Society AND Clubs

MERIDITH REITA WEBB PARKER

Dr. McMurdo Home From Virginia

Dr. Archie D. McMurdo returned last Wednesday from a flight to Washington, D. C. Then by another plane for a short hop to Charlottesville, Va. Here he visited his brother, Aston E. McMurdo who lives there with a niece. Aston was 97 years old on June 15.

Dr. McMurdo also attended a reunion at the University of Virginia there at Charlottesville. There were about 500 alumni but no other one from his class of 1909.

He had lovely spring weather. The air was perfumed with the honeysuckle that borders every highway and byway.

Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln Nash were in Hood River this weekend to visit Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Springer, Mr. Nash's sister, and his brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Don Nash. They also visited "Scotty" Applegate, former Heppner residents.

Merid Webb Married in Walla Walla Ceremony

St. Paul's Episcopal Church in Walla Walla was the setting for the wedding of Miss Meridith Reita Webb and Lt. William Taylor Parker on June 6. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Webb, Jr. of Walla Walla, former Heppner residents, and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Sam T. Parker of Spokane and the late Mr. Parker. Rev. Roger Williams officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white cotton ottoman threaded with satin Venise trim on the neckline, empire waist and cuffs. She wore a camelot headpiece with floor length mantilla with Venise trim. She carried a bouquet of white and pink roses. Miss Rebecca Jane Webb served as her sister's maid of honor, wearing a floor length gown of pink cotton ottoman with Venise trim and matching bow and carried a nosegay of pink carnations and baby breath. The bridesmaids, wearing identical pink gowns were Mrs. Roger Aldrich of Tacoma, Miss Sharon Rudd, Spokane, Miss Kay Frazier and Miss Ann Tarwater of Walla Walla.

Serving as best man was Robert Brazeal of Spartanburg, S. C. Ushers were Dan Dunn, Portland, Bob Pearson, Spokane, Tom Foster, Seattle, and Terry Simon, San Jose, Calif. Master Greg Dean, nephew of the bridegroom was ring bearer.

Reception Follows

A reception followed at the Walla Walla Country Club. The bride attended Heppner Grade School, St. Paul's, and graduated from Walla Walla High School and graduated in elementary education from Washington State University in June, 1970. The bridegroom graduated from Shadle Park High School in Spokane, and since graduation from Washington State University in June, 1969, has been with the U. S. Air Force attending graduate school at San Jose State College studying meteorology. They will be making their home in Spokane where he is now stationed.

Attending the wedding from Heppner were Mr. and Mrs. Howard Cleveland and Tom, Mr. Luke Bibby, the Terry Thompson family and the Kenneth Cutsforth family.

Gathering Welcomes The Dave Williams'

The First Christian Church of Heppner and the Lexington Church of Christ enjoyed a combined potluck dinner Sunday, June 14 honoring Dave and Melody Williams. They are serving the two churches this summer in many different capacities. They will be helping with the youth groups and Dave will be preaching while Pastor Don Johnson is on vacation.

Following the potluck dinner the afternoon was spent with group singing led and accompanied by Dave and Melody. The talented couple also sang several songs for the group. There were around 70 present to enjoy the afternoon.

Altar Boys Picnic Planned

The Catholic Altar Boys picnic will be held June 20. Cars will leave the church at 8:30 a.m. for Lehman Springs. Those planning to go are asked to call Frank Rasmussen at 676-9281, Randy Lott at 676-5866 or Don McElligott at 422-7156. Lunch will be furnished.

HHS Class of 1960 Reunion June 27

The 29 members of the class of 1960 of Heppner High School are planning a big get together on June 27. At the present time 18 of the class have indicated they will attend and more are expected.

The weekend will begin at 6:00 Saturday with a social hour and dinner at the Wagon Wheel and a family potluck picnic is planned for 11:00 a.m. Sunday at the courthouse park.

All 1960 graduates and their families are invited and since many of them are living fairly close to Heppner, most should be able to attend.

Nazarenes Enjoy Neighbor Night

All those present at the Heppner Church of the Nazarene for the June 17 Neighbor Night service enjoyed the inspirational sing time. Slides were shown by Pastor Everhart and refreshments were served following the service in the Fellowship Hall. Booklets "This Was Your Life" were presented to all those in attendance.

Special musical numbers were presented by local talent and enjoyed by all. The July Neighbor Night has been tentatively set

Vacation Program Given Sunday

The sixty students enrolled in the Methodist Vacation Church school presented a program Sunday during morning worship. The Kindergarten group taught by Mrs. Daniel James assisted by Debbie McLeod and the Primary taught by Mrs. Bruce Griffith who also acted as director, gave memory verses and songs. Two older groups taught by Mrs. Ed Cutting and the Rev. Ed Cutting presented dramatic skits. Mrs. Cutting's group dramatized a Japanese Home Worship Service and Rev. Cutting's group dramatized from every day situations: Cheating, Jumping to conclusions without evidence and worthwhile values that can be trusted.

Each department displayed handwork.

Karla Weatherford had the nursery. Others assisting were Lora Lee Stotts, Lisa McCabe, Mrs. Elmer Palmer, Beverly Phegley and Mrs. Ron Hague-wood.

Moving to Pullman

The Harold Beggs family is moving this week to Pullman to make their home. Mr. Beggs who has been principal of Ione Schools for several years will enroll Monday at WSU. He plans to attend summer school, through the 1970-71 school year and summer 1971 to achieve his doctorate in School Administration.

The girls are working in Pullman already. Joy is working in the Jolly J and asks her friends to stop in there when they are in Pullman this summer. Charity is working as secretary in the Pullman High School office this summer.

Betrothed

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Sundin of Pendleton announce the engagement and forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Terre, to Chris Lovgren, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lovgren of Lexington.

Miss Sundin, a 1969 graduate of Pendleton High School attended BMCC and is now employed at St. Anthony's Hospital. Her fiancé, a 1968 graduate of Ione High School attended BMCC for two years, completing his Technical Agriculture course this June.

The young couple has set June 26 for their wedding date. Friends are cordially invited to the wedding at St. Mary's Church at 7 p.m.

Munkers-Healy Wedding June 27

Mr. and Mrs. James Healy announce the forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Sheila to Donald Munkers on June 27. Friends and relatives are invited to attend. The wedding will take place at St. Patrick's Catholic Church at 1 p.m. The reception will follow in the Parish Hall.
