter for Ione as he got 2 singles in three trips to the plate. Terry Cannon got the only extra base hit for Ione, as he doubled in the third, driving in Guterrez.

Civil Defense Conference

Clarence Bauman, Morrow County civil defense coordinator, and Don Munkers, a civil defense officer here, recently attended a civil defense conference at Sweetbriar Inn at Tualatin.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Barclay of Portland announce the birth of a daughter on April 18. The baby has been named Kate Colleen and paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Max Barclay of Heppner. Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Jack Boon of Portland.

Agnes Sperry has moved from Portland. She is making her home with her mother, Mrs. Allen Johnston.

MUSICIANS TO HERMISTON

There were 32 young musicians from the Heppner Band who went to Hermiston for the two-day Spring Band Festival. It has been held annually for a good many years. The guest conductor was William Billingsly, well known clinician-teacher and adjudicator from Idaho. Bands attended from Heppner, Ione, Riverside, Arlington, Hermiston Jr. High, Stanfield, Echo and Umatilla.

On Friday night, each individual band performed for comment. Very favorable comments were made on the Heppner band directed by Arnie Hedman. He said the ensemble parts sounded well and the intonation was good and the overall group sounds quite musical.

On Saturday night the mass band performed in concert directed by Mr. Billingsly. There were 300 members in the mass band.

The band traveled by bus and came home each evening.

Over The Tee Cup

By MARIE McQUARRIE

Eighteen women enjoyed the "Kick-off" luncheon held at the Willow Creek Country Club Tuesday. Helen Schaffitz and Dee Gribble were the hostesses and served a delicious chicken salad, hot rolls and a mouth-watering lemon cake topped with whipped cream. Anyone invited but unable to attend, missed a mighty lovely repast.

Vi Lanham, president of the women's group, held a short meeting. She had corresponding secretary, Karen Holland read letters from the surrounding clubs regarding their golfing women coming to Heppner and correspondence concerning our club going out of town to play. It was suggested we gals have a meeting the first Tuesday of every month after golfing, with all bringing a sack lunch. This motion was "ayed" by everyone present. The girls also voted to buy a roll-up curtain for the end of the porch to keep sun, wind or rain from this delightful place where we sit and watch the "golings on" on the course.

Door prizes were received by Bea Simkins, Hazel Mahoney and Beverly Gunderson at the luncheon. Each one was given a new golf ball.

President Hiemstra has scheduled the "Annual Work Day" for the coming Sunday, April 26 at 8:00 a.m. for the men. If this is too early for you come down when you can and you will be most welcome. The object of this Annual Day is to polish up the grounds, so bring along shovels, rakes, a power saw — or just yourself. The gals are preparing a hearty meal for the workers for $1.00 each to be served around noon. A good bunch of "ground cleaner-uppers" can do the job quickly, have a sumptuous lunch and then play golf.

Sounds like a good way to get things done and everyone still have a good time out of it. Plans are in the pot for barbecues, tournaments, visitations and fun play at Willow Creek Country Club. Watch this column for things to come.

NEIGHBOR NIGHT

Pastor Floyd Everhart announces the April Neighbor Night service to be held at the Heppner Church of the Nazarene on April 23 at 7:30 p.m. These monthly Neighbor Night Services provide an opportunity to visit and enjoy the inspiration of a time of singingspiration and sharing the good news from God's Word while viewing beautiful color pictures to make these events from the Bible live for each viewer, he says. Fellowship is enjoyed by all who can stay during the time of refreshments following the service.

Varied special numbers will be brought by local talent. The pastor will present a slide series on "The Lord's Supper" one of the Holy Sacraments and its special significance for fundamental Bible believing Christians in these days.
