

MR. AND MRS. Mark Murray at the reception given in their honor Sunday afternoon in Ione.

Mark Murray Takes Bride

Sandra Leigh McBride and Mark Andrew Murray were married June 14 at Newberg in a ceremony attended by members of their family and close friends. Sandra is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. V. McBride and Mark is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Rod Murray of Heppner.

The ceremony was read by the Rev. Leroy Jaquith of the Gospel Chapel. The bride given in marriage by her father wore a white shantung A-line dress with lace embroidery at the neck and a double row down the skirt. She had a shoulder-length lace veil. She carried a white Bible that her grandmother had given her topped by a bouquet of multi-colored roses.

Mrs. Raymond Cardwell, close friend of the bride was matron of honor. Anne Murray, small sister of the bridegroom was flower girl and John Murray, his brother, was ring bearer. Mrs. Cardwell and Anne wore pastel green gowns.

Matt Murray was best man for his brother. Ushers were Dwight McBride, brother of the bride and Ray Jones of Heppner.

The reception was held at the bride's home.

The young couple is in Ione for the summer where Mark will be employed at Murrays Drugs. They will be in Corvallis this fall where he will take his senior year in Pharmacy at OSU.

Honored in Ione

The young couple was honored at a reception in Ione Sunday afternoon at the home of the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rod Murray. Many friends of the area came to greet

Ruth Chapter OES Has Installation

The theme for Ruby Becket's year as worthy matron of Ruth Chapter No. 32 of OES 1970-71 is worthy of thought: "Let there be Peace on Earth and let it begin with me". Following Mrs. Becket's installation Monday evening, Mrs. Hubert Wilson sang the song with the same words accompanied by Mrs. Inez Huffman.

After Mr. Becket was installed as worthy patron, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson sang "How Great Thou Art" also accompanied by Mrs. Huffman.

As the worthy matron and patron were escorted to their stations, Rainbow Girls formed an honor guard and an arch with canes tied with rainbow ribbons for them to pass through.

Installing Officers

Installing officers were Virginia Wilkinson and Paul Jones, Installing Grand Chapter Officers.

Rainbow Girls forming the honor guard were Christie Taylor, Mary Kay Hughes, Sue Melby, Sandy Matthews, Diane Mills and Karen Cox.
