

WILLIAM P. HABERLACH

ELIZABETH ANN STEVENSON

Weatherfords Attend Wedding in Yakima

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Weatherford and Karla were in Yakima Sunday to attend the wedding of Elizabeth Ann Stevenson to Mrs. Weatherford's son, William Peake Haberlach. He is stationed at Sandpoint Naval Station. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Barton Stevenson of Yakima.

The Rev. David Newquist read the ceremony at the Westminster Presbyterian Church. The bride given in marriage by her father, wore a dress of full length white cotton lace with long full sleeves. She carried a bouquet of all white mixed flowers, stephanotis, daisies, mums and lily of the valley. Frank Haberlach was best man for his brother. The bride's mother wore a light turquoise dress of shantung. The bridegroom's mother wore a blue and white Japanese silk suit.

Educational Honorary Meets in Heppner

New officers of Iota Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma were installed at the May 16 luncheon meeting in Heppner. Officers are: Edna Skold, M-F, president; Marjorie Liesegang, Herminston, first vice president; Hope Baney, Pendleton 2nd vice president; Rose Moore, Pendleton, corresponding secretary; Emilie Plants, Pendleton, treasurer and Joyce Smith, Irrigon, parliamentarian.

Mrs. Adrian Becholdt and Mrs. L. E. Dick both served as officers of the organization this past year. Plans were made for the International Convention to be held in Portland this summer.

Sandy Matheny provided vocal entertainment as she sang and accompanied herself on the guitar. Shannon Kelly sang, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Robert Kelly.

The reception was held at the Black Forest Inn. Mrs. Frank Haberlach and Mrs. Gerald Stevenson were in charge of the guest book.

After a wedding trip to Hawaii, the couple will reside in Seattle. The bride graduated from Washington State in 1965 and the bridegroom is a graduate of Oregon State and Willamette University College of Law.

Bridal Shower For Bonnie Akers

A bridal shower was held May 16, at the Willows Grange Hall in honor of Miss Bonnie Akers, whose marriage to Rodney Linnell will be June 13.

The room was decorated with floral bouquets of yellow and green, and a large bride doll belonging to Bonnie centered the gift table. Misses Berniece Matthews, Deniece Matthews and Marcia Linnell assisted with the opening of the gifts.

The song "Love" was sung by Debora, Donna and Anita Palmer, accompanied by Barbara Palmer on the piano.

The tea table was attractively decorated in the same color theme, with Mrs. Berl Akers, presiding at the punch bowl, Mrs. Don Linnell at the coffee service, and Mrs. Jessie Hatfield of Mayville, cutting and serving the cake.

Hostesses were Mrs. Bryce Keene, Mrs. Charles Jones, Mrs. Lee Palmer, Mrs. Marion Palmer, Mrs. Harold Sherer, Mrs. Ted Palmateer, Mrs. Lewis Halvorsen, Mrs. John Jepsen, Mrs. Herman Blettell, and Mrs. Helen McCabe.

Mrs. Will Rogers of Henryetta, Okla., is visiting at the home of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Basil Rogers.

Unit Officer Training Given at Fairgrounds

"The best training we've ever had" . . . was the typical comment following the day long training session held May 14 for newly elected Extension unit officers at the M.C. Fairgrounds.

The morning session was devoted to Leader-Teacher training, or how to present information effectively to groups. This portion of the officer training was given by Jean Nelson, Lexington, Advisory secretary, and Jeanne Megy, Milton-Freewater, District VII Director. They used information from a recent district session as basis for their training.

Afternoon sessions were conducted for the officers pertaining to specific duties of their elected offices. Tips for presiding were given by Dorris Graves, Chairman of the Advisory Committee; duties of secretaries, form required, etc. were outlined by Jean Nelson, advisory secretary. Fay Ferguson, treasurer, advisory committee, gave a brief summary of Extension treasurer duties, dues, forms and reports.

Highlights of State Council held May 5-7 at OSU were given by Agent Molly Saul, Jeanne Megy, Dorris Graves, Muriel Palmer and Barbara Witherrite.

Corley and Coe Wedding in Elgin

Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Vaughn of Hayfork, Calif., announce the marriage of her daughter, Cheryl Corley, to Kenneth Dale Coe, son of Mrs. Lee Ellen Coe of Elgin, Ore., on Saturday, May 2, at 10:00 a.m. at the Christian Church in Elgin. She is the daughter of the late Walter W. Corley of Ione.

Maid of honor was Betty Lou Adams, and 4-year old Cindy Coe, niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl. Chet Churchill of Elgin was best man for the groom. Ushers were Marvin Erickson, Arnie Krause and Nathan Coe. The Wedding March was played by Helen Roulet, who also accompanied the soloist Bennie Luse, who sang "You Belong to My Heart."

At the reception following the ceremony, grandmothers of the bride, Mrs. W. C. Seehafer of Boardman, and Mrs. Ralph Coates of Rochester, Wn., cut and served the cake. Aunts of the bride, Mrs. Ray Smith of Baker, and Mrs. M. J. Tye, of Enterprise, poured the coffee and presided at the punch bowl.

For going away the bride wore a gold dress with harmonizing accessories, and after a week honeymoon in Washington, Idaho and Montana, they will be at home at the Mary Mac Apartments in Redmond.

Relatives and friends coming from a distance were: Mr. and Mrs. Bill Stiles (Marianne Corley), cousins, Debbie White and Geri Renn from Redmond, Wn.; Mrs. Ralph C. Coates from Rochester, Wn.; Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Seehafer from Boardman; Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Tye, and Randy from Enterprise; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Smith, Angela Palmer, John Gaarsland, and Elaine Martin from Baker; Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Halvorsen from Ione; and Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Vaughn from Hayfork, Calif.

Dinner will be served from 6 to 8 p.m. The menu includes, ham, escalloped potatoes, molded salads, rolls and dessert. Dinner chairmen are Mrs. Merrit Gray and Mrs. Milo Prindle.

Pettyjohns Honored On 25th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Pettyjohn were honored with an open house, on their 25th wedding anniversary on May 10, at the home of Mrs. George Miller in Olex. The affair was planned by their three daughters. Forty-five relatives and friends from Ione, Arlington, and Olex attended and signed the Anniversary book given to Mr. and Mrs. Pettyjohn from their children. A "Maypole, with money attached to the streamers" was presented from the guests.

A tiered cake made and decorated by the girls was decorated in white, purple and silver, with a half moon horseshoe, around the numbers 25, centered on the top. It was the centerpiece for the attractive tea table, flanked by an arrangement of purple lilies and candles. Mrs. Paul Pettyjohn, Sr., presided at the punch bowl, Mrs. Marion Palmer, coffee and tea, and Mrs. George Miller cut and served the cake.

A buffet supper was served later in the evening. Hosts and hostesses for the occasion were Miss Marianne Pettyjohn, Mr. and Mrs. George Miller (Nancy) and Mr. and Mrs. Bill McCain (Patti).
