Mrs. Harnett Honored

Three Oregon historians have been named as recipients of the Henry C. Collins Award, given by the Oregon Historical Society for distinguished work in the collection and preservation of local history.

The awards, which are made annually, have gone to Mr. and Mrs. Harley Haskins, Lebanon, and Mrs. Rachel Harnett, Heppner.

Mrs. Harnett won her award for her museum work in Heppner and other eastern Oregon historical projects.

The awards are presented annually by the Oregon Historical Society and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Manefee, Eugene, to outstanding regional history scholars in memory of Mrs. Manefee's father, an Episcopal minister of The Dalles, who was active in the early compilation of regional history.
