Students present "Musical Potpourri"

A group of Riverside High School students, Grant Walter, Diane Black, Pam Kuhn, Donna Pummel, Tammy Snyder and Joni Tiller, presented an entertaining hour of musical variety, "Potpourri", last Thursday in the school auditorium. The show was planned and arranged by the students themselves, and it was evident that they had put many hours of planning and practice into it.

The show was divided into five parts, the first one being "Negro Spirituals", and Grant, Diane, Pam and Donna sang "When the Saints Go Marching In" and "I Can Tell the World". Diane sang a solo, "Jesus Walked This Lonesome Valley". All four then sang "Rock-A-My Soul" with Donna as soloist. The three girls sang "Motherless Child", and the four then sang "Old Time Religion".

Tammy presented a bassoon solo, "Love Is Blue", accompanied by Pam on the piano. The second part was "Oldies but Goodies" which started with Donna doing a song and dance, "Charleston", then joined by Pam and Diane to "Be My Little Baby Bumble Bee". Grant then joined the girls with "Oh You Beautiful Doll". All four sang "Baby Face" and "Anything Goes".

Pam and Jimmie Stephens of Umatilla played a piano duet, "The Scarlet Cape".

The third part included songs of "The Cities." All four sang "Do You Know The Way to San Jose?" Grant sang "I Left My Heart in San Francisco", Diane sang "Chicago", Pam sang "San Francisco", and Donna sang "By the Time I Get to Phoenix". All four sang "Seattle".

The fourth part was a Salute to the Beatles. All four sang "Yesterday." Grant sang "Michelle", and Donna sang "Hey Jude." All four sang "Can't Buy Love" and a medley, "Come Together," "Something", and "Because." They also sang "Give Peace a Chance."

Joni Tiller presented a piano solo, "A Time For Us," the theme from "Romeo and Juliet." The fifth and last part of the entertainment was the "Pop Scene." All four sang "Aquarius" and "Up, Up and Away," and Donna and Pam sang "Scarborough Fair," accompanied by Joni Tiller on the flute. Diane sang "I'll Never Fall in Love Again." All four sang "Love Can Make You Happy" and "Happy Heart." Pam sang "The Look of Love." All four sang "Good Morning Starshine" and "Raindrops Keep Falling on My Head."

The finale was all singing "This Is My Country", joined in the singing by the audience. Joni Tiller was in charge of all musical accompaniment on tape.
