And Away They Go . . . To Summer School

It has been announced that two Heppner High teachers received grants and will be away to summer school.

Royal Arch Masons Grand Chapter Meet

Local members of the grand family of officers of Royal Arch Masons of Oregon were in Portland April 15 for the 109th annual convocation of the Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons of Oregon.

Paul Jones of Heppner, Most Excellent Grand High Priest, presided over Grand Chapter.

Appointive officers of the Grand Chapter from Heppner included Harold Becket, district deputy of District No. 2; Herman Winter, Grand Orator; and Howard Bryant, Grand Sentinel. A former Heppnerite, Oliver Creswick was appointed and installed Grand Musician.

The Grand Convocation was also attended by Clarence Baker, Past High Priest of Heppner Chapter.

Excellent Grand High Priest Jones and District Deputy Becket were accompanied by their wives who with wives of other grand officers assisted in entertaining the other wives and with decorating the dining room for the dinner after the close of Grand Chapter. They were also assisted by Mrs. Creswick.

Paul Jones was succeeded in the Grand office by George Driskell, La Grande. The Jones' went from Portland to Seattle to spend the weekend with their daughter, Sandra, and her family. They returned home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Becket visited the Merle Becketts and J. W. (Bill) Becketts and Mr. Becket's daughter, Carol on Thursday, returning home that evening.

On Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Becket were among those crossing the snowy Blue Mts. to La Grande. He reports they were not warned of the situation until ascending Emigrant Hill, finding themselves in 6 in. of snow on the road where they were not able to turn back. After putting on chains, they went on through a blizzard to the Grand Ronde without too much difficulty but saw many cars off the road in snowbanks, one across the guard rail. Road was fairly clear on the afternoon return trip.

Brothers Run for VP HHS Holds ASB Primary Election

Dave Hall who was home for the weekend visiting with his folks, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Hall received a call Saturday that he had been elected 1st vice president of Associated Students Oregon State University. He received a majority vote in the field of three candidates and so will not run in the final election April 23-24.

The counting which had been expected to be completed by 9 p.m. Friday was not finalized until the wee hours Saturday morning. There was a much heavier vote on Friday than had been expected and a bigger turnout than last year which saw a light vote in the associated student elections.

As freshman class president this year he has liked the associations of the Student Senate. He will take office immediately. He expects to turn his energies toward the election of Ken Ross as president in the final election next week. Ken has served as 1st vice president this year.

Dave is in Ag-Ed and is a member of Sigma Phi Epsilon. ASB HHS Election

Interestingly Dave Hall's brother, John Hall ran on April 17 for the office of vice president of the Associated Student Body of Heppner High School. Nominations for the office were John Hall, Charlie Pointer and Jim Healy. John Hall and Charlie Pointer will run in the finals on April 24.

There were six running for president in the ASB elections. They were Bruce Marquardt, Valerie Boyer, Dan Sweeney, John Currin, Dallas Harsin and Rick Boyce. Dan Sweeney and John Currin were the winners of the primary and will be in the finals April 24.

Running for secretary in the ASB election were Becky Doherty, Diane Cutsforth and Rene Boyajian. Taking the primary, Diane Cutsforth and Alene Boyajian.

There were only two running for assistant treasurer. They were Barbara Allstott and Jeanne Daly. Barbara Allstott won and there will be no vote on this position in the final election.

For the Sgt. at Arms position Kathleen Ayres, Bob Ployhar, Dwain Steers and Carl King were the candidates. Kathleen Ayres and Bob Ployhar will be on the ballot for the final election.

Jill Rugg was elected business manager on a write-in.

Package Deal Offered Elks

Sale of tickets is proceeding at a brisk pace, reports Iris Mahafey, business manager of the Masquers, for their presentation of "Oklahoma."

Both the Condon Elks Lodge and the Heppner Elks Lodge are promoting a "package deal" for the evening of May 2, comprised of a ticket to Oklahoma, a cocktail and a buffet dinner. An advertisement elsewhere in this paper will provide more information.

The Round-Up restaurant will remain open the four nights "Oklahoma" is presented for the convenience of theater-goers and meals will be available.

The sixty-plus people involved in the presentation of "Oklahoma" have gone into "high gear" as the last week of rehearsals is upon them to insure a polished performance for which the Masquers have become well-known.

"Oklahoma" will be presented the evenings of May 1 and 2 and May 8 and 9. Jim Jamieson and Rev. P. J. Lunham are co-directing the musical which is one of Rodgers and Hammerstein's most-loved musicals.

First Aid Course Draws Large Class

The standard First Aid course that began a series of lessons on March 31 will be completed April 28. Sixteen people attended the first class which is being taught by personnel of the U. S. Forest Service office. The instructors are using film, books, question and answer sheets and illustrations as teaching aids.

Signed up for the course from Heppner are Monica Anne Jones, James and Delbert McLachlan, Robert and Marian Abrams, Genevieve and Arnold Springer, Floyd and Helen Everhart, Bert Corbin, Larry Fetsch, Charles McConnell and Diane Gerking and Sheriff Volney Thomas from Condon. Two others found they were unable to attend all sessions and had to withdraw from the course.

Diane Cutsforth Elected

Diane Cutsforth was elected treasurer of the Blue Mountain District Luther League at the spring conference held in Heppner and Valby last weekend. Sandra Matheny, outgoing president, presided over the conference.

Friday evening the group, 65 in all, attended the High School film, The Pit and the Pendulum and then returned to Hope Lutheran for the evening session and the showing of "My Favorite Phony" Young people came from Nyssa to Walla Walla. The Saturday morning sessions were held at Valby.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Gentry of Halney, B. C., were here last week visiting their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Pete McMurry. They also visited Edna Turner while they were here.
