Giving Can Be Fun and Painless

There's no end to the giving a person can do these days. Starting here at home, the Kindergarten Mothers with their new name, Heppner Civic League, are sponsoring their annual spring rummage sale this weekend. They will accept almost anything from your closets, cupboards, garage and tool shed that you don't want or need anymore. They will turn these items into cash to use to finance the Kindergarten next year.

The Neighborhood Center is always grateful for the leftover scraps from your sewing, nylon hose, outgrown children's clothes, adult clothes and many other odds and ends to be used in craft work. These items may be left at the Neighborhood Center any time.

ESA at Ione has just issued an appeal for things for Meadowood Speech Camp. If you've ever seen the improvement a month at this camp can do for one boy or girl, you'll have tears in your eyes and want to help. This camp is dedicated to helping young people who have difficulties with communication — speech, hearing and language disorders. You'll want to attend the "Open House" held each spring at Meadowood Springs to see these facilities. Primitive to a certain extent but who cares when you can be outside in Oregon's beautiful Blue Mountains? In this issue items are listed they can use for kitchen and dining hall. From time to time the Gazette-Times will publish lists of items the camp can use in other areas. If you have something to contribute call Mrs. Charles Doberty for pickup.

Last but certainly not least is Lois Winchester's concern for the Indians. Through Howard Day's appeal to help the Navajo Indians, Mrs. Winchester has become Heppner's pick-up point or cast-off point whichever way you look at it! The Navajos are long known for their rug weaving and skillful sewing. Anything in the sewing line is needed. Thread, yarn, buttons, beads, old jewelry. Material scraps are used to line their moccasins and bags. Any kind of rag material. Clothing for children as well as adults, bedding, packaged foods to name only a few.

Howard Day works for the Union Pacific. He was at Hinkley, now in Portland. He has taken his vacation for several years to take truck loads of contributions to the Navajo Indians. This year he expects bigger trucks or possibly a train car load. He has issued an appeal for furniture and appliances. Mrs. Winchester has made arrangements for storage of these items and Mr. Day has told her he would come to Heppner to pick them up.

The Junior High Reading room is bare. They, too, could use some chairs and tables.
Just don't throw anything away, please. Somebody can use it!

Amazing — Absolutely Amazing

It is quite unbelievable that a freshman student would be elected 1st vice president of Associated Students, Oregon State University. But that is exactly what has happened. Dave Hall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Hall of Hardman received a majority vote in a field of 3 candidates at the primary election Apr. 16-17 so won't be running in the final election being held this week on the campus.

He is no ordinary freshman in age or activities. He is a year older, having stayed out a year between college and high school to serve as state officer for Future Farmers of America. Friends tell us that as a born leader he was interested in "politics" even in high school and served as chapter FFA president.

If things go well for him next year as 1st vice president it is a natural that he will run for president a year from now to serve in that position his Junior year.

He has some serious thoughts on student unrest but different than some he is working on the constructive side for change rather than destructive. He hasn't met the new OSU president but anticipates working closely with him to develop the concerns for environment, growth of individuals and a better Oregon into specifics.

Morrow County can be very proud. With his major of Ag. Ed. Dave Hall may just very well be the Representative or Senator knowledgeable in the ways of Agriculture that Oregon will be looking for in a few years. Let's keep our eyes on him. He's worth watching.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:

While visiting in Heppner last month I called Mrs. Duvall and she came down and opened the Museum for me (they do that for people from out of town). Have all of you people from Heppner, Lexington, Ione and the rest of Morrow County been there? If not you are really missing something. I've visited museums in Oregon and back through the middle west and I saw nothing better than right in my own home town.

Old timers remember Grandpa (F. D. Cox's) mounted birds. They are there at least those that have made it through the years since he is gone. Go take a look. It made me proud and the rest of you know old timers whose handiwork and keepsakes are there. Let's face it Mrs. Duvall and her co-workers have done a tremendous thing for Heppner. Next time I plan to eat down town and make a day of it and take my relatives along (they went with me last time). You can't see it all in an hour.

In the April 9th edition of the paper there was a picture of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Justus. I'd like to hear from the owner as I'd like a copy of it. I think you will agree F. D. Cox is just behind them. The one next to the camera.

Also I noticed an article on the death of Frances Jay Ball. It named most of his relatives but not all. There is Marlene Gray who is a cousin.

Oh, yes, if any of you take Josephine's advice and visit Grandmas table come on across the street and say hello. Its the green house directly across Hall.

Sincerely
Frances Cox Griffin

Women on the Go!

This week's Woman on the Go is Birdine Tullis, Extension Aide. On the go she is all the time but this week a little more so, as she goes jet speed for the annual Spring Achievement Day at Lexington Grange next Monday.

When she started as an Aide in November, 1968, the Aide program was a very new idea. There were no written rules or instructions for her to follow. Morrow County chose well for this position as Birdine just jumped in and started doing what she thought needed to be done. She is believed to be the only Aide in Oregon working in both adult education and youth work. She loves her work and says, "It is tremendously interesting work because it gives me the opportunity to work with the people of the county."

Although she worked as secretary in the County Agent's office before her marriage to Gary Tullis, she is a "johnny-come-lately" in Extension work. She sees the woman as one of the richest resources of the county. She feels they should be included in more planning and working committees and positions. She says, "It is really great to work with the women with whom I come in contact from this position. Their scope of understanding and concern is wide. This is one of the challenges of working with Extension. The concept of continued growth and education of all individuals through the unit studies and programs of the women and the 4-H program designed to encourage the total growth of young people."

In talking of the youth of Morrow County she says, "I think Morrow County's most important product is its youth. It is a shame that we have to export them! We need their vitality and leadership here at home. We need to find ways to keep them here."

Her background of broad community interests and working with people and numerous hobbies are natural assets in her work. She has done them all through her church, PTA, Garden Club and remodeling their country home, interior decorating, painting, sewing, gardening and landscaping.

Likes People and the Job
"I work hard at my job. Morrow County is my home and I feel a great pride in our people. I am sure we will have to compensate and make changes as all rural America is having."

PROPERTY TAX FAX

If you have a question concerning real or personal property please state all the facts as briefly as possible and mail it to Mrs. Joyce Ritch, Morrow County Special Assessor, Box 742, Heppner, Orge.

QUESTION:

I was out of the state last spring and my attorney (holding an executed, written power of attorney) filed a timely application for special farm-use assessment on March 31, 1970, with my name typed in. My county assessor requested a written authorization to act. On May 15, 1969, my attorney submitted a power of attorney, dated March 18, 1969. Does the application constitute a timely filing?

ANSWER:

Yes. It is not the substantiation which has to be furnished prior to the final date but the facts which exist on the final date that determines the timeliness.

to do at this time, but I sincerely hope we do not have to change so much that we lose our concern for our neighbors. I think all rural areas are going through some growing pains or shrinking pains, whichever, as we are so dependent on agriculture. But I think we have enough pioneer spirit left to do something about it. The irrigation in the county offers many hopes of new things to come—we are on the brink of many new developments."

This vivacious young woman with the pixie hair cut who voices her opinions in a most charming and candid manner invites all women of the county to the fun and food of Achievement Day at Lexington Grange next Monday beginning at 9:30 a.m. You'll be glad you went!

Vesper Circle Meets

April 15, Vesper circle met at the Heppner Christian Church with Helen Keithley as hostess. Peggy Johnson led the discussion on "Christian Forgiveness" which was the lesson for the night. Future projects were discussed.
The next meeting will be May 20 at the Heppner Christian Church. The lesson will be "Anxiety and Worry". Those attending the meeting were Mrs. Messenger, Mrs. Olive Hughes, Ena Parker, Florence Nolan, Linda Conner, Faye Mumbers, Vivian McConnell, Sharon Harrison, Helen Keithley, Peggy Johnson and Betty Marquardt.

CHUCK WAGON

Edwin Hoeft, Pendleton, co-chairman of the Columbia-Bios Mountain BC & D Project is asking sponsors of the project to meet Monday evening, Apr. 27 at 8 at the Boardman Grange Hall. He says they need to complete work on the constitution and by-laws and to elect officers. Resource committee chairman will report on activities.

Grounds of the Columbia Bios Electric Co-Op here are rapidly becoming a real showplace. Extensive plantings of evergreens in a number of locations there make a splendid addition to the grounds.

New Degree of Honor Members Initiated

Degree of Honor, Lodge No. 29 held their official inspection meeting April 14. State Director Clara E. Gertson, State second vice-president Reta Rose, Past State President Ida Farra and visiting President of Pendleton Lodge No. 34, Hazel Case were introduced and welcomed. Other guests were eight members from the Pendleton lodge and a visitor from Canada.

An orchid, grown by Alice Soward, was presented in a corsage to Mrs. Gertson by Mrs. Soward.
President Eleanor Gonty, assisted by her chair officers, initiated new members. The drill team, with Ardith Hunt as drill captain, performed, using red carnations and presenting them to Mrs. Gertson.

A reception honoring Mrs. Gertson as retiring Oregon State director will be held in Portland on April 24 with National President, Edna E. Dugan of St. Paul as guest speaker. Heppner lodge members will provide cookies for the evening coffee hour.

The regular meeting night was changed to April 21 for the next meeting, at which time Past Presidents will be honored.

Mrs. Gertson was recipient of a surprise garden shower presented by Ida Farra, with the theme "How does your garden grow?" A wheelbarrow loaded with plants, bulbs, seeds, tools and other garden materials and the appropriate slow moving vehicle sign was wheeled in for the presentation.

The meeting closed with a reasonable facsimile of Tiny Tim's version of "Tip Toe Through the Tulips" with lots of laughs for all.

Hostesses Irene Nolan, Ruth Bergstrom and Melba Quackenbush served refreshments from a table decorated with umbrellas and spring flowers to carry out the "April Showers" theme.

EOC Band Coming Here

The free public concert by the Eastern Oregon College concert band this Sunday at 4 p.m. in the college theatre will be the start of a 3-day tour.

For Sunday's program, as well as for subsequent appearances, Louis A. Lanyon, director of the band, will choose from the "Castles of Britain Suite" by Laurie Johnson, "Chant and Jubilo" by W. Francis McBeth, "Suite of Old American Dances" by Robert Russell Bennett, and other selections.

At 10:20 a.m. Monday, the bands will play at Heppner High School. That same day at 1:40 p.m., they will appear at Condon High school. On Wednesday at 2 they will play at Arlington High.
